REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The mission of the Church in education was never more clearly seen or more widely proclaimed than it is today. Statesmen, business men, educators, ministers and others vie with each other in proclaiming the duty, responsibility and opportunity of the Church in the field of education. The Christian Education Movement is the answer of our Church to the call to labor in this field with greater zeal.

The report of W. O. Goode, Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Education, shows that payments on a pledge of $733,605 have been made amounting to $136,423.54, leaving $112,105.68 now due. An additional amount of approximately $150,000 will be due on November 1st. Collections on pledges made in the Christian Education Movement are given complete right of way for the first time between August 1st and December 1st of this year.

The Board therefore recommends that the week beginning November 25th and ending December 2nd, be designated as "pay-up"-week" for the Conference and that all proper agencies and organizations be utilized for the purpose of collecting all pledges due at that time. Every school belonging to the Conference is inadequately supported, and some of them will be badly handicapped unless all these pledges are collected.

The Secretary-Treasurer has discovered unreported pledges and added new subscriptions amounting together to $15,922, making the total pledge $750,977. The office of the General Board highly recommends the work of W. O. Goode, and joins the Conference Board of Education in requesting that he be again appointed as Secretary-Treasurer of Education for the Conference.

A report from the General Board states that 403 undergraduates out of a total of 1,310 failed to pass on their studies last year. We would remind our undergraduates that the course of study is a definite task set before them for each year, and we are gratified by the insistence of our presiding bishop that each undergraduate bring up his course each year, if possible. We recommend that the two-thirds rate by which it is possible to admit on trial a preacher who has not met the minimum educational requirement be used very sparingly.

Among the Summer Schools for Preachers there are none more desirable for location or inviting in courses of study and lectures than our own, which is held from year to year at Trinity College. It is hoped that attendance will continue to increase until practically every preacher in the two Conferences may be found at this Mecca of North Carolina Methodism during the sessions of the Summer School.

The Board is in hearty accord with the Conference on Religious Education at Lake Junaluska last summer in its conclusions that "there should be hearty, effective co-operation between the denominational and State agencies, local State and national, with the one great purpose that there shall be universal moral and religious training throughout the United States," and a committee, which was appointed last year to aid in carrying out this aim, has been continued. This committee is composed of W. R. Odell, J. F. Kirk and E. W. Fox.

The Board has had before it written reports from Trinity, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges and Jefferson School. These reports were supplemented by verbal statements of the presidents and other respresentatives of these schools. Careful consideration has been given to the needs and requests of each school. We are glad to note a growing harmony and co-ordination in our school work.

We learn with great satisfaction that Trinity College continues to grow in endowment, equipment, enrollment of students and service. Its student body is larger by 100 than last year, and the establishment of the chairs in School of Religious Training is justified by the fact that 567 students are enrolled in that department, and of these 70 are ministerial and 30 missionary and life service students.

We are glad to note the high rating of Greensboro College and that the Trustees and Alumnae are undertaking to raise a fund for such endowment as will assure its classification for all time as an A-Grade College. There is reported a gracious revival in the college and an increase of fifty per cent in the enrollment in the department of religious education.

Davenport continues to grow in equipment, and the patronage has increased fifteen per cent. It is fast taking a high rank in our educational work.

Under the able and experienced presidency of Prof. C. H. Trowbridge, Weaver College is making substantial progress in the equipment of its buildings, the expansion of its work, and the growth of numbers in the student body.

The enrollment of ministerial students at Rutherford College is 55, out of a total of 209. This fact alone increases the interest of the church in this growing institution. It continues to render a very valuable service to the church.

Jefferson School has done good work, and the trustees are hopeful of continued growth in equipment and resources.

We recommend the employment of J. A. Bell, by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference to represent the conference, this board, and Bishop Collins Denny (who has been included in the complaint by the petitioner), in the matter of a summons to appear at the office of the Clerk of Superior Court for the County of Union on October 29, 1923, to answer the complaint of certain creditors of Weddington Industrial Institute.

We recommend the election or confirmation of the following trustees: For Trinity College, Rev. T. F. Marr, Rev. S. B. Turrentine, P. H. Hanes, Jr., and Dr. J. H. Way; for Greensboro College, C. A. Bray; for Davenport College, J. N. Hauss, Rev. A. W. Plyler, A. M. West, D. H. Warlick, Rev. C. A. Wood, Rev. W. O. Goode; for Weaver College, H. A. Dunham, C. W. Brown, and Rev. Ashley C. Chappell; for Rutherford College, G. R. Spencer, R. G. Rankin, W. F. Womble, J. A. Goode, L. D. Thompson, S. M. Asbury, J L. Millner, W. B. Love vice C. A. Jonas, and J. F. Shinn vice J. D. Pitts.

We recommend the following appointments: S. B. Turrentine, as President of Greensboro College; W. M. Curtis as Secretary-Treasurer of Greensboro College; P. T. Durham as Professor in Candler School of Theology; W. O. Goode as Secretary-Treasurer of Education for the Conference; E. M. Jones as Principal of Jefferson School; J. W. Bennett and R. M. Hauss as Professors in Rutherford College; A. P. Brantley, Student in Boston University; J. M. Downum, Secretary Appalachian Training School; R. M. Stafford, Student in Trinity College; J. A. Baldwin, Principal Southern Industrial Institute.

We recommend that W. O. Goode be appointed as a representative of the Board of Education of this Conference in the Methodist Educational Association.

We recommend the election of Z. E. Barnhardt as Manager for the Trinity Summer School for preachers.

We recommend an assessment of $30,000. Of this amount $550 shall go to the Summer School for preachers at Trinity College and the incidental expenses of this board, $3,000 to the Ivey Chair in the School of Religious Training at Trinity College; $3,000 to the new chair in the School of Religious Training at Trinity College.

Of the sum remaining there shall be paid on a pro rata basis $5,000 to Greensboro College, $4,150 to Davenport College, $4,150 to Weaver College, $4,150 to Rutherford College, $3,000 to Jefferson School, and $3,000 to the Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

We request the General Board of Education to appropriate $12,000 to the schools within our Conference to be divided as follows: Rutherford College, $3,000, Weaver College $3,000, Davenport College $3,000 and Jefferson School $3,000.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

This Board has been greatly pleased with the manifest proofs of expansion and development going forward within our conference. Some new charges are being created and others are becoming stations with promise of fine results for the cultivation of the people and the betterment of the church. However, these same cheering evidences of progress are often sources of embarrassment to us, since the new charges seem to be forming more rapidly than the old ones are becoming independent of the help of the board. As is usually the case our available funds are less than the askings of districts for their charges, and therefore some applications have of necessity been reduced.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

As a partial remedy we hereby enjoin the presiding elders to see to it that the pastors be more earnest in collecting the conference collections, for the board has no resources save those coming in from the field. Special attention is called to an act of the board providing that all appropriations are on the condition that an every member canvass be made in each church on the charge receiving appropriation; provided this shall not apply to payments of the first quarter; provided further, that the Executive Committee shall have authority to waive this condition at its discretion. This we do, not to further burden our pastors, since this work can and should be done by the laymen, but it is a "last resort" attempt on the part of the board to make the people understand that they cannot continue to expect help without trying to educate our people to the importance of missionary giving.

EVANGELISM

In keeping with the obligation laid upon us by the goal set by the last General Conference and our response to the supreme obligation laid upon us by our Lord, we again urge our brethren to make evangelism the dominant note of their ministry and give the most prominent place in their plans for the coming year to this work. In carrying out these plans we would respectfully suggest that the pastors be ready to help each other or hold their own meetings, since the largest and most lasting results seem to be attained by this personal effort and helpfulness with each other. But knowing that there is often a true function for the special evangelist, so well shown by the fruits of those representing the conference in this field, we recommend the following brethren to the same relationship, as held last year. R. A. Taylor, Conference Evangelist, and Rev. P. E. Parker be appointed a Missionary Evangelist, and further, that both the Conference evangelists and the missionary evangelists be asked to report quarterly on their work to our board through the Committee on Evangelism which is composed of the following brethren: H. K. Boyer, C. H. Ireland, Carlock Hawk, J. F. Shinn and Mrs. M. C. Goodwyn. We further recommend that E. K. McLarty be sent as our representative to Nashville, to attend the meeting of the parent board, December 12, 1923.

COLORED NORMAL AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

The board has heard with sympathy and interest the reports of the Colored Normal and Industrial School at South Boston, Va. Part due to the press of other matters, and lack of funds, we find ourselves unable to make any appropriation at this time.

Your board again expresses its great appreciation for the work so well done by the pastors and laymen in the matter of collecting the Centenary pledges. To weaken now in sight of the goal would be almost calamitous. That we do not grow weary in well doing, we wish to set forward for your approval the following recommendations, to-wit:

That our Conference enter heartily into the Pay Out Campaign, which has been fixed for the months of December and January, 1923-24.

And as a practical approach to this end, that we adopt and follow the plan of grouping our churches into four classes, viz: Those churches having paid out in full; second, those churches having paid four-fifths of the total amount pledged; third, those churches having paid three-fifths of the total amount pledged; fourth, those churches having paid less than three-fifths of pledge.

The first class should have recognition and honor by being published in the Conference paper, second class urged to pay balance by February 1st, 1924, third class urged to pay one-half balance by February 1st, 1924, and fourth class urged to pay one-third balance by February 1st, 1924.

And further, that as early as possible, and preferably not later than the first week in December, the mid-year meeting of the Presiding Elders and Board of Missions be held in order to consider ways and means for carrying out this pay out program.

J. W. JONES PROPERTY

Whereas, the late Reverend J. W. Jones, of our Conference, bequeathed an interest in a certain tract of land in Rowan county to the Board of Missions, and the executor of this estate has requested the Board of Missions to advise as to its wishes in regard to the proposed sale of said tract of land.

Therefore, we recommend that the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions be authorized, empowered and directed to investigate all the facts in regard to this bequest, and take such action as in its judgment shall be to the best interest of the Conference and of the Board of Missions.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. R. M. Courtney as Centenary Field Secretary and his election to the Duke Fund Commission to represent our board.

Also, the board asks approval of their act in appropriating $600 to the Chapel Hill charge.

Rev. E. K. McLarty was elected by the board as the third man on the Board of Managers of the Trinity Summer School for preachers.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Your Board has given full and careful consideration to all matters presented to it. A large number of applications for aid have been received, and we find a majority of the projects to be very worthy. Your Board has been unable to grant every request for aid for the following reasons:

1. Lack of sufficient funds for distribution.
2. Applications not properly completed.
3. Projects not far enough advanced, or insufficient funds raised by the local church.
4. Disciplinary and General Board requirements not complied with.

There are three new rules recently put into effect by the General Board, to which attention is directed:

1. Churches to which grants of donations or loans are made must submit plans to the Department of Architecture for approval. Should the plans be unsatisfactory it is required that payment be suspended until the plans are changed to conform to the suggestions of the Department of Architecture. A reasonable charge is to be deducted from the grant for this service.

2. The General Board has on hand over $200,000 which it is holding on account of grants made one, two and three years ago, and unpaid, because buildings have not been erected or for other reasons. A rule has, therefore, been adopted to the effect that all grants and loans shall expire at the end of eleven months from the date when they were made. They can be continued or renewed only upon the application by the pastor and the official board, or the building committee, having charge of the houses for which grants were made, provided sixty days notice has been given by the Secretary of the General Board.

3. Heretofore appropriations have been made by the General Board only at the annual meeting, and by the Executive Committee when emergencies arose. The new rule provides that the Board shall appoint annually a Committee on Appropriations to be composed of twelve members, seven of whom shall be members of the Executive Committee, and five appointed from among the members of the General Board by the Committee on Nominations. It is further provided that the Appropriations Committee shall meet three times a year in addition to the annual meeting of the General Board. This committee shall have authority to make, by three-fourths vote, grants of donations and loans under the same rules and regulations governing appropriations by the General Board in its annual meetings, except that at no meeting shall the appropriations for either donations or loans exceed one-fourth of the amount available for appropriation as estimated and approved at the preceeding annual meeting of the General Board.

Your Board recommends to the General Board the election of Leon Cash of Winston-Salem, N. C., to fill out the unexpired term of the late lamented Dorman Thompson, who served so acceptably as a member of the General Board.

It is a source of regret that your Board does not have adequate funds for rendering aid to the many meritorious calls presented to it from all parts of the Conference.

Attention is called to the importance of properly completing applications for aid. Many applications reach your Board in a very incomplete condition and this causes delay in giving them consideration. It also imposes unnecessary burdens on the officials of your board and the officials of the local church. A careful reading of the Discipline and the instructions forwarded with each application blank will indicate clearly how each application should be completed.

The following applications for aid from the General Board were carefully reviewed and will be referred for action to that Board at their quarterly meeting to be held on December 11, 1923—Wesley Chapel, McAdenville and Waynesville.

The following applications were referred to the Duke Commission:

Churches—East La Porte, Rocky Ridge, New Hebron, Imogne, Pleasant View, Bethel, Fairview, Wesley Chapel, Good Hope, Clemmons, Salem.

Parsonages—Sandy Ridge.

Applications approved for payment by your Conference Board were as follows:

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

The Commission on Budget recommends the following assessments together with the distribution of same to the districts:

The assessments for the General Work are the same as for last year; nevertheless there will be some changes in the amounts distributed to the different districts.

For our Conference Work we recommend an increase of $3,500, which is about 2½ per cent more than last year.

We also recommend a special assessment of three thousand dollars to provide an all the time pastor for the sick soldiers at Oteen Hospital. We have distributed this amount to the districts and we suggest that this collection be taken as near the first of December as practicable, and the money be forwarded to the Rev. R. M. Courtney, Conference Missionary Secretary, as soon as collected.

For the Children's Home we recommend an amount on each charge equal to ten per cent of the preacher's salary for the current year.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

In common with all Christendom we hold the faith that the prayer of Jesus gave us—"Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven"—is a promise that love and justice shall eventually rule in all human affairs. We believe the petition "Our Father who art in heaven" is a pledge that we are God's children bound by spiritual ties, and constrained to the mutual forbearance, respect and love that prevails in the family.

No system of philosophy can swerve the Christian from this faith in the ultimate coming of the Kingdom, nor can any legislation bring it in by compulsion. There is but one compulsion that cannot be denied, one law that cannot be evaded, that is the Spirit, working with our spirits, moving us to deeds of love and justice, giving us the vision of a world redeemed on earth, redeemed from disease, from poverty, from ugliness, from ignorance, and from sin, the cause of all.

What Christian can be happy, can be clean, while his brother stands at his gate, hungry, soul-starved, stupid, ignorant, ragged, sore, hating or hated, envious or despised. My brother! My sister! My child! Not until these words represent the Christian's immediate impulsive response to the need of his fellowman will Christ's prayer be fulfilled in the coming of the Kingdom in the guise of the Family of God.

This is a long path to travel, but we believe the Church can take no shorter, easier path toward that goal, where true brotherliness shall be the controlling motive in government, in industry, and in social relations.

Already there has come out of the heart of the Christ into the heart of humanity a new and deeper social consciousness which is becoming the basis of a new social order. There is a masterful passion for social betterment. It gleams in men's eyes. It gives vibrant intensity to their voices. It moves along their finger tips to unselfish deeds. Multitudes of men are seeing the world not only as it is but as it should be. They have put on the whole armor of God, and have gone forth like a mighty army to do battle for the equal rights of humanity. These modern crusaders can be found in the pulpit, in the colleges, in business, in field and factory. Social clubs and fraternal orders are working for larger opportunity for the under-privileged. The Church, whose Christ has inspired these movements must not only stand in line, but must hold the torch that lights the upward way and must prove her faith by her works.

SOCIAL LEGISLATION

As citizens of a state that has made such rapid advances in social legislation as to cause leaders in social work in every other state to study her methods we should ourselves know what those laws are. The Department of Public Welfare has issued a compilation of its welfare laws and we are requesting the Commissioner to send a copy to each member of this Conference.

The plan of the Committee of One Hundred for revision of our whole prison system, which you endorsed last year, carried only in part in the last Legislature. Nevertheless it has aroused thinking citizens and further progress is anticipated. Our Governor has taken the initiative in abolishing the dark cell, flogging and other forms of punishment in prison and camp. We ask your aid in the creation of public sentiment for making our penal institutions a means of sending out those committed to them better citizens than they were when they entered. This means study, investigation and publicity of the subject by pastor and people.

The Aid to Mothers' Act which you supported last year has become a law and forty-two counties have taken advantage of its provisions. The support given the bill by Methodists has received generous recognition by legislators and commissioners. In addition to the formal endorsement of this body, your board worked for its passage through its chairman and secretary and through the members of the two Conference Wom n's Missionary Societies. We rejoice in this action by our state and believe some similar provision should be made by our church for worthy mothers who would otherwise be separated from their children, when the breadwinner has been removed from his family.

That our church people may give enlightened support to this provision of the state and to all other state care of dependent, neglected and delinquent children, of the poor, the crippled, and the aged in our communities we urge our pastors to seek out the County Welfare officers in their respective counties, to confer with them and to bring them into close co-operation with the church social service committees which are our constituted agencies for such work.

The greatest challenge to the church is the neglected child. It has been long recognized as a millstone around the neck of society. These little ones without the moral and religious environment of home, as they grow up, swell the numbers in reformatories, penitentiaries and houses of prostitution. We recognize the impossibility of caring for the ever increasing number in institutions and encouraged by the attested records of children adopted under the supervision of home finding societies, we recommend that the directors of our Children's Home be empowered to follow this method of caring for children deprived of both father and mother.

We rejoice in the splendid work of the Stonewall Jackson

Training School in developing citizens. Samarcand is doing a great work for wayward girls. Both schools are full. Our church can aid in the good work by getting counties that have not already done so to build cottages at these institutions, for the housing of those now being refused admittance.

The Training School for Delinquent Colored Boys which has been urged in these reports for several years and which was authorized by the Legislature of 1921 but which fell by the way through failure to claim the appropriation, is soon to be a reality. A smaller sum was appropriated in 1923 and the building is begun.

Public sentiment should demand similar provision for colored girls. The Superintendent of Public Welfare has advocated the establishment of a Bureau under the Department which shall have the direction of trained colored social workers who will go into the homes of colored families and teach the women and girls the fundamentals of home-making, child care, hygiene and sanitation. This would be of immense value to both colored and white people. It will come to pass when we believe in it sufficiently to work for its creation and support.

The rights of children to grow into the fullest development of which each is capable is a matter of so much importance that we believe the Federal Government should safeguard these rights. Your Board therefore recommends continued support of the Child Labor Amendment which your body endorsed last year and which will come before the next session for action.

We gladly acknowledge the responsibility of the social service committees of the local church for promoting interest in and collecting funds for the Society of the Golden Cross, and we ask the pastors to notify the chairman of their social service committees of this new phase of their work.

Since our Woman's Missionary Societies are organized for social service under a superintendent, we respectfully request the pastors to appoint these superintendents on their local church social service committees.

We wish to endorse the appeal of the Near East Relief for the 110,000 orphans under its care, the refugees following the Lausanne treaty, in whom the spark of life is being kept, and suggest that our members should be sympathetic to the appeals made from time to time for the Near East Relief and that offerings be made from Sunday schools and churches for this Christian work.

THE SOCIAL SERVICE CONFERENCE

This conference under management of the General Board of Temperance and Social Service at Lake Junaluska last summer was held in the spirit of your Social Creed. Some reports from it have appeared in the Church press. Its intense significance cannot be reported. You should know that speakers of national reputation in the fields of Child Welfare, Reform, Social Hygiene, Temperance, Industry and Race Relations gave their time freely to the church.

The Commission offered entertainment to the conference secretaries of Epworth Leagues, Sunday School Boards, to the secretaries and chairmen of conference Boards of Social Service and Temperance, and superintendents of social service in conference Woman's Missionary Societies, east of the Mississippi River.

One significant fact we must bring to your attention. The Woman's Missionary Societies paid the travel expense of their representatives to the number of 78. The representatives of our conference boards were obliged to pay their expense or stay at home. Most of them did the latter. Our chairman was there.

We believe this week of study of social questions in the spirit of Christ and under the guidance of devoted men and women experts in their various fields is of too great value to our churches to be missed, and that in the event of a like conference next year we should be able to send our delegate.

We also want to be able to pay the expenses of a speaker and a modest honorarium, if occasion offers, to this annual conference, and for these purposes we ask that you will appropriate to this Board a sum not to exceed $200.

TEMPERANCE

The relation of temperance to Social Service is a very vital one. Temperance means the proper use of things lawful and good, and the total abstinence of things that are wrong or evil. We can never lift up and develop people socially and religiously while they are under the power of strong drink, and other evils that grip and hold them like an horrible "nightmare." It is therefore clearly the duty of the church to do all in its power to rid the country of these evils. To enumerate some of these evils we mention liquor, drugs, coca-cola, and other drinks offered to our people, which takes their money and leaves them not bettered but worse physically and morally. In this class we would put most of the movies. Also we mention the tobacco habit, and especially the cigarette, as being in the way of the development of our people morally, spiritually, intellectually and economically. The cigarette habit is taking the small boy in its grip and holding him while it undermines his health and character ,and thousands of them are going to ruin because of this more than anything else. The field that is grown up with weeds, briers, brambles and bushes cannot be cultivated in a useful crop without first clearing away these preoccupying enemies: just so we need to clear up the ground we occupy of the noctious growths that furnish the occasion for intemperance, and that holds out the inducement to the weak and down-trodden.

Therefore be it resolved that we preach against these evils and teach our people the injurious effects of them, and that we do all in our powr to save our people from them.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

The love of money has made so many moonshiners, blind tigers and rum runners that those who have not studied the subject sometimes say it is worse than before the prohibition laws were passed; and those who find that prohibition is terribly in their way want to charge that it is worse than it was before, but this is because prohibition is prohibiting. Of course, it will not entirely prohibit. No law does that; but progress is being made, as we are learning how and seeing the importance of doing it. Our place in the matter of law enforcement is to get behind the law as a people, and the better way to do this is to organize the religious and moral forces in every county for law enforcement. We have organizations already in some of the counties. Catawba county has been organized for several years, and Mecklenburg has a carefully planned organization that if put into every county and persistently carried out will help wonderfully in law enforcement.

Copies of the Mecklenburg Law and Order League may be secured by writing to Mr. E. A. Cole, Charlotte, N. C.

We rejoice in the fact that the Federal and State authorities are uniting their forces for law enforcement and that our President has called the governors of the forty-eight states to meet him at the White House for the purpose of studying the great question of the enforcement of the Federal and State prohibition laws; we are greatly encouraged and are looking for great results from this conference.

We are glad to note that sheriffs, solicitors and judges of our courts are trying harder to enforce the prohibition laws than heretofore. Many of the bootleggers are getting road sentences which is having a better effect than fines formerly did.

1. We recommend that as we mean to stand behind the laws of our nation and state, we, preachers and laymen, do all we can to get all the religious and moral forces organized in every county in the bounds of our Conference.

2. That we endorse the Anti-Saloon League, and pledge to it our hearty support.

3. That we pledge to the law enforcement departments of our state and nation our hearty support.

W. L. HUTCHINS, Chairman.
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

1. Your Sunday School Board has given careful consideration to the resolutions and other papers sent in with reference to certain teachings within our Conference bounds that have caused comment and disquietude in the minds of many of our people during the past few months. We recognize the gravity of the situation and deem it fitting to restate the time-honored position of our church.

We think this cannot be done better than by quoting and endorsing the action of our General Conference at its last session when a similar situaion was presented, which is as follows:

"We, your representatives in General Conference assembled, in view of the fact that there have come to us various memorials and petitions which indicate that in parts of the Church and among some of our people there is a degree of alarm lest the time-honored and universally accepted doctrines of our Methodism are not being presented in their purity by certain of our preachers and teachers, send you our greetings and beg to assure you that we, and we believe the great body of our people, still adhere unwaveringly to 'the faith once delivered to the saints.'

"It may be that some, using that liberty which Methodism has always allowed to its representatives, have gone too far in questionable speculations. We would not have our people, our young people in particular, led to accept beliefs contrary to our recognized standards of doctrine. Those standards are amply set forth in our Articles of Religion and in the Apostles' Creed.

"We therefore call upon all Annual Conferences, Boards of Trustees of our institutions of learning, and other responsible officers of our Church, to take all necessary steps to 'banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's word.'

"No article of our faith has been from the beginning more precious or more vital in our history than the divine inspiration and sufficient authority of the Bible. We recall to you once more those emphatic and comprehensive words of our Fifth Article of Religion: 'Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation; so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of the faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation.'

"Such is the faith which we have inherited from our fathers and by which we unfalteringly hold. God has wonderfully rewarded our loyalty. The past quadrennium, the last year especially, has been for our Zion one of unexampled prosperity. Our people have been moved to pour vast sums of money into the treasury of the Lord. Multitudes of souls have been the harvest of our ministry. Our increase of membership last year (91,315) was the greatest we have ever had in one year, and greater than that reached the same year by any other branch of Methodism. Meantime, the young people of our church societies and institutions of learning are offering themselves by the thousands for lives of sacrificial service.

"As enforcing the sentiments for which we would have our people stand, we bring to their attention and commend to their consideration the following weighty paragraph from the Pastoral Address of our honored and beloved bishops:

" 'Heretofore our Church has been remarkably exempt from destructive influences and revolutionary tendencies. Our preachers (with few, if any, exceptions) have been characterized by purity of doctrine and elevation of life, and the spirit of our people has been marked by the most admirable conservatism of evangelical Christianity.

" 'We do not disparage devout scholarship, nor discourage efforts to reach sound learning in all departments of thought and promote investigation along all lines of useful research. From the first Methodism has fostered education and walked unafraid along all the paths of intellectual culture. From its founders and fathers, who came forth from the halls of famous seats of learning, we have inherited courage in pursuit of Truth and confidence in following its light. We have received also from them the disposition to maintain the faith once for all delivered to the saints. They were not, and we must not be, unstable children, tossed to and fro and carried about by every wind of doctrine. Modish rationalism must not be permitted to affect our devotion to the established tenets of ancient and abiding Christianity.

" 'In these times of doubt and distress the message of the enduring gospel of the Son of God, with apostolic accent and authority, must speak tranquillity and order to a perturbed and distressed world. The demands of the hour exclude the propagation of novelties and notions.

" 'The learned and devout men in whose labors we have entered did not follow cunningly devised fables when they made known to our fathers the way of salvation. Mists arising from astral myths and ethnic legends did not becloud their judgment nor dim their faith; and to the sure word of prophesy in which they trusted we shall do well to take heed in these troubled times as unto a light that shineth in a dark place. The present is not the age for discovering the gospel, so long revealed, but for declaring it as a body of saving truth which even an angel might not seek to displace for another gospel without incurring the just anathemas of all holy and faithful souls. Our office is not to produce a new Christianity, but to preach with the power of the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven, 'the old, old story of Jesus and His love.'

" 'It is our deep conviction that the one evil out of which springs all of the uncertainty and distress of the present time is sin, which lies so deep in the human heart. We believe, therefore, that throughout all our borders, in our schools as well as in our churches, the evangelical note should sound out loud and clear, excluding all doubtful disputations. The one sure way to keep our faith sound is to keep our Christian experience fresh and vital and growing. And the best defence against all the forms of incendiary rationalism on the one hand, and of the fanaticism of ignorance on the other, is a great offensive movement against all the forces of iniquity. Therefore, do we 'speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward.' We call for an advance along all the lines of evangelistic activity. As during the quadrennium just past we have laid stress on the missionary and educational work of the Church, so during the coming quadrennium let the forces of the Church be organized in a mighty effort to bring lost men and women to the Son of God. To this end, let the spirit of brotherly love prevail in all our borders; let us put away all worldliness out of our hearts and life; and let increasing prayer be made to the God of our fathers for the outpouring of His Holy Spirit upon all our people.' "

In harmony with the above statement of our General Conference, your Sunday School Board of the Western North Carolina Conference desires, while expressing its entire confidence in the good intentions of those in authority in connection with religious training in our church, to disapprove emphatically of the selection of teachers or lecturers whose utterances are calculated to disturb the faith of our people.

2. The attention of the Conference is called to the architecture and equipment of the new departmentalized Sunday School building in this church (Centenary, Winston-Salem). There are other similar buildings in our Conference already practically completed, or in course of construction. Such buildings are becoming an example and an inspiration to other congregations.

Our Conference has more Sunday schools than any other Conference of our denomination. One other Conference, the Virginia, has a larger Sunday school membership. More Sunday schools scholars joined the church last year in our Conference than in any other Conference of our Connection. Only one other Conference raises more money through the Sunday schools than does ours.

The figures seem to show that our field workers are securing the co-operation of our people, and getting effective results. These workers, O. V. Woosley and Miss Virginia Jenkins, will remain in the field for another year, continuing the headquarters' office at Lexington, N. C.

Brethren, correspond freely with Mr. Woosley about your Sunday school problems and needs. Especially if you are planning to build or remodel your Sunday school or church; get in touch with him and let him give you the benefit of his observation and study. Miss Jenkins stands ever ready to assist you on any matter that concerns the children under thirteen years of age.

Seventy of our preachers earned one credit or more in the approved course of study during the conference year. Our presiding bishop spoke words of commendation to these men at the anniversary service. The board hopes that these same men will earn another credit, or more, during the coming year. When all our preachers earn credits every year, then all our schools will become rapidly more efficient. The board hopes that a much larger number of our preachers will earn a credit during the new Conference year. Public recognition will be given the men who secure such credits at our anniversary service next year.

Sunday School Day programs will be furnished next year, at the expense of this board, to all schools that observe the day. The offering taken that day should be sent immediately to Mr. H. A. Dunham, Treasurer, Asheville, N. C. If the offerings prove to be generous throughout the Conference, Standard Training Schools can be held in more centers of the field. The board hopes that the importance of a liberal Sunday School Day offering will be stressed by our presiding elders, pastors and superintendents. Several schools, during the past year, sent in offerings amounting to one hundred dollars or more each.

On our rural charges it is hoped by the board that our preachers and superintendents will hold a circuit institute once in each quarter. Our field workers will be glad to offer suggestions, if asked to do so. Also they will attend every institute that they can possibly reach.

Secure, brethren, a printed "Program of Work" for the general school from the headquarters' office at Lexington. This office can furnish you also with a "Program of Work" for the elementary departments of your school, if your school is departmentalized.

A considerable number of our Sunday schools are observing, just now, "Children's Week." During this week the teachers visit the homes of the Sunday school scholars, hold a parents' meeting, and at this meeting try to take some forward step in the work for the children under thirteen. It isn't too late yet to put on "Children's Week" in your school. It will help your work to observe the week.

The Board requests the members of the Conference Program Committee for our next Annual Conference to permit the Sunday school aniversary to take place on Wednesday evening of the opening day.

W. A. LAMBETH, Chairman.
GEO. L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

An English writer said some years ago, "Men are governed much more by opinion than by law. It is not the judgment of courts, but the moral judgment of individuals, which is the chief wall of defense around property and life." Moreover one of the most voluminous and helpful writers of an earlier day not only believed the same thing but narrowed it to one class of men when he made this thought provoking statement: "The destiny of any nation at any given time depends on the opinions of its young people under five-and-twenty."

If the testimony of these two writers on the omnipotence of opinion is to be accepted, no further evidence should be required to convince the church that her most colossal task is that of forming and fixing in the heart of her young men and young women right opinions on the momentous questions of their day.

For this purpose, we believe, the Epworth League was organized, and has been maintained.

The General Secretary, Dr. F. S. Parker, reports a gain of more than 25 per cent in membership and a total of perhaps 300,000. The number of Chapters now exceeds the number of pastoral charges in our connection though less than one organized congregation in three has an Epworth League.

The General Secretary also reports that for the first time in the history of the church there is now a Conference Epworth League in each of our Annual Conferences in America. The Epworth League is the only institution of the church which has paid its full quota of the Centenary fund.

We are very happy to state that our own League Conference has grown in the last few years to where it takes high rank among those of the entire Connection. Above 500 regularly constituted delegates attended our meeting in Charlotte last summer. The Epworthians of this Conference subscribed $3785 as a Missionary Special. Part of this amount is spent on our work in Africa, part to support Miss Curnon Blessing, Dean of Women, Paine College, and part of it for distribution of Christian literature in Japan.

An institute has been held in every district of the Conference this year. These have done much to keep alive and stimulate interest in the work we are doing with and for the young life of our church. We have come to think of these institutes as vital to the maintenance, extension and development of local League activities.

We again wish to commend in strongest terms the work of Miss Grace Bradley, our efficient and untiring Field Secretary, and suggest that all our pastors open the way for her to reach their young people and start them along the line of high Christian endeavor; and we desire to commend the work of Rev. Lee A. Falls, Superintendent of Life Service Volunteers. Approximately 275 young Leaguers have volunteered.

We regard the organization and careful culture of Intermediate and Junior Leagues as absolutely necessary if we are to look for a continued growth in the Senior Chapters and commend heartily the labors of Mrs. G. G. Adams, Conference Superintendent of Intermediate work, and Mrs. James, Conference Superintendent of Junior work.

The "Epworth Era" enjoys the unprecedented circulation of nearly forty thousand and the "Junior Epworthian" and "Intermediate Epworthian" are both on a self-supporting basis, and have an increasing circulation. The "Tar Heel League," our Conference paper, is gradually making its way to the heart of the young life of the church. We would urge corresponding secretaries to supply this paper, and the editor of the League page of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, with League news as it occurs in their local chapters.

Your Board urgently requests the Conference program committee for our next Annual Conference to provide for the holding of the Epworth League Anniversary on Saturday night of the Conference.

LEE A. FALLS, Chairman,
J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

From reports submitted to the Board of Christian Literature by the Publishing House and the Methodist Board of Publication we learn that substantial gains have been made in our publishing business. These gains show that Methodist people are loyal to their publishing concerns. However, a financial shrinkage has been sustained by the Methodist Board of Publication, due to the loss of 1500 subscribers to the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the elimination therefrom of objectionable advertisements, but compensation for this loss has been made by putting the mailing list into more satisfactory condition and by increasing the business of the job department. This department has shown a healthy increase during the past three years, the year which has just closed having been the best of the three; more than $18,000 worth of printing have been done. This income from job work was very timely, since through the elimination of all objectionable advertisements from the columns of the Advocate a loss of $3000 was incurred.

We are gratified that progress is being made in the production of a literature which sets forth the history and faith of our church. In furnishing our people such literature we may be able to secure much greater church loyalty. It is a matter of pride to the members of this Conference that Dr. Gilbert T. Rowe is editor of the Quarterly Review, and we are gratified with the high place this periodical holds in the field of Christian Literature. We are also very proud of the Christian Advocate, our General Organ, which we believe is one of the great church papers, indispensable to our ministry and deserving a place in every Methodist home. We recommend that diligence be given to the circulation of these periodicals and all our literature, whether book, pamphlet or periodical.

We recommend that a vigorous campaign be made in February, March and April to increase the circulation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. We suggest that, wherever practicable, the board of stewards put the Advocate into the budget so as to send the paper into every home. We recommend that one Sunday during these months be known as Advocate Sunday, that special emphasis be then laid upon the importance of Christian Literature, and that strong efforts be made to increase the subscription list of the Advocate to at least 30,000.

We call attention to the fact that the General Conference has provided for a committee in each pastoral charge to be elected by the Quarterly Conference to assist the pastor in the circulation of Christian Literature. We suggest that this committee be appointed promptly and with care, and that it be diligent in the circulation of our literature.

Since the term of office of D. B. Coltrane as a member of the Board of Publication has expired, and since he has been nominated to succeed himself, we request that the Conference confirm his nomination.

This Board requests the appointment of A. W. Plyler as editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

J. E. ABERNETHY, Chairman.
OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The property now held by our Board of Trustees includes $62,500 in first mortgage securities, and the one hundred acre farm in Mecklenburg county.

Under authority given our Treasurer at our last Annual Conference, the Heath Liberty Bonds have been sold at par, and the proceeds invested in first mortgage real estate bonds. As a result of this change our Children's Home received $2,400 instead of $1,700 the past year for interest on this bequest.

At a called meeting held in Salisbury last July our Board unanimously agreed to assist in the employment of attorneys to defend in the courts our interests in the Wesley Higgins will case.

The Trustees have appropriated $1,300 to our Superannuate fund.

The following officers have been re-elected for the ensuing year: D. Atkins, President; W. R. Ware, Vice President; I. F. Craven, Secretary and Treasurer.

Attached hereto is a copy of our Treasurer's receipts and disbursements for the past year.

D. ATKINS, President.

REPORT OF BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD

Your Bible Society Board finds that more Bibles have been printed and distributed this year than during any other year. We are glad to know that the Word of God is increasing in demand at home and abroad and we urge the payment of the assessment in full, so that this worthy cause may have the amount asked for from our Conference.

We call the attention of our wealthy laymen to this cause, as large donations placed with the American Bible Society would accomplish much. We ought to be able to place a copy of God's Word in every home, even where the people may be too poor to purchase a copy. We are told that the Scriptures are printed in more than 160 languages and dialects, and money is needed to furnish every immigrant to our country, the poor and unfortunate native born, as well as the people in many foreign countries, a copy of God's Word, whether they are able to purchase or not.

We are glad to learn that many Epworth Leagues and Sunday schools are stimulating daily Bible reading by making it a part of the weekly report of classes and chapters. We recommend this plan or any other feasible plan that will encourage our people to read, and if possible to memorize at least one verse of Scripture each day. For, if our people read, assimilate, reverence and obey God's Word, our country is safe.

We pledge the American Bible Society our continued interest and support in its great work.

J. M. DOWNUM, Chairman.
R. A. SWARINGEN, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church has tried to see in the various achievements of the Church signs indicative of spiritual development. We are very grateful to note that a number of new churches have been built, and others are in process of construction. We are glad to note that our Sunday schools have grown in number and importance as a result of better equipment, wise direction and more efficient leadership. We have heard of good revivals in many of our charges, and are comforted in the thought that through the preached Word many souls have been saved.

In the financial statistics we are proud to say that our people seem to be growing in the grace of liberality. Along all lines of material development we see growth and expansion, and if we should judge the spirituality of the church from that viewpoint alone we should have great cause for rejoicing, and should pronounce the spiritual health of the church good.

We cannot close our eyes, however, to some very dangerous conditions that may deprive the church of much of her spiritual power. There is not enough of the "old time religion" in our homes. We do not believe that there are as many family altars in our homes in proportion as there were in the days of our fathers. The altar fires of the church cannot glow with the fire from off the altar of God, while the altars in the homes are heaps of cold cinders or ashes. The home and the church of the Living God are in competition with the cheap sensationalism of the amusement halls found in practically every community throughout the length and breadth of this great nation. Jazz and the spirit of jazz are deadly foes to spirituality. Some church members are permeated with the spirit of worldliness, and though their names are on our church registers, in spirit they walk with us no more.

There is a dangerous idea in the minds of many to give just as little time as possible to the church on Sunday. Many leave the churches at the close of the Sunday school and take joy rides during the preaching hour, and often picnic in the country on God's Holy Day. We know such actions are not in keeping with the spirit of worship and we deplore the fact that many pews are vacant as a result. We need a revival of the "old time religion." We believe there is spiritual power in the church of God to bring it to pass. We believe our preachers are preaching the pure gospel of "Christ and Him crucified." We believe in that Gospel, and in its power to save us from all the mighty material forces that threaten the spirituality of the church. That Gospel has power to aid and help us in our social and domestic, our civic, our commercial and our industrial problems, but in order to do its perfect work in those lines, it must first save you and me from the destructive power of sin.

H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
E. E. WILLIAMSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The committee has endeavored, by correspondence, to urge the payment for the current year of all dues and pledges to this fund. We have collected during the year in cash the sum of $6221.91. We expect a substantial amount of the building and loan stock to mature during the year 1924, and the majority of this stock, where the dues have been regularly paid, should mature during the year 1925. The balance on cash pledges will practically all mature during 1924.

The committee is anxious to deliver over this sacred fund to the church at the earliest possible date that it may be committed to its mission and purpose of mercy and justice, so sadly needed and so long delayed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

Whitfield and Wesley were contemporary. Whitfield was eloquent, spiritual and able to sway thousands, but for the lack of proper training, his adherents are almost nothing. Wesley organized his classes, built churches and schools, and today his followers number millions.

As the spirit of man needs the corporate body for activity in this life, so the church of God must have suitable equipment to accomplish its work in the world. With this thought in mind we wish to make the following observations: We note with gladness that some of our wealthier congregations are like Solomon, unwilling to live in palaces, while the Giver of all their wealth dwells in tents.

We commend all those congregations that have put into their church structures the very best equipment, and also those towns and communities where the spirit of co-operation exists to raise the standard of work and equipment for the entire community.

We commend very highly Winston-Salem, Gastonia, and all other communities where the wealthier congregations are helping the weaker to build such houses as their circumstances demand.

During the last years we have been acquiring more property and the original property has enhanced in value. The following comparison may be interesting:

In 1912 we had 819 church buildings valued at $2,073,675; 192 parsonages valued at $403,065. Other church property valued at $78,884. Total church property for 1912 $2,555,024; insurance carried $696,850; premiums paid $2,723.

In 1922 we had 882 church buildings valued at $5,952,871; 234 parsonages valued at $1,071,224. Other church property valued at $344,225, and a total church property value of $7,348,380. An advance over 1912 of $4,793,356. Insurance carried $2,089,900; premiums paid $8,944. Thus the church was carrying in 1922 $1,393,050 of insurance more than in 1912.

The following are the figures for the current year:

Number of church buildings 890, value $7,365,580.

Number parsonages 244, value $1,318,433.

Other church property, $206,582.

Total church property for 1923, $8,890,595, being an increase in one year of $1,542,215.

Insurance carried: With church extension board, $207,482; with other companies, $2,275,412.

We note that we had a property damage of $3,037 and only $225 collected for losses.

We recommend that our church buildings and other church property be kept in necessary repair, as our losses annually are many hundreds of dollars through this neglect. We find that in 1922 only 27 per cent of our church property was insured, and that recently we have had serious losses where there was no insurance, therefore we recommend that more attention be paid to this important matter. And as we can get insurance from our own company 20 per cent cheaper than the old line companies, we would urge our people to patronize our own.

We would urge trustees of church property to keep insurance policies in a safe place.

T. C. JORDAN, Chairman,
J. W. VESTAL, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CHAPEL HILL CHURCH

The Joint Commission on the Church at Chapel Hill submits the following report:

The work has gone steadily forward. All property adjustments with the University, and others involved, have been made. The architect will soon have completed the plans and specifications for the contemplated buildings ,and the commission will then be ready for letting the contract as soon as funds are in hand.

In addition to the $30,000 provided by the boards of each of the two North Carolina Conferences, the General Boards have granted from the War Work Fund, ordered by the General Conference to be used in building churches at colleges and universities, the sum of $50,000. The effort now is to secure from the Alumni and patrons of the University, and from other friends among the Methodists, the sum of $110,000 to match that given by the boards. The special effort is to secure this from old students and patrons of the University. These owe a debt to the future generations of students that they should be prompt to pay.

Rev. Walter Patten, the pastor, has charge of the campaign, and it is requested that preachers and laymen of this Conference give every assistance in this work. He must depend on these for guidance and help in the local communities he enters. The effort is to finish this campaign so that the contract can be let at an early day. Securing this money is the first consideration now. The church, through its boards, has done well; now the friends interested in the religious life of the University must act.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE HOSPITAL BOARD

1. FACTS:

The church has two hospitals in successful operation. Barnes, affiliated with faculty and laboratory of Washington University, and representing a property value of $2,500,000 and endowment of one million; and Wesley Memorial, affiliated with Emory University and representing property value of $1,750,000.

We also have two hospitals well under way—Memphis and Hattlesburg with property value of $500,000—and four others projected, but not operating, worth something like $1,000,000, thus giving hospital property value of approximately $5,250,000.

The General Conference authorized the General Hospital Board to build two hospitals for tubercular treatment, one east and the other west of the Mississippi River, which the Board desires to do so soon as funds can be provided.

But the only feasible and available means by which to supply our present and urgent needs is the Golden Cross Society.

II. SUGGESTIONS:

First, That the Conference adopt the following resolution recommended by the Asheville District Conference:

That this Conference invite and request the General Hospital Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, seriously to consider the extraordinary advantages of the Asheville section as a location for a Tubercular Hospital.

We do not believe there is within the bounds of our church another section which offers such inducement from many essential standpoints such as climatic conditions, intelligent and hospitable attitude of the church and the general public, and superlative qualifications of the medical profession.

Second, That we popularize the Golden Cross and fix as our Conference goal a membership of 35,000.

Third, That until otherwise ordered, the 80 per cent proceeds of the Golden Cross at our option be directed to the Wesley Memorial Hospital.

J. T. MANGUM, Chairman.

L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The most important work of the church is to save the children. All children are precious in the sight of the heavenly Father, and none are dearer to Him than those helpless ones who have no natural protectors and teachers. No form of Christian activity more nearly expresses the spirit of Jesus than the work of caring for these dependent little ones. Therefore, the effort to gather and bring up helpless and homeless children for God and the Kingdom must have the devoted, loyal support of all God's people.

The growth of the Children's Home discloses the deep interest of our people in the task of saving the children. Since this institution was opened in 1909 the Conference has made, perhaps, its largest investment of money at the Children's Home. We invite all the members of the Conference and all the members of the church to visit the Home and see the extent and condition of your splendid property. It speaks loudly of the place of influence our work has in the thought of the Methodist people.

Our entire endowment and five of our eight buildings are the gifts of individuals, and one other building is the gift of the High Point church. This money was given us for specified purposes and was, of course, used as directed by the donors. As a result our dormitory space is not as large as it should be to match the rest of our equipment. But this is a temporary defect which we have reason to believe will be overcome in the near future. We are glad to believe that the outlook for future growth is bright. We must have more dormitories that we may take more children. It is a shame that with such equipment as we have that there are so few children.

In the main the health of our children has been and is good. There have been a number of ailments and accidents, some severe but none dangerous. And it is with gratitude to God that we remind you that in the fourteen years the Home has been open there has been only one death among our children.

Since our last report our school has occupied the long needed school house, to the great benefit of pupils and teachers. This year for the first time two of our girls completed the work of the eleventh grade, preparing them for college. And through the kindness of generous friends both of them are now in college. Our school library has received during this year gifts of 1300 books. Five hundred of these are the gift of Mr. Ralph Hanes, and consist of a splendid selection of children's books exactly suited to our needs. The other 800 volumes were formerly the Sunday school library of Centenary church of Winston-Salem.

The most notable gift of the year is a new model linotype machine for the printshop. This is a memorial to the late Mr. Joe H. Glenn of this city, and was presented by his wife, Mrs. Joe Glenn, and his friend, Mr. James K. Norfleet. This gift will have inestimable value in training boys to be self-dependent and self-supporting men. Among other special gifts was a canning outfit by Mr. P. H. Hanes, Jr.

There are now 152 children in the Home. Eleven were dismissed during the year, some to relatives, some found jobs, some to college. In their places we have taken in fifteen, increasing our total number by four. We have had 180 applications for home for needy children—and we have taken in 15. While we may well be thankful that so much has been accomplished, the time has not come to be satisfied with what we have done. It would seem that we must do almost ten times as much before we are even with our task.

Our people need a great awakening to the magnitude of this task. Some of our preachers do not yet realize how inseparably this work is bound up with the work of the ministry. Many of our official members have yet to learn that pure and undefiled religion is to visit the fatherless in their affliction; while none of us have fully weighed the responsibility that the necessities of these children have laid upon us, nor have we glimpsed the measureless opportunity for good which their young souls have placed in our hands.

We cannot escape this responsibility. We dare not close our hearts to the cry of these children. We must arrange to care for them, we must help them now in the day of their youth. If we cannot build houses to shelter them we may at least, like Pharoah's daughter, hire mothers to keep their own children. And we can create an agency to find safe homes for some of them. We must do something for them or face the displeasure of our Master.

We recommend that James A. Gray be elected a trustee of The Children's Home in place of S. L. Rogers, and that Rev. T. F. Marr, Rev. N. R. Richardson, G. F. Ivey, J. K. Norfleet, J. P. Lucas and H. G. Chatham be re-elected for a term of six years.

T. F. MARR, President.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We recommend:

1. That the goal of the Conference be the payment in full of all assessments and salaries for 1924, and to this end we urge the elders, pastors and lay leaders to see that Boards of Lay Activities be organized in every charge and in every church.

2. That a thorough every member canvass be put on in every church as early as possible after adjournment of this Conference.

3. That we affirm our devotion to the Centenary campaign and to the Educational program of our church and accept the suggestion that it shall be the major task of the Boards of Lay Activities to bring these great undertakings to a successful conclusion and ask the pastors to see that an Educational committee be appointed in every church.

4. That the county be the unit as far as possible in carrying out the work of lay activities and urge the elders and district leaders to see that associate district leaders be appointed for each county or similar unit.

5. That Charles H. Ireland be elected Conference Lay Leader.

6. That pastors and boards of stewards be urged to use membership cards prepared by our Conference Lay Leader, which card when properly filled out by every church member will not only constitute a complete record of members but a guide to the kind of work in the church that each member is willing to undertake.

7. That a Ministerial Loan Fund for the benefit of worthy men, seeking to prepare for the ministry shall be established in each district along the lines adopted by the Greensboro District Conference.

8. The training of our laymen being one of the crying needs of our church, we recommend that the pastors see that all the committees provided for in our Discipline shall be organized and put to work in every Board of Lay Activities, giving special pains to see that the Evangelistic and Social Service committees shall be largely used in their respective fields.

9. That we recommend the constant study, teaching and preaching of the scriptural plan of financing the church, especially emphasizing the great doctrines of tithing and stewardship.

10. That the second Sunday in June be set apart as Layman's Day and that arrangements shall be made to have laymen hold services in every church during the absence of the pastors attending the Ministerial Training School at Trinity College.

11. That every church be urged to use the weekly payment plan as the basis of assessments or pledges and to use the envelope system of making contributions. We also recommend that a detailed financial report be made to the congregation of every church, monthly on stations and at least quarterly on circuits. Also that early in each year full explanation be made to each congregation of every item composing the conference collections.

C. H. IRELAND, Chairman.
E. A. COLE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS

We do not believe that our superannuates are totally "forgotten men." We believe the church loves them, and holds them in grateful remembrance for their faithful service. We rejoice that the day is at hand when a more adequate provision will be made for them.

We respectfully ask our superannuates to write brief messages occasionally to the church press, so that the church may be able to keep in touch with them.

We also ask that the pastors and members of charges once served by these brethren write them occasionally, to let them know they are not forgotten.

We recommend W. L. Nicholson, J. P. Lanning, and J. W. Long for the Supernumerary relation.

We recommend that the Superannuate relation be granted to H. L. Atkins, H. M. Blair, J. J. Brooks, J. B. Carpenter, S. M. Davis, T. F. Glenn, S. S. Higgins, A. W. Jacobs, J. C. Mock, D. V. Price, J. P. Reynolds, N. R. Richardson, J. H. Robertson, R. D. Sherrill, L. E. Stacy, H. G. Stamey, M. T. Steele, J. T. Stover, J. L. Teague, M. H. Vestal, B. A. York, C. F. Sherrill, B. F. Fincher, N. M. Modlin, J .A. Bowles, C. M. Carpenter, D. V. Howell, W. M. Boring, F. L. Townsend.

T. J. ROGERS, Chairman.
A. C. SWAFFORD, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We have examined with care the District Conference Records of the Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Mount Airy, North Wilkesboro, Salisbury, Shelby, Statesville, Waynesville, and Winston-Salem Districts, and are glad to report that all of these records are correctly and neatly kept, except that the minutes of the Charlotte and Statesville District Conferences are not signed by the presidents of the conferences. The minutes of the North Wilkesboro District Conference omits the names of its committees. The minutes of the Marion District Conference omits official roll.

G. W. VICK, Chairman.
J. O. ERVIN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO LOCATE THE GRAVES OF OUR DECEASED PREACHERS

1. During the year many letters of inquiry have been written regarding location of the graves of our dead, and attention has been called to this matter several times through the North Carolina Christian Advocate. Of the 113 names on the "Roll of the Conference Dead" definite information has been received concerning fifteen, viz: H. T. Hudson and wife, Shelby; J. W. Roberts, Bessemer City; W. S. Creasy, Mt. Airy; John R. Brooks, Reidsville; C. M. Anderson and wife, Morganton; S. H. Helsebeck, near King; T. T. Salyer, Norwood; A. M. Long, Little Yadkin graveyard, near Pilot Mountain; W. L. Rexford, Wilmington; E. M. Hoyle, Cornelius; J. R. Scroggs, Shelby; J. D. Buie, San Bernardino, Cal.; R. M. Taylor, Salem graveyard, near Mt. Airy; R. S. Abernethy, Rutherford College; C. M. Gentry, Albemarle. All of these graves are marked with a tombstone.

2. Last Memorial Day the graves of C. M. Anderson and wife and E. W. Thompson were decorated with flowers and appropriate services were held by the Epworth League at Morganton. The grave of Brother Thompson has nothing to mark it.

3. We would suggest to the presiding elders of the following districts to carefully review the appointees and confirm the same, if in their judgment they believe them the best to attend to this important matter: Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Salisbury, Shelby, Statesville, Waynesville, and Winston-Salem Districts.

4. We would emphasize the importance of locating these graves, reporting their condition, whether marked by tombstone or in any other way, putting flowers on them and holding appropriate services on each Memorial Day. This is the least we can do to help perpetuate the memory of the heroic men and women who gave and helped to preserve our glorious heritage.

W. R. WARE, Chairman.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CLOSER RELATIONS WITH THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

The Joint Commission of the conferences of the Methodist Protestant and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, appointed to cultivate more intimate and cordial relations between the two churches, at the meeting in Greensboro, January 18, 1923, caused the following address to be sent to the Methodists of North Carolina:

We are duly mindful of the common origin of our separate Methodisms, which are one in spirit, life and doctrine; and always have been a unit in the effort to spread scriptural holiness over the land. Moreover, the increasing complexity of the social order, with its problems and the readjustment going on about us, admonish us that our Methodist people must gather their forces for a more vigorous church life and unite for a mutual advance. Under the blessing of heaven, our two Methodist churches must become a still greater force for righteousness and spiritual advance in North Carolina. Every atom of energy must be mobilized against a common foe; less of power and effectiveness, due to unnecessary friction, must cease. What can Methodists do to contribute to this end? We would suggest:

1. That our preachers and people come to know the efforts and aspirations of each by cultivating more cordial and intimate relations one with the other. Interchange of pulpits and union of effort in revival campaigns may prove helpful to this end.

2. That wherever the two churches are working side by side in a community, careful attention and serious thought be given by both churches to prevent antagonism and waste of energy in the work that Methodism as a whole should do. These local issues must be worked out by the good men and women who are on the ground and have been brought to see the sin of depleted strength that ought to be united against the enemies of righteousness.

3. That due attention be given to co-ordinating undertakings and to readjustments of churches in certain sections where both must continue a useless struggle until the best and wisest will be convinced of the folly of present methods. Why not move to have the Conference involved in this venture in North Carolina to establish a permanent Board of Mediation?

4. That we plan and pray that our two Methodisms may this good year of our Lord be one in spirit, aim and effort in the work to which we are called in North Carolina.

At a second meeting of the Joint Commission held in Greensboro, October 10th, it was determined to make the following recommendations to the Conference represented, viz: the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

1. That this Joint Commission be continued, and each conference shall determine the changes, if any, to be made in the personnel of its representatives.

2. That this Joint Commission be authorized to use its best and wisest efforts to promote all helpful adjustments of the work undertaken by the two Methodisms in communities now occupied, or to be occupied, by one or both of the churches. All possible aid sholud be given to help the local people in their undertakings.

3. That this Joint Commission hold two meetings each year: one in the spring and one in the fall.

For the information of the Conferences, a list of the personnel of the several Commissions is attached: Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. G. M. Johnson, Rev. J. D. Williams, Rev. R. C. Stubbins, Messrs. R. F. Williams, J. H. Allen and L. F. Ross. Methodist Episcopal Church, South: Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, Rev. J. F. Kirk and Mr. Fred N. Tate, representing the Western North Carolina Conference, and Rev. M. T. Plyler, Rev. C. B. Culbreth and Dr. W. P. Few, representing the North Carolina Conference.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman.
R. C. STUBBINS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF METHODIST SUMMER SCHOOL

The sixth session of the Methodist Summer School was held at Trinity College, June 6-15, 1923.

The attendance in all departments reached a total of 228, a slight increase over all previous years.

Twenty-eight men took 130 courses in the undergraduate work.

One hundred and twenty-five were enrolled in the classes of Dr. Andrew Sledd; subject, "Origin of the English Bible."

Thirty-three enrolled in Dr. Atkins' "Social Teachings of Jesus."

Thirty-two took Professor Ormond's course in Rural Work.

Rev. S. A. Stewart gave a course in Missions and two courses were given in Sunday School work: "Principles of Teachings" by Professor Thompson enrolled 45, credits 22; "Organization and Administration" by Professor Spence enrolled 45, credits given 24.

Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, Dr. Andrew Sledd and Dr. H. P. Atkins were heard in the Inspirational Lectures. These were largely attended.

The management has arranged for closer co-operation with the General Boards of the Church and have been assured that at least five instructors will be supplied next year for the work to be offered. The scope of the school is to be enlarged.

It is further suggested that the session continue for twelve full working days so that we may be able to secure credits for work done in any courses offered. This is necessary for fullest co-operation of the boards.

This will require that the school embrace two Sundays, and it is requested that the Board of Lay Activities arrange to care for the services one of the Sundays that the preachers may be away from their charges.

Presiding elders are asked to so arrange their appointments and to so encourage their preachers to attend that the best possible good may result from the effort to secure a better trained ministry.

Attention is called to the expiration of the term of service of the following members of this board: Z. E. Barnhardt and E. K. McLarty.

It is understood that the adoption of this report makes the suggestions offered the order of this Conference.

M. T. PLYLER, President.
W. H. WILLIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

We have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company, covering the period from October 1, 1922, to October 1, 1923, and after a thorough examination found the books of the Secretary and Treasurer in good condition.

There is insurance in force at the present time $1,699,985, which represents a net increase of $306,500 over the previous year.

The losses for the past year have been only $8.99.

The assets of the company at the present time are $16,393.81.

We are glad to report the church officials are awakening to the necessity of protecting church property against loss by fire.

Your Board would recommend and urge the members of the Conference and each board of trustees holding property for the church within the bounds of the Conference to see that such property is adequately protected in the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

We recommend the election of W. M. Lineberger as director vice Dorman Thompson, deceased.

We recommend the election of W. A. Newell as director to succeed himself for the term which will expire in 1927.

E. A. COLE, President.
W. E. WEBB, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance realizes the largeness of our task to bring before this Conference a paper, which if adopted and upheld by our people, would be in keeping with our Lord's command in reference to our recognition of His Holy Sabbath Day.

We note with sadness the growing neglect of our people to respect and observe this day of rest and worship. We believe that with the proper use of the automobile greater service could be rendered for the furtherance of God's Kingdom, but we note with pain that Satan has control of a large number of our cars. When we see our church people, with the peoples of the world, spend the Holy Sabbath in mountain climbing, picnicing, and joy riding to the neglect of the food that feeds the soul, it makes us believe the time has come for God's messengers with fear and trembling to remind our people that God said: "Remember the Sababth day to keep it holy."

As has been brought out here during this Conference, we believe there is too much writing and not enough thought. A great number of people are detained from church service on Sunday, some printing and some reading our daily and Sunday papers. Some of our daily papers through their agents have tried to influence or buy some of our Godly men by the offer of the reduction of the price of the Sunday edition. A great number of things are coming into our homes through the press that ought never to be printed, so let us be careful what we read, and be assured that the young minds that are reaching out for something that will help to make them what God would have them be are not dwarfed by the poison of the time.

With a part of our nation, and it is coming closer every day, Sunday has become a day of amusement. Any amusement that takes our thoughts and services away from God and God's work, is eating at the very foundation of religion, and will sooner or later cause this nation that we love so much to crumble and fall. May we look wisely into the future, face the facts as they are, and with all the earnestness of our souls nip in the bud all amusements that would destroy our trust in God.

We note with regret that a large number of young boys and girls are being reared in communities where on the Sabbath Day they have access to golf links, open gas filling stations, soft and hard drink stands, lunch counters, where often there is no lunch, and drug stores where practically everything is sold. We believe that these things will cause the coming generation to have no regard for our Holy Sabbath Day, and feel that if the church does not take a positive stand against such things that the blood of these young people will be upon our heads.

We have seen in several places that the laymen of the church have banded themselves together to assist the pastor in more perfect attendance in all church services. The sermon can hardly reach the people who are absent. Therefore we are calling to the assistance of the pastor the whole church, that we may not grieve the Spirit of God.

G. W. FINK, Chairman,
GEO. W. CLAY, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The fifteenth annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood was held in Centenary Church, Winston-Salem, October 19, 1923, at 3 o'clock p. m. W. L. Sherrill, the President, was n the chair. Devotional services were conducted by M. T. Steele. Minutes of last annual session were read and approved, after which the treasurer made his report. This report showed that $1750 had been paid to each of the following beneficiaries: Mrs. W. S. Hales, Mrs. T. J. Ogburn and Mrs. S. E. Richardson, making a total of $5250. Balance on hand was shown to be $2533.86. The President commented on the report in fitting words. L. B. Abernethy offered an amendment to the constitution providing that a benefit to be collected and paid on the death of a preacher's wife. On motion the amendment was ordered to be drawn in proper form so it can be considered at the next annual meeting. F. A. Baker spoke on the subject of group insurance. It was ordered that the chairman appoint a committee of three to consider this subject. The committee appointed consists of D. Atkins, J. E. Thompson and C. M. Pickens. Then followed a general discussion on the merits and blessings of the Brotherhood. F. N. Tate was asked to go before the Board of Lay Activities and request that Board to set forth the work of the Brotherhood. This he did and reported that the request had met with a most favorable response. The following officers were elected for the coming year: W. L. Sherrill, President; W. R. Ware, Vice President; C. M. Pickens, Secretary-Treasurer. G. D. Herman and W. L. Dawson were appointed by the President as members of the Executive Committee for the coming year. Benefit to be paid next year will be $1750. MEMOIRS

REV. PAUL D. ANTHONY

Paul Decatur Anthony was born October 24, 1897. He joined the Methodist church when a boy. Hardly had he reached majority when he heard and answered the call to the ministry. He believed that a call to the ministry was also a call to preparation for that great work. Accordingly, by the aid of a devoted father, he entered Rutherford College as a "ministerial student" and graduated from the high school department May 11, 1920, and on May 10, 1922, he finished the college course of that institution.

He seemed especially gifted in making friends wherever he went; consequently he soon had a host of loyal and devoted friends among his schoolmates and other associates.

While yet in school he married Miss Anna Bell, who became his worthy companion for life, to share his burdens and rejoice in his triumphs.

At the 1922 session of the Shelby District Conference he was recommended for admission into this Conference, was received on trial at the 1922 session and appointed to the Mars Hill charge. He went to his work with a bouyant spirit and a glad heart and assumed the responsibilities of pastor.

With great faith, hope and courage, he at once set to work to build up that part of the kingdom which had been committed to his care. He found his charge had no parsonage. With a stout heart and willing hands he launched a movement to build. The holiday season found him in the midst of this work, which he laid down, as he thought temporarily, to visit his father and mother in his native county. But alas, he was stricken with typhoid fever in a fatal illness. After lingering for several weeks, in spite of all that loving hands could do and medical skill devise, his stalwart frame yielded to the ravages of the disease, his stout heart grew still, and his spirit returned to God who gave it.

When he was called from labor to reward, January 24, 1923, he was twenty-five years old.

He was laid to rest on Sunday, January 28, 1923, at Salem church in Cleveland county, near the place of his birth.

REV. WILLIAM S. HALES

William Streety Hales was born at Lancaster, S. C., January 15, 1856, son of Alonzo and Catherine Tolar Hales. After an illness of a few days he died February 12, 1923, at Badin, N. C.

On December 9, 1884, at Trinity, N. C., he was married to Miss Julia B. Shell, a daughter of the late Rev. Lemon Shell, of the North Carolina Conference. Rev. Marcus L. Wood, D. D., performed the marriage ceremony.

There survive him the widow and three children.

Brother Hales was converted when seventeen years of age and joined Tyron Street Methodist Church in Charlotte, the family having moved to Charlotte some time before. It was about this time that he felt the call to preach, and in order to prepare himself for this important task, he entered Trinity College, and having finished his course there, he entered the Theological department at Vanderbilt University, and at Wilson in 1879 he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference.

He served the following charges in the North Carolina Conference: Wentworth Circuit, 1880; Franklinville, 1881; Montgomery Circuit, 1882-3; Rockingham Circuit, 1884-5; Cumberland Circuit, 1886-7; Maxton Circuit, 1888-9; Mt. Pleasant Circuit, 1890. The Conference was divided in 1890, and Mt. Pleasant was placed in the Western North Carolina Conference. Brother Hales served thirty-three years in the Western Conference, as follows: Mt. Pleasant, 1891; King's Mountain, 1892; Thomasville, 1893; Greensboro Circuit, 1894-7; Ruffin, 1898-0; Uwharrie Circuit, 1901-3; Kernersville, 1904; Ansonville Circuit, 1905-6; Belmont Park, Charlotte, 1907-8; Pineville, 1909-10; Stanley, 1911-12; Gibsonville, 1913-15; First Street, Albemarle, 1916; China Grove, 1917-20; Kerr Street, Concord, 1921-22; Badin, 1923.

Brother Hales served the church continuously for forty-four years. He began his career in that conscientious spirit that was to characterize his ministry through all the years. He felt that he ought to prepare himself as thoroughly as possible before entering upon the duties of the pastorate. So he spent several years in college getting ready.

It may seem strange that a man, mentally trained and equipped as he was, should not have attained greater prominence in the church. Brother Hales was a modest man, and this modesty made him content in any charge to which he might be sent. His thought was for the church and his anxiety was for the advancement of the cause of Jesus Christ. That was certainly his attitude in his later years. He asked only one question as to his appointment, "Do you think that is the place where I can do the most good?" He told the writer on a certain occasion, "I have never sought to influence my appointments."

Modest and unassuming as he was, yet he had the courage of his convictions. He was sometimes called upon to face issues of real seriousness to the church and to the community. In such crises he was not afraid to take a stand for the right, even though to assume such a position might seriously jeopardize his own security. On such occasions he would declare himself bravely, and calmly await the outcome. I knew him to meet such an issue at a cost of more than forty per cent of his salary. Yet when the church asked him to return for another year, he was willing to go, and insisted that he be returned, if the church thought he was the best man for the task. He was returned, and the church saw to it that in the end he did not suffer the loss that before seemed inevitable.

Such men are not heard of outside the Conference in which they labor, and oftentimes even brethren in the same Conference do not know their worth. But there is this consolation, God knows. He watches over the sparrow, so that not one falls to the ground without the Father's knowledge, and we may be sure that not one of His children shall fight the battles of His kingdom without the Father's due appreciation and ultimate reward.

JOHN F. KIRK.

REVEREND THOMAS JEFFERSON OGBURN

When Rev. Thomas Jefferson Ogburn fell on sleep in Greensboro, N. C., on February 24, 1923, there went out from among us one of the princeliest champions of the truth that ever matched steel with the enemy in the militant ranks of North Carolina Methodism. More than that, there went out a kindly soul and a great Christian—a redeemed man who had walked circumspectly before God for many years and served well his generation. Affectionately we pronounce his name today as we bow to that eventuality which at once has deprived us of his bodily presence and enriched heaven with the beaten gold of his character.

Son of Edmund W. and Jane Lanier Ogburn of Guilford county, N. C., he was born December 6, 1849, growing up in the delightful atmosphere of a Christian home. His early educational advantages were meager, but he improved every opportunity for study, often at night reading by a chip fire while others rested or spent their time in idleness. While a young boy, he was for awhile a student at Guilford College. The limited educational equipment he had was used as the basis of a life long habit of study and self-improvement. All his lifetime he read widely and thought deeply, becoming one of the best equipped and informed men among us.

Converted early in life under the preaching of an old family servant, "Uncle Lige" Ogburn, a former slave of the family who had been given his freedom, he began preaching by the time he was sixteen years of age and started his itinerant life as junior preacher under the late Rev. R. H. Wills of the Methodist Protestant church. In this beloved calling he projected himself across a ministry of fifty-seven years—busy, tense, happy years of suffering and of service. Far from strong physically at any time during his life, and drawing upon every ounce of his energy in the performance of every single task he undertook, yet he was marvellously sustained in his physical endurance, retaining almost to the end a vigor of body and clarity of mind unusual in a man of his years.

Like many of his predecessors, he too, was a prophet of the long road and a brother to many a weary traveler along the way. No man can say that he ever shirked a duty because it was hard or shunned a responsibility because it was unpleasant. He never ran away from a fight, nor failed to entertain convictions and defend them at any cost. He had a passion for work. He could not be idle. In him the elements were generously bestowed and wonderfully mixed. Terrible in invective against the wrong, he could be as tender as a child in his attitude to those who wanted to do right. Mr. S. R. Harris, of Henderson, N. C., a life-long friend, has said of him: "He was as bold as a lion and as tender as a woman. He was ready always to 'rejoice with them that do rejoice and to weep with them that weep.' A brilliant preacher; a genial friend; a high class Christian gentleman who lived a quarter of century ahead of his age; a student always, and one who was absolutely true to his convictions."

Another close friend of his, Rev. H. M. Blair, gave this testimony: "He combined in a most unusual way the spirit of the Old Testament prophet and the New Testament evangel. The passion of this man was to 'be about his Father's business.' A great preacher, unique in style, incisive and powerful in the presentation of the essential truths of the gospel, he is justly classed among the faithful prophets of the New Testament dispensation. He could call down fire from heaven to consume the works that are evil, at the same time holding up the cross of Christ as the hope of the evil doer."

The charges served by Brother Ogburn were never allowed to forget the great doctrines of Christianity as the sufficient basis upon which to build a satisfactory Christian experience. He was a consistent defender of the faith once delivered to the saints. He hated all sham and exposed fallacy wherever he found it. He could not practice neutrality himself nor permit it to be done by another if within his power to prevent. He had the courage of his convictions and spoke boldly what he believed regardless of consequences. Had he been different in this particular he might have had an easier time, but his self-respect was at stake and he could brook no compromise. He must cry aloud and spare not. As a case in point, he engaged in many a tilt with entrenched alcoholism in behalf of temperance, back in the days when there were few to sympathize or stand with him. Early in life he became convinced of the harmful effects of the tobacco habit and was an outspoken foe to its use in any form, particularly in the form of the cigarette. In one of his earlier charges, in a community where nearly everybody used tobacco even in the church while attending worship, he preached a rousing sermon all over the circuit against the weed, which is said to have created a revolution in the habits of his members. A few old men and women were allowed to use cuspidors sparingly in the churches during service, but their expectorations were rather too closely supervised from the pulpit for comfort, and strict injunction was laid upon them to keep the spittoons clean or he would "throw them out of the window." The last year of his life he published a small booklet on the subject, "Tobacco Must Go," which embodied his mature thought upon the harmful effects of the weed.

Brother Ogburn was a true cosmopolite. He not only kept abreast of tendencies and movements within the church, but was a close student of world conditions. He was a citizen of a much larger field than he ever occupied bodily. He companioned with the people who have in every age carried the world upon their hearts, and there never was a day when he forgot the Great Commission. His duties brought him in contact with leaders in various fields. He was a member of the Ecumenical Conference of Methodism held in Washington, D. C., in 1891, and on October 9th delivered a stirring message before that body on "Christian Co-operation." He attended the one hundredth anniversary of the Haystack Meeting held in Massachusetts and made an address. As a connectional officer in his church he had opportunity to travel and serve the cause of the church in a very broad way.

As a preacher he was concerned to have a real message. He sought accuracy of statement, and was often brilliantly epigrammatic. Coupled with a delightful originality of expression, there often bubbled from his heart some spontaneous witticism which would illuminate a truth or rebuke an error, sending him on his way to some profound truth with the unanimous attention of his hearers. So far as I know he never preached without careful preparation. It was almost an obsession with him that truth deserved to be conveyed to the mind of the hearer in the choicest possible language. He never assumed a thing to be a fact unless it was stated accurately. He detested slovenliness in thinking or in speaking, and nothing ever gave his sensitive nature a greater jolt, nor caused him more excruciating pain, than to hear his Lord's gospel carelessly handled or crudely expressed.

Brother Ogburn was twice married. First to Miss Alice Gash, of Buncombe county, who died in his early manhood. Of this marriage two children survive. On December 12, 1883, he was again married, to Miss Nannie Davidson of Alamance county. Mrs. Ogburn and five children of this marriage survive. He was devoted to his home and loved ones. Since his going, Mrs. Ogburn has said: "In all our forty years of married life I never once doubted his love and devotion; a more perfect Christian man never lived."

Brother Ogburn spent most of his life and ministry in the Methodist Protestant Church, in which he served with distinction in every position he was called upon to fill. He was early recognized as a leader of men and was entrusted from time to time with high position, filling that of President of his Annual Conference; for twelve years Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions, to which position he was elected by his General Conference held in Kansas City in May 1896; representing his church in various bodies and upon conspicuous occasions, he served the cause of Christ with splendid ability and devotion. In the fall of 1913, at the age of sixty-three, he transferred his membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and joined the Western North Carolina Conference in Charlotte in November of that year. In the fall of 1921 he asked for and was granted the Superannuate relation, on account of failing health and advancing age, since which time he has resided in Greensboro, where he has taken a keen interest in all the activities of the church, and preached often to the edification of all who heard him.

The record of his service is as follows: Joined M. P. Conference at its session held at Union Chapel, Granville county, in November, 1867, and was sent to Roanoke circuit as junior preacher; Roanoke Circuit, 1868-1869; Mecklenburg Circuit, 1870-1872; Buncombe Circuit, 1873-1876; in 1876 he was left without an apointment at his own request, on account of ill health, but by Conference action was requested to take charge of Henderson and Transylvania counties for the year; 1877 the minutes of the Conference are missing; Granville Circuit, 1878-1881; Haw River 1882-1883; Winston Station 1884-1885; President of Conference 1886-1888; Henderson 1889-1893; in the spring of 1893 he left Henderson and did evangelistic work for the rest of that year; Flat Rock 1894-1896; Secretary-Treasurer Board of Foreign Missions 1896-1908; Grace, Greensboro, 1908-1912; Asheboro 1913. Joined W. N. C. Conference 1913. Connelly Springs 1914; Cornelius 1915-1916; Murphy 1917-1918; Kernersville 1919-1920; Yadkinville 1921.

Brother Ogburn was ready to go when the summons came. He had no fear of death. For many years his attitude had been that of one who watched for his Lord. And although the call came swiftly, he was not taken unawares. More than six years ago he thought he might be treading near the border, and calmly wrote this testimony: "I am surprised that I can look death in the face, not with fear, but with pleasing expectation, as of a child about to journey along a pleasant path to a strange new country of indescribable happiness and beauty."

May God rest his soul, and raise up many among us who may be worthy to succeed him in the ranks of apostolic leadership.

J. H. BARNHARDT.

REV. SAMUEL E. RICHARDSON

Samuel Eli Richardson, son of S. J. and Jane Richardson was born in Union county, North Carolina, May 11, 1874.

He was educated in the Marshville high school, the Agricultural and Mechanical College and Trinity College. In these schools he acquired the habit of study which he kept up to the end of his life.

He was converted and joined the Methodist church at the age of fourteen.

On his first circuit he was happily married to Miss Selma Phillips, of Jonesville, North Carolina. To them were born five children, all of whom survive him.

He was admitted on trial into this Conference at Gastonia in 1901, and served with great acceptability until the Lord said it is enough. The charges served by him are as follows:

Jonesville 1902-1904; Murphy 1905; Cliffside 1906-1909; Carraway Memorial 1910-1911; Prospect 1912-1913; East Spencer and North Main 1914-1917; New London 1918-1920; China Grove 1921-1922.

On each of these charges he left an impress that abides and will continue to abide.

In his last illness he was conscious that the end was near and so began to set his house in order. He gave complete instructions concerning his funeral and spoke of the great change in the calm assurance which the Christian faith alone can give.

No finer spirt has lived among us—an Israelite indeed in whom there was no guile. His was a sunny spirit and his smile carried joy into many a troubled home.

He was pure in thought and upright in life—things low or vile were foreign to his nature. "Nothing against him" was the verdict at each annual conference and doubtless it is the same up yonder.

He was faithful in his work both as pastor and preacher. Salvation through Jesus Christ was the burden of his ministry and he believed that all men might come to God through Him and live. His sermons were full of hope and encouragement. He was a good preacher in the best sense of the word.

As a pastor he was faithful to those committed to his care. He visited from house to house that he might know the spiritual condition of his people and comfort them in their sorrows.

He was not spoiled by any unholy ambition. He was with us as one who served and was content with it. He was much more concerned about what he owed the church than what the church owed him.

He was great as a friend. His was a big heart, full of love for mankind in general and his brethren in the ministry in particular. I never heard an unkind criticism fall from his lips.

Any work assigned him was accepted without murmur or complaint and he could always be counted on to do his best.

In a hospital at High Point on June 12, 1923, the summons came and he departed to receive the reward of the faithful. In life he was brave, in death unafraid. T. F. MARR.

DORMAN THOMPSON

Dorman Thompson was well and favorably known to a large number of the people of our commonwealth. He had been desperately ill for about a month. He had seemed to improve, and had planned a trip to Richmond to place himself under expert treatment, but his heart suddenly failed, and he passed out peacefully Tuesday morning, October 2, at his home in Statesville.

He came of a family distinguished for service to the church and state. His father, Prof. D. Matt Thompson, had a distinguished career in public education. He taught at Denver, in Lincoln county, and at Lincolnton for a number of years. He came to Statesville about thirty years ago, where he established one of the first city graded schools in the state and was superintendent for more than a quarter of a century. He has also been one of the leading laymen of the Western North Carolina conference for a like period of years. The late Walter Thompson, a brother, was also an educator and public servant. He began his career in the public schools of Concord, was later promoted to the superintendency, and afterward became one of the founders and the superintendent of the Jackson Training School, from which the church called him to head its recently established Children's Home at Winston-Salem, where he died greatly honored and beloved. Holland Thompson, another brother, was at one time superintendent of the Concord city schools, and is now professor in the municipally owned College of New York City.

Dorman Thompson was the youngest child of this interesting family. He graduated at a rather early age from the Statesville high school, to enter the State University at Chapel Hill. He took his degree at the end of his fourth year, but returned for the completion of his law course, which he completed a year later, took his examination before the supreme court, was licensed and began the practice of law at Statesville.

Shortly after entering upon the practice of his profession he was married to Miss Luda Morrison, whose home was in Statesville, but who at the time of their marriage had been on the music faculty of Salem College for two years. His wife died more than two years ago. They leave three children.

He soon took rank as one of the leading lawyers of his home town, and it was but a few years until the people sought him out and began to thrust honors and responsibilities upon him. He held, among others, the following positions: City attorney, County attorney, and for three terms was in the state senate, at the end of which time he refused longer to be a candidate. At the time of his death he was president of the local Rotary Club, and a member of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina.

In the church he has held almost every position to which he was eligible. He was elected a steward in Broad Street Methodist church very early in his career. About twelve years ago he was elected chairman of the board of stewards. It was in January, 1914, that he was elected teacher of the Men's Bible class of Broad Street church. He gathered about him each Sunday for nearly ten years an increasingly large number of men of the congregation, in recent years from 100 to 125 of the mature men of Statesville, who gave affectionate attention to the weekly talks, that probably did more to stamp his personality for good upon the town of Statesville than any other public service he ever rendered.

He nearly always served his district, and the annual conference, as delegate to these bodies. He was first elected to the General Conference that met in Oklahoma City, 1914. He has been elected to each General Conference since, and has served on the General Board of Church Extension since 1918. At the time of his death he was president of the board of trustees of Davenport College, a member of the board of directors of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company, chairman of the Conference Entertainment Committee, chairman of the Conference Budget Commission, and had been lay leader for the Statesville district and member of the Board of Lay Activities of the Conference.

A prominent member of the conference, just two weeks before his death said that Dorman Thompson gave fully half his time to public service, for which he received no financial compensation and for which he expected no personal reward or advantage. Such a spirit was characteristic of the man. He literally lived to serve mankind. He did not accumulate an estate of any proportions. He died a poor man, in so far as earthly standards go. But he was rich. He was rich in the regard of friends, and rich in the love of those whom he had helped. He has, too, bequeathed a rich heritage to those of us who are left behind. The town in which he lived is much the richer for his life. He has aided many a man in forming more lofty ideals; he aided many in keeping an outlook of faith on life. He has enabled many of us to believe more fully in the reality of religion, because he lived it. He has taught many a man the worth of friendship and the value of truth and honesty and high and noble living. He has exemplified to many the beauty of unselfish service. These things will abide. It were better to live as he has lived than to have become the possessor of millions of dollars without the high qualities he possessed. I wonder how we can doubt it?

It was a rare privilege to witness the tribute paid to his worth in the great throng that crowded every available inch of space at his funeral. When the service was read, it seemed that literally every eye was suffused with tears; when we laid him away at the cemetery and the last words of the benediction were said, the crowd seemed to wait for a last personal word of farewell to him whom they had loved so well in life. Peace to his ashes.

It was announced that H. M. Blair, S. M. Davis, J. C. Mock, J. M. Price, J. P. Reynolds, and H. G. Stamey have died this year and their names were referred to Committee on Memoirs.

The following was adopted:

1. That we unqualifiedly condemn the so called boxing contests, which are permitted in certain cities of North Carolina, as exhibitions of brutality that should not be tolerated. We condemn such public exhibitions of violence, in which the contestants are often battered into insensibility, and sometimes killed, as was the case at Wilmington, as evils which have been outlawed in practically every state in the Union and declared by many courts to be public nuisances. They tend to demoralize the boys and young men, to arouse their pugnacious passions, to brutalize their emotions, to promote idleness, vagrancy and gambling, and to increase the crimes of violence.

2. We deplore the action of our Legislature in passing special acts to legalize a crime which a former Legislature, long ago, denounced as a felony and which has remained on the Statute books as a penitentiary offense until quite recently, and we appeal to the good people of the state, who respect law and oppose crime, to take a decided stand with us against this new evil which has so recently sprung up in our commonwealth.

3. We hereby instruct our Board of Temperance and Social Service to appoint a committee whose duty it shall be to appear before the next Legislature and ask that honorable body to repeal the special acts heretofore passed, which legalized this crime.

CHAS. C. WEAVER,
H. G. HARDIN,
LOY D. THOMPSON,
JOS. H. ARMBRUST,
J. B. CRAVEN.

Under Minute Question 17, Slade Wyatt Phillips, a local preacher of Asheville District, was elected deacon.

Under Minute Question 19, Coy Bascom Newton and William Josiah Baker, local preachers, were elected elders,

The call of Minute Question 21 was resumed, and H. C. Sprinkle, J. B. Craven, W. F. Womble, Z. Paris, J. H. West, J. W. Williams, T. F. Marr, C. S. Kirkpatrick, D. M. Litaker, R. S. Howie and W. A. Newell made their reports and their characters were passed.

The names of C. W. Bowling, A. G. Canada and J. H. Capps were called and J. H. West, their Presiding Elder, announced that they desired to withdraw from the church. W. A. Newell objected to such disposition of these cases on the ground that rumors were abroad which seriously reflected on their characters, whereupon the Bishop appointed the following Committees of Investigation in the three cases:

1. J. W. Moore, H. H. Jordan and O. J. Jones, in the case of C. W. Bowling.

2. J. E. Thompson, W. H. Willis and W. E. Poovey in the case of A. G. Canada.

3. R. G. Tuttle, A. L. Aycock and J. F. Armstrong, in the case of J. H. Capps.

On account of pressing duties elsewhere, P. T. Durham was excused from attendance on the Conference.

The reports of the Trustees of Trinity College and of Greensboro College were submitted by T. F. Marr and C. H. Ireland, respectively, and referred without reading to the Board of Education.

The Secretary read a telegram from Dr. W. A. Lambeth, of Washington, stating that a great meeting was held in our Representative Church in Washington last night preparatory to the unveiling of the equestrian statue of Bishop Francis Asbury, and that he regretted that the Western North Carolina brethren could not attend.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to send an appropriate reply and the following message was forwarded to Dr. Lambeth:

"Your message was received today and the Western North Carolina Conference rejoices with Universal Methodism that at last this merited honor is paid to the memory of the man on horseback, Francis Asbury, the apostolic prophet of the long road."

And at 12:30 the conference adjourned with the benediction by G. T. Adams.

APPENDIX

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The cause of education has never had so much thought and attention given it as it has today in our land. North Carolina is doing a marvelous work along this line. As the state takes a more active hand in this work, it becomes more and more necessary for the church to advance her standards and increase her facilities for educational work. To this end the educational movement was launched in our church. It now becomes our imperative duty to see to it that this cause is carried forward to a successful conclusion.

The report of Rev. W. O. Goode, Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Education, shows that $750,977.00 has been subscribed to the Christian Education movement. Of this amount $187,796.13 has been collected. In addition to this, $10,416.15, counted as new money, has been paid in this year. The total amount of due and unpaid pledges to date is $197,049.31. On November 1st of this year an additional amount of approximately $150,000.00 will be due. Collections on pledges made in the Christian Education Movement are given complete right of way for the first time between October 15th and January 15th, 1925. We enter the field at this time to secure the full amount of $347,049.31 now due on these subscriptions. The Board recommends that the week beginning November 23rd and ending November 30th be designated as "pay-up" week for the Conference, and that all proper agencies and organizations of the church be utilized for the purpose of collecting these pledges. Every school belonging to the Conference is inadequately supported, and some of them will suffer greatly unless these pledges are collected.

The report from our General Board brings the cheering news that there is improvement in the way in which our undergraduates are bringing up their studies. However, 335 out of 1591 failed to pass their prescribed studies last year, and this proportion is entirely too large. We urge our undergraduates to give due diligence to their studies and to pass their work as required by the Conference. We recommend that the two thirds rule be used very sparingly and that men who cannot meet the minimum educational requirements be discouraged from making application for admission into Conference and urged to attend school and secure ample preparation.

The Board rejoices in the splendid work that is being done in the Summer School for Pastors at Trinity College. In many respects the school conducted last summer marked an advance over all former schools. It is hoped that the attendance and interest will continue to increase until practically every preacher in the two Conferences in this state may be found enrolled at this seat of learning during the sessions.

The Board has before it reports from Trinity, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges and Jefferson School. We have also heard the representatives of these schools who spoke of their success, their problems and their needs. We have given the most careful consideration to all the facts laid before us and we have done our best to meet and satisfy every demand laid upon us.

We are gratified to learn that Trinity College continues to grow in endowment, equipment, enrollment of students, and in service. Trinity opened this year with 1117 students as against 1018 at the same time last year. One of the most advanced and commendable steps taken at Trinity this year is the organization of a Freshman Faculty and the employment of a "Personnel Officer" who works under the supervision of the Dean of the College and the Freshman Faculty. The object of this move is to give more careful supervision to the work of the new men and to bring about more efficient work in the class room. We believe that this is a wise move and give it our hearty commendation.

Greensboro College has had a very prosperous year, and last year sent out 58 young women graduates, the largest class in her history. She reports substantial growth and progress along all lines. Greensboro is our only A Grade College for women and we are anxious that she shall maintain her high rating. Just at this time she is sorely in need of additional endowment and we commend the effort of the Trustees and Alumnae to raise a fund that will make her standing secure.

Davenport College has added the fourth year to her college curriculum, now giving full A. B. and B. M. courses. All indebtedness has been cleared from the College, and the faculty materially strengthened. The work done by this Institution is of high order and we rejoice in its prosperity.

Weaver College seems to be doing a most excellent work in the mountain section of our Conference. The report shows that many improvements have been made upon the buildings and that the equipment of the College is continually being added to.

Rutherford College reports an enrollment of 196 students, sevty-two of whom are ministerial students. The large amount of free tuition made necessary by this number of ministerial students makes it difficult for this institution to meet its expenses. It greatly needs an enlarged endowment.

Jefferson School is continuing to do good work and ought to be perpetuated and enlarged. But the Trustees are unwilling to add to the equipment unless the investment can be made secure and some means of endowment can be found.

We recommend that J. A. Bell, who at the last session was employed by the Conference to represent the Conference, this Board and Bishop Collins Denny in the matter of the adjustment of claims against Weddington Institute be retained in the same capacity.

We recommend that the request of Greensboro College for permission to raise an endowment fund of $500,000.00 and of Davenport College to raise a fund of $175,000.00 for additional endowment and equipment be granted, with the understanding that neither canvass interfere in any way with the collection of the pledges to the Christian Education Movement.

We recommend the election of C. M. Pickens to succeed himself on the Board of Managers of Trinity Summer School.

We recommend that W. R. Odell, J. F. Kirk and E. W. Fox be continued as a committee on co-operation between denominational and state agencies in an effort to bring about proper moral and religious training in connection with all educational institutions.

We recommend that the General Board of Education be requested to consider the advisability of establishing a school for training orphanage workers.

We recommend the following appointments: Dr. S. B. Turrentine, President of Greensboro College; W. M. Curtis, Business Manager; P. T. Durham, Professor in Candler School of Theology; J. A. Baldwin, President of Southern Industrial Institute; R. M. Hauss, Professor in Rutherford College; J. M. Downum, Teacher Appalachian Training School; C. E. Rozzelle, Principal Mt. Holly High School; E. M. Jones and H. W. Howard, Students in Trinity College; A. P. Brantley, Student at Oxford University; W. O. Goode, Student at Harvard University; Raymond A. Smith, Student Chicago University.

We recommend the election and confirmation of the following trustees: For Greensboro College, M. D. Stockton; for Davenport College, H. K. Boyer, J. F. Kirk, L. D. Thompson vice H. M. Blair, deceased, W. M. Lineberger vice Dorman Thompson, deceased; for Weaver College, C. E. Chambers, Chas. G. Lee, H. C. Sprinkle; for Rutherford College, J. H. West, H. H. Jordan, L. A. Falls, C. C. BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

The Board of Missions during the past year and during this Annual Conference has been steadily facing the usual routine and regular work and in addition we have tried, by two new methods, to come to a clearer conception and better execution of the task. First, a pre-Conference meeting was called and held at the Odell Club House, Greensboro, to which the presiding elders were invited and the entire missionary work of the Conference was examined, and plans laid for the finish of the year's work. This proved so valuable that in all probability it will become a fixed policy of the Board.

Also a special meeting was held last Thursday with the pastors of the charges receiving missionary appropriations. In this meeting many matters were brought out and it has become the intention of the Board to continue this each year.

The one overtopping consideration before the Board has been the matter of securing sufficient funds for the maintenance of our work at home and abroad. The days ahead of us are filled with extremely grave possibilities for our cause. A great advance has been made through the Centenary and it must be maintained. Looking to this the General Board has arranged the Advanced World Program to be carried out in our churches during the interim of January 15th and March 15th, 1925. Our Conference Board has voted to be allowed the privilege of participation in this work and the purpose of this early report is that some of the details of this plan may be explained by a representative from the General Board.

(Signed) E. K. McLARTY, Chairman,
L. B. HAYES, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

Your board calls special attention to the opportunity offered our church to greatly aid the needy missionary cause by joining with the whole church in a "Week of Prayer" planned by the General board and followed by a free will offering to be taken at the close of the week. During this time it is proposed that each congregation shall study the subject of missions and earnestly pray that the work may not lag but go forward. Our board recommends that our date for this special week to be the week following the first Sunday in December 7 to 14.

Another matter that must be considered is the manifest lack of sympathetic interest in the church in this vital work. We fear that our preachers have not preached on missions so much since the great Centenary Movement, and beyond question there has been a falling off of concern for our work. We need a revival of missionary preaching and teaching in our churches. This work cannot be sustained without the information and inspiration being given our people.

Due to several reasons our board is not recommending any missionary evangelists this year. Therefore we hope that pastors will help each other and gather in the Christless souls for the spiritual harvest. Every pastor is by virtue of his calling an evangelist and must do the work of an evangelist.

This board respectfully suggests to the Presiding Elders that they be watchful for opportunities to combine churches and charges so that they may become financially stronger in order to relieve this overburdened board and release funds for other places. The building of good roads and the greater number of automobiles gives easier access to churches that in other days were too distant to be considered.

We recommend that Rev. R. M. Courtney be continued as Centenary Field Secretary.

We also re-affirm our action taken last year relative to the every member canvass and the conditional appropriations.

ON MOTION DULY SECONDED THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED BY THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF FINANCE

Whereas the Board of Finance by authority of the General Conference did on February 1, 1924, project throughout the whole Church an organized movement known as the Special Effort for Superannuate Endowment, for the purpose of raising within five years a minimum of $10,000,000 as an endowment to supplement the support of the superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers and

Whereas, the plan of the said Special Effort provides that all contributions by each Annual Conference to the cause, less the necessary pro rata expense, shall be credited 50% to the General Superannuate Endowment Fund and 50% to the Annual Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund in trust with the Board of Finance, and

Whereas, the plan of the said Special Effort depends solely for its success upon the service rendered by the bishops, presiding elders, pastors and lay members—all applying themselves to this task in their respective fields of labor, the same as they do in the regular program of the Churches' annual activities in these fields, and

Whereas, the first year of the movement, under the plan stated, has demonstrated beyond doubt that the $10,000,000 can certainly be secured within the appointed time, if the plan is diligently worked throughout the prescribed period, therefore be it

Resolved: That the Western North Carolina Annual Conference pledges renewed determination to raise in full measure its part of the $10,000,000 being sought by the whole church for Superannuate Endowment, and assures the Board of Finance that the plan of the Special Effort will be wrought out annually with the fixed purpose to secure not less than one-fifth of the total quota each year.

2. That this worthy cause shall be presented annually at every District Conference during the period of the Special Effort, and that the presiding elders are urged to give this matter such careful attention that these occasions may be used to give the greatest impetus to the movement, and

3. That we pledge ourselves to be governed by the decision of the General Conference Commission on Correlation of plans for the three financial movements now before the Church; and we shall hold in strict observance the period alloted the Superannuate Cause by the Committee, March 15 to May 1 of each year, as a definite time when the Charges will raise their yearly quotas for Superannuate Endowment. Furthermore, we recognize that the Board of Finance has fixed March 22 of 1925 as Superannuate Day, and we pledge that all our Charges will seek to provide for their yearly quotas on that day, if possible, and certainly not later than May 1 following, and

4. That, having taken cognizance of the General Conference order to publish Statistical Table No. 4 concerning Superannuate Endowment in the Annual Conference Minutes, we instruct the Secretary of this Annual Conference to include this table in the Minutes of 1924 and each year of the Special Effort period, according to official copy to be furnished by the Board of Finance within one week following the adjournment of the Annual Conference.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Very careful consideration has been given to applications and other matters brought to attention. Most of the projects appear to be very worthy although in some instances the amounts asked for have been so large that it has been impossible to grant the full amount and at the same time make appropriations to many of the other projects presented.

There is still room for improvement in the completing of applications. Quite frequently we find that very important figures are missing and on this account the Board is unable to determine the right course to take.

Applications made to the Conference Board should be forwarded considerably in advance of the date of the Conference in order that any omissions may be noted and the applications put in proper shape before our Board is called upon to act on them. Where aid is asked in connection with new enterprises the officers of the Board should be consulted before the plans are finally decided upon.

The Board will in the future be particular to examine applications for aid in order to ascertain whether or not proper amount of fire insurance is being carried on churches and parsonages, before giving them favorable consideration. It is important that pastors and laymen bear this in mind as otherwise additional correspondence will be necessary.

It is thought desirable by this Board that the cause which they represent should be brought to the attention of each District Conference held during the year by a personal representative of the Board. In this way it is felt that there will be a clearer understanding and better co-operation in the work and plans for aiding worthy projects throughout our Conference.

Your Board has elected Fred C. Odell as its representative to the meeting of Conference Representatives to be held at Louisville, Ky., by the General Board next spring. Leon Cash was elected as alternate.

The following applications for aid for churches were carefully reviewed and referred to the General Board for action: Rockford Street (Mt. Airy), Marshville, Ronda, Rutherfordton, Weddington. Parsonages—Gibsonville.

The following applications were reviewed and referred to the Duke Commission for final action:

Churches—Calvary (North Wilkesboro District), Grace Chapel (Statesville District), Warrenville (North Wilkesboro District). (Winston-Salem District), Mt. Maria (Waynesville District), Mt. Pleasant (Mt. Airy District), Mt. Vernon (Greensboro District), Ogburn Memorial (Winston-Salem District), Puett's Chapel (Shelby District), Smithport Chapel (North Wilkesboro District), Weddington (Charlotte District).

Parsonages— Bethel-New Hope (Charlotte District), Shepherd (Statesville District), Warrenville (North Wilkesboro District).

Applications approved for payment by your Conference Board out of funds coming into their hands were as follows:

At the request of the Cabinet we have distributed the assessments to the districts on the same percentage as last year, making allowance for the transfer of some churches from one district to another.

In obedience to Par. 341 of the Discipline we have ascertained that the treasurers of several of our Boards are not bonded, and we have recommended that this be attended to at once and the bonds be deposited with the Secretary of the Conference. We also recommend that the treasurers secure depository bonds and interest on daily balances.

J. B. IVEY, Chairman,
CHARLES A. WOOD, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

The attention of the Conference is called to the great building program going on throughout Western North Carolina, and yet it appears that we have just begun our work. We wish to emphasize the importance of making our buildings conform to the needs of every department of the church especially the Sunday school. In order to do this, no building should be constructed without the plans being approved by the proper authorities. We do not believe that the General Church Extension Board should put any money in a church building unless its plans have first been passed upon by that Board. We do not believe that any Sunday School building ought to be constructed until plans have first been approved by the Conference Board.

Our Conference has more Sunday Schools than any other Conference of our denomination and is next to the leading Conference in membership. We are now on the eve of an epoch of a more constructive growth than ever before.

Mr. O. V. Woosley will be retained another year as Conference Superintendent; Miss Virginia Jenkins as Elementary Superintendent; Mr. Paul F. Evans as Superintendent of Rural and Extension Work, and Miss Mabel Grimes, Office Assistant, with headquarters at Lexington, N. C. Our field workers have accomplished much this year. Among other things, one Conference-wide Wesley Bible Class Federation was held at Lake Junaluska, at which time it was decided to enlarge the scope of its work so that it will virtually become an annual Sunday School Conference; 2 Conference-wide committee meetings were held; 10 district Sunday School Conferences for pastors and Sunday School superintendents were held; 4 county Sunday School institutes were promoted; 19 standard training schools were held throughout the Conference; 24 circuit-wide institutes, each embracing a full day; 51 group meetings, such as workers council, city council, building committee, together with a great many other meetings and visitations.

Our greatest growth has been shown in leadership training. During the year, 2407 units of credit have been earned by our Sunday school leaders as against 1403 last year and 747 the year before. 248 of this year's credits were earned by 162 of our active pastors, and honorary certificates have been presented to these pastors at this Conference. We wish to commend this work to every pastor in the Conference and would like to see every pastor obtain at least one credit during next year. The Sunday School can go no higher than the pator of the church. The responsibility of the local church is his and the laymen rightly look to the pastor for leadership.

Sunday School Day programs will be furnished next year at the expense of this Board to all Sunday schools that will observe the day. The offering taken that day should be sent immediately to Mr. H. A. Dunham, Treasurer, Asheville, N. C. The Board hopes that the importance of a liberal Sunday School Day offering will be stressed by our presiding elders, pastors and superintendents, and that every school will endeavor to observe this day sometime during the year.

We commend to our pastors and superintendents training school institutes. The Board recommends that a printed "Program of Work" be obtained by every school from the headquarters office at Lexington, and that each school will undertake to comply as nearly as possible with same.

A considerable number of our schools are observing Childrens Week. We find that the Sunday school receives great benefit from the visitation, the parent's meeting, and the forward step carried out during this week.

The Board requests the members of the Conference program committee for our next Annual Conference to permit the Sunday School Anniversary to take place on Wednesday evening of the opening day.

Dr. H. H. Jordan and Rev. W. H. Willis have been elected members of our Board to take the places of Dr. W. A. Lambeth and Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick. We miss Dr. Lambeth on the Board and in this Conference. He did a great work in helping to advance the cause of the Sunday schools in the Conference. We wish him success and happiness in his future work.

D. E. Henderson, of Charlotte, has been elected chairman of the Board to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Lambeth, and C. C. Weaver vice chairman of the Board.

D. E. HENDERSON, Chairman,
GEO. L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

A man out of place in the business world is constantly looking at his watch and thinking of his salary. Such a man in the religious world is dissatisfied, uneasy, bemoaning the present and dreading the future. He hasn't the ghost of a chance to grow in personal power or develop moral stamina.

If men are worthless till they have found their work, then those individuals and institutions which contribute largest to this end should be encouraged and fostered in every possible way.

For our own church we are certain there is no agency that even undertakes to do this work as does the Epworth League.

We are happy to report a continued and healthful gain in Epworth League numbers and efficiency. In thirty of the annual Conferences last year there was a gain of 14,000 members. One of the most encouraging signs of our time is that our church is now expending $100,000 a year upon her young people where, in a Connectional way, only six short years ago she was expending not one cent.

It is most heartening and gratifying to learn that the Epworth League Centenary pledge of $380,000 has been fully paid and the Board of Missions has committed to us the following annual missionary specials: For the Congo Mission in Africa, $50,000; for Maintenance Work at Paine College, $15,000; for Home Missionary work in Arizona, $11,000; for the support of five Epworth League Secretaries in foreign lands, $15,000; for work in Japan, $5,000; and for the Epworth Chair of religious music in Scarritt College, $4,000, making a total of $100,000. This shows convincingly how strong is the faith of our church in the Epworth League.

Our conference, held in West Market Street Church, Greensboro, the latter part of the summer, was attended by more than 500 choice young people, and was beyond doubt the best Conference we have ever held and the work done the most satisfactory.

Our big Connectional assembly at Junaluska afforded a fine combination of work, worship and play, surrounded by conditions of rare beauty and healthfulness. We urge all our pastors and young people to take advantage of every opportunity to attend these assemblies.

We are pleased to call attention to the continued growth of our League periodicals. The Epworth Era holds its place among the best magazines of its kind in the land. The Intermediate Epworthian and the Junior Epworthian are also taking high rank and doing much good.

Miss Margaret Brooks, our new field secretary, is taking hold of her work with intelligence and enthusiasm. We insist that all our pastors open the way for her in their respective fields.

We are pleased to give our hearty endorsement to the work done by B. L. Lunsford, president of the Epworth League Conference organization, Rev. L. A. Falls, Life Service Superintendent, Mrs. J. F. Armstrong, Intermediate Superintendent, and Miss Jennie M. James, Junior Superintendent, and in fact, all our Conference officers.

Your Board desires to thank the program committee of the Conference for giving us Saturday night for our Epworth League anniversary and hope this arrangement may be permanent.

REPORT OF BOARD ON CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

We have learned from the report submitted by the Methodist Board of Publication that our Advocate Publishing Company has had a successful year. With 22,500 subscribers the North Carolina Christian Advocate has a larger circulation than any other paper published in the Southern Methodist church. The excellent reading matter it contains is deserving of even a wider circulation. The efficiency and economy with which our Advocate interests are administered are also noteworthy.

The year 1925 marks the seventieth anniversary of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and think this a fitting time to press a campaign to increase its circulation to at least 30,000. To this end we recommend that we fix as a goal for our Conference 4,000 new subscribers while endeavoring to retain all our present subscribers. We suggest that this anniversary be observed with a vigorous campaign for new subscribers during February, March and April.

We recommend that Judge N. L. Eure be elected to succeed himself on the Methodist Board of Publication, and that Rev. A. W. Plyler be appointed editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

It is a matter of pride to the members of this Conference that Dr. Gilbert T. Rowe as editor of the Quarterly Review maintains the high standing of that Quarterly in the field of Christian literature. We are also very proud of the Christian Advocate, our general organ, which we believe is a really great religious paper, indispensable to our ministry and deserving of a place in every Methodist home. We recommend that diligence be given to the circulation of these periodicals and all our literature, whether book, pamphlet or periodical.

J. E. ABERNETHY, Chairman,
OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

A legacy of $1,600 has been received by our Treasurer during the past year from the estate of Rev. J. W. Jones. Since the will of Brother Jones directed this money to the Superannuate Endowment Fund the amount will be paid to J. B. Ivey, Treasurer of the Western North Carolina Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund. This leaves the amount of $63,000 now held in first mortgage investments in our treasury. The proceeds from the forty thousand dollars ($40,000) Heath funds has been paid to our Children's Home.

The Trustees have appropriated eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) to our Superannuate Fund.

The representatives of various interests have appeared before the Board with requests for recognition in the distribution of certain funds we expect to receive on account of the Court judgment in our favor in the John Wesley Higgins will case. Inasmuch as no money has been received from this source, except for expenses incurred by our board, no recommendations are being made.

We request the appointment, in the adoption of this report, of J. B. Ivey and I. F. Craven as a committee with the authority to sell our Mecklenburg farm at such time during the coming year as they may deem best and at such price as they may be able to obtain, with instructions that the proceeds from said sale be invested in first mortgage on real estate.

The following officers of our board have been reelected for the ensuing year: D. Atkins, President; W. R. Ware, Vice President; I. F. Craven, Secretary and Treasurer.

Attached hereto is a copy of our Treasurer's report for the past year.

D. ATKINS, President,

REPORT OF BIBLE BOARD

Your Bible Society Board is gratified to know that there has been a good increase of Bible distribution not only in our own land but in almost every foreign land. We note with deep interest and gratitude that the American Bible Society during its one hundred and eight years of service has issued 158,254,877 volumes.

Even in Japan, notwithstanding the great earthquake there in the midst of all this confusion and in spite of all these difficulties, the circulation for the year amounted to 343,588 volumes, an increase of 100,000 volumes over last year.

Whereas the fact is so well known that a prayerful study of the Bible is essential to Christian development, we would urge our people to read and study the Bible, and to continue to encourage and support the American Bible Society.

J. M. DOWNUM, Chairman,
T. J. HOUCK, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

The committee on the Spiritual State of the Church is glad to note many conditions of spiritual growth in the past year. Our churches are doing much finer Sunday School work than ever before. We are ready to admit that progress in our Sunday schools is the result of splendid ideas that have come to the leaders of Sunday school work, through the training schools and work of trained leaders. We commend the term "Sunday school evangelism" to every Sunday school teacher, for we believe the church school exists for just one great purpose, which is to bring the pupil to know and accept Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour.

The finances of the church are in good condition, according to the reports. Churches and parsonages are being built, material progress and development reveal the fact that our people are giving their means to advance the work of the kingdom of God, and we rejoice that these things reveal the grace of liberality.

There have been fine revivals in many of our charges, and numbers have been brought to know our blessed Lord. We feel sure the gospel is being preached in purity and with power by the great majority of our preachers, and that the great majority of men and women who live in North Carolina want no gospel other than that of Jesus Christ and Him crucified. We believe people come to our churches to hear a gospel that will bring them into a closer and sweeter fellowship with God, and strengthen them to live as true men and women in the eyes of the world.

We cannot fail to see that the church is facing conditions that are dangerous to her spiritual power. The spirit of our time is restlessness. People are not still long enough to meditate on the things of God. The home life is different from our childhood days. Parents are too busy with other things to properly train their children in religious things. Family altars are fewer we believe than in the days of our fathers, and we fear that the altar fires of the church cannot glow with the fires from off the altar of God while the altars in the homes are heaps of cinders and dead ashes.

It is sad but true the church and home are in competition with the materialistic paganism of modern social life. The sensationalism of our varied amusements, whether dance halls, picture shows, swimming pools or parlor bridge parties, all is spiced with the spirit of jazz, and the jazz spirit is a deadly foe to spirituality. Many members of our churches are living lives of worldliness and scarcely know what is meant by the term "Spiritual life."

We wish our preachers to call attention to the rules of our book of Discipline which forbid the Christian to take part in any amusement that is not in keeping with the gospel of Christ.

We desire to see our church people make more use of the means of grace, such as attending the church services, partaking of the Lord's Supper, and keeping the Sabbath a holy day and not a holiday for joy riding and picnicing.

We believe in the social gospel, but for the gospel to lift mankind to higher things, that gospel must save from sin.

We are called to a mighty task. Ours to create a hunger and a thirst in the souls of men for God. No man truly understands the spiritual life until he experiences the longing of the Psalmist in XXII Psalm, "My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?"

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE SUPERANNUATE FUND

We are to report that most of the cash pledges to this Fund are now due and that a large part of them have been paid. Many of the Building and Loan Certificates have matured during the year, and nearly all of them will mature during 1925.

It is the purpose of the Committee to turn over the funds they have collected to the Conference of 1925, in order that the superannuates may commence to get the benefits from the interest there from. Our report follows.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

Among the many things contributing to the success of our Methodism is the fact that Wesley organized classes and provided places of worship for his converts from the beginning and that this policy has been adhered to all the way down to this good day. Pioneer Methodism in America followed the immigrants west where altars were established. When Abraham was called from the land of his nativity into a land about which he knew nothing, in this strange new land of promise an altar was erected. Later the tabernacle was built and schools of prophets were established. This glorious age in the erecting of altars and establishing schools reached its height in the building of the Temple. It is apparent therefore that we have a glorious precedent in these things. The best building in any community should be the Temple or church.

We are therefore justly happy to note the constant growth of our church as indicated by the reports of the pastors through the years. Two new churches and ten new parsonages have been built during the past year. Many churches, parsonages and other properties have been beautified and otherwise improved.

The value of all our church property has increased from $2,073,375 to $9,916,458 during the past twelve years while the insurance carried has increased from $403,065 to $2,378,158 during the same period. It would appear therefore that the increase in insurance has not kept step with the increase in property values. We earnestly recommend that all our properties be adequately insured and that so far as possible such insurance be carried with our companies.

The questions called at the fourth quarterly conference should be answered as the Discipline directs. The pastor and trustees should see that all properties are properly secure, the deeds recorded and kept in a safe place.

When new churches are contemplated, we would urge the proper authorities to consult the General Board of Church Extension for plans. Entirely too much money is invested in buildings manifestly inadequate for the program of the church. We believe it is better to wait even for a considerable time than to invest in such churches.

We note with pleasure the consolidating of weak rural churches and the construction of adequate buildings suited to the more efficient work of the Sunday school.

We commend our several City Boards of Church Extension for their splendid work.

The following are the figures for the current year:

Church buildings reported last year, 890.

Value of church buildings reported last year, $7,365,650.

Parsonages reported last year, 244.

Value of parsonages reported last year, $1,318,433.

Value church buildings reported this year, $8,245,694.

Parsonages reported this year, 254.

Value parsonages reported this year, $1,460,240.

Value of other church property, $210,525.

Total value of church property reported last year, $8,890,595.

Total value of church property reported this year, $9,916,458, being an increase of $1,025,862 over last year.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON WORK AT CHAPEL HILL

The Joint Commission on Work at Chapel Hill submits the following:

The exchange of the Algernon Barbee store property with the University of North Carolina for the fraternity lots at the rear of the Seton Barbee lot has been effected, and the sum of fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000) has been paid the University for the Seton Barbee lot. The deeds for the same have been received and recorded.

The general plan of the building program has been completed and approval of the same has been acknowledged by the General Boards of Church Extension and of Sunday Schools, and the Commission authorized to proceed with the construction as far as the General Boards are concerned.

An amount of $50,000 has been assured by cash, subscriptions and guarantees from the Methodists and friends in the state. The solicitation of subscriptions is to be continued by Rev. Walter Patten until the desired amount is pledged.

The plans and specifications of the Connecting Unit and the Church are in the hands of the contractors for bids and the contract will be let as soon as a bid is accepted.

To meet the needs of the eight hundred Methodist students at the University this year it has been decided that by the cooperation of the Student Class, the local Chapel Hill Church, and the Joint Commission to build a Hut to accomodate about three hundred students at a cost not to exceed $1,000. The students themselves have agreed to furnish a large part of the labor for this enterprise.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT CONFERENCE HOSPITAL BOARD

We report the following facts from the General Secretary:

Seven hospitals, representing a property value of four and a half million dollars and an endowment of more than a million. Some twelve thousand patients have been treated. Annual income, $650.000.

Another hospital is accepted at Huntington, W. Va., representing additional property value of $200,000. The Barnes and Wesley Memorial hospitals are well established now and rank with the best in the country.

We deeply deplore that so little has been done by the Golden Cross, despite the resolution of the Conference a year ago to secure 35,000 members; and we frankly believe that it is because it has not been duly presented to our people. We again request that the Golden Cross be presented to every department of the church in every pastoral charge between Thanksgiving and Christmas—most certainly during the Conference year—and that Rev. W. R. Ware, D. D., be designated Conference Secretary of the Golden Cross.

We also recommend that the officers of the Conference Board be constituted the Executive Committee of same.

L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

We have practically the same number of children we had last year. We reported then 152 children and we have 151 at present. There has been no falling off in the number of appeals in behalf of children who seek to enter the Home. We are able to take most of the children who have neither father nor mother.

But there are a great number of mothers who have more children than they can take care of. If a woman is to make a living for her children, somebody must look after them while she works. The number of women who are left widows with children and those who are deserted or those whose families are otherwise broken up is very large. These women must live and these children need attention, if they are to be made good citizens and saved for the Master.

The State has adopted a system of Mothers' Aid and the appropriations seem large, nevertheless inadequate, and there is still abundant room for all that the church feels disposed to do for these unfortunates. Why should the church ask the State to take care of its own members, or carry the burden that the love of Christ has laid upon us?

While in the main the health of our children has been good there have been several epidemics, and surgical operations have been necessary, which have increased the expense for the health of children above the usual amount. We hoped to report again that another year had passed without a death in our family, but on October 12th little Richard Ballou died of diphtheria. This is the second death in the Home in fifteen years. We are still somewhat apprehensive lest diphtheria should attack some others.

The Hospital is almost finished and will be ready for occupancy about November 1st. We have broken ground for a cottage to accommodate twenty boys. A friend who wishes his name withheld authorized us to build a baby cottage to cost $25,000. These buildings will increase our capacity. In addition to these buildings we have built several sheds and increased the capacity of our barns, which will aid in economical management of our institution. The out buildings are a necessity, and we have not built all that we need yet.

We have had another successful year in our school life and our children have as good school opportunities as any. We have worked out our plans for a Vocational Program and expect to make a beginning of actual work in vocational instruction soon.

We have received during the year a bequest from the late J. W. Crummel, of Booneville, $3,422.00; and from the estate of Lawson Petree, Hickory, $469.00, M. F. Little, Albemarle, $2,000.00. Mr. Clarence Stimpson, Statesville, gave $500.00 in memory of his father and mother. Mr. H. G. Chatham gave us the blankets for our new hospital and also enough to refurnish the High Point Building, a gift which amounts to several hundred dollars. The Higgins estate has not been closed up but it seems likely that the Children's Home will receive for its share something like $50,000.00. From this Higgins money we are required to spend at least $25,000.00 for a cottage, to be known as the Julia Higgins Cottage.

We recommend that Fred N. Tate be elected Trustee of the Children's Home for a term of two years.

T. F. MARR, President.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 1

We beg your indulgence for a few minutes that we may bring to your attention the work of the Board of Lay Activities.

We submit to you the report that every district has been organized by having a District Lay Leader appointed, subject to the direction and co-operation of the Presiding Elder. In each district we have three Associate District Lay Leaders so as to assign one to each individual county. We have also adopted the policy of having Associate Conference Lay Leaders in each three districts.

We hoped to make a better showing at the present time. We regret that we could not get our work better before the Conference than we have, but we have had the active co-operation of most of our preachers. In nearly every charge and church a Lay Leader has been appointed, proving faithful and loyal in many instances.

Our greatest hindrance is the lack of organization. It has been the custom in our church for the preachers to do everything so long that we find our laymen rather timid about making suggestions and going forward upon independent lines. They usually wait for the preachers to move before they do anything. We are hoping that during the coming year we can persuade our preachers to leave more of the detail work of the pastorate—in the way of making collections and projecting work of that kind—to the laymen and give more of their time to the work of training the laymen to do for them, thus duplicating themselves in a number of instances.

We do not find any unwillingness on the part of our laymen, but simply a lack of training. Time alone can give this, but the quicker we can get our pastors to realize that the work of training laymen to duplicate their own work is one of the things they should do, the quicker our church will move forward.

Finances: The financial problems can easily be solved, provided our pastors will agree to co-operate with their laymen in the early part of the Conference year. We can always predict which charges will be financially successful in thirty days after Conference, if we but know what the preachers have done in the way of organizing their forces. It is an utter impossibility for any man to bring his charge out financially if he undertakes to do this by himself. He must have the active co-operation of his laymen to do that work successfully.

When we take into consideration that there are one hundred and twenty six charges in this Conference that are receiving missionary help—many places in which the Gospel has been preached for from fifty to one hundred years—it is, at least, within the range of moderation to say that all of those appropriations are not necessary. They can be cut in half in one year if our preachers will deliberately plan their financial program. To do this it is necessary for them in the very beginning of the year to get their laymen together, make a budget of their expenses, solicit and secure a subscription from each individual member of the church, cultivate each member to see the need of supporting the church financially, and then make provision for taking collections each time a service is held in the church.

In many churches no provision is made for an individual to pay his subscription when he does attend church services. We would recommend that at each service, there should be ushers appointed to pass the collection baskets and secure whatever the membership may want to pay at that time.

We have provided a program that will enable every preacher to go to his work, make out a budget to take care of all of his expenses and be ready to go into this in the beginning of this year. The Board of Lay Activities has provided cards so that every church on our circuits will have them without cost. In our station work we find very little difficulty about this. The only difference between our stations and circuits is that the one is trained and the other is not. It is possible to have them all trained.

We find a program in some places in which they claim that they have the budget plan. They collect at all the services, take out the pastor's salary and if there is anything short it will come up on the Conference collections. We are sure that those who are practicing this method have never stopped to consider its effect. The Conference collections are as important as the pastor's salary. We believe our people to be honest. We do not believe they will allow a preacher to work for them and not pay him for his time. Some of our people will simply have to be educated in this matter in order to understand that the paying of the Conference collections is just as important as the paying of the pastor's salary. Our people lack in this respect and the hope of bringing this knowledge to them is to be found in the constant use of our laymen in aiding the pastor in his work.

You will recall that last year we had two ambitions. One was the full payment of assessments for 1924. We have not been able to accomplish that one hundred per cent. We believe, however, that we have made some progress over last year. The second thing was a thorough canvass of every member of our church. This has not been done with any degree of system. Many have attempted it, but haven't carried it out fully. We are begging our people to give us their active support in this work, which seems all important, if we would move forward.

We desire to make special mention of the work that has been done in certain districts; namely,

In the Charlotte District there has been an evangelistic effort on the part of the laymen, which has brought fine results, in the conducting of meetings and the converting of souls.

The same holds good with regard to the laymen in the Salisbury District.

Asheville, Winston-Salem, Mt. Airy and Greensboro Districts have been particularly active in bringing up the financial programs. We are happy to say that progress has been made in that direction.

There may have been special efforts in behalf of certain interests in other districts, but we have not been able to get their reports.

We have given active support to the Centenary Campaign and to the Educational Campaign, and in every way have endeavored to labor with the men who are appointed in God's Providence as our preachers.

We have no desire beyond that of service in the Church of God. We are grateful for the privileges we have. We are asking only for the opportunity of serving. This we trust you will grant us, so that as the years go by the forces of the Kingdom may be used in the very fullest degree.

CHAS. H. IRELAND,
Conference Lay Leader.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 2

The Board of Lay Activities would report for their aim this year five (5) objectives; namely,

1. An earnest effort to bring payment on all assessments, General and Conference, to one hunderd per cent.

2. A concerted, Church-wide movement for stewardship cultivation and an appeal to all our members for loyalty to every pledge they have made to the Church.

3. A persistent, faithful effort to bring about a true revival of religion to the extent that the laity of the Church will engage in personal evangelism and all become witnesses for Jesus Christ.

4. An honest effort to organize the Wesley Brotherhood in every church.

5. The use of Lay Speakers to supply vacant pulpits and let the slogan be, "A service in every community every Sunday."

C. H. Ireland was elected Conference Lay Leader and E. A. Cole Secretary of the Board of Lay Activities for the ensuing year.

The Executive Committee is composed of the officers of the Board of Lay Activities and each of the District Lay Leaders.

C. H. IRELAND, Chairman,
E. A. COLE, Secretary.

Your Committee on District Conference Records, has examined the records of Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Mt. Airy, North Wilkesboro, Salisbury, Shelby, Statesville, Waynesville and Winston-Salem Districts and find them all correct and in order.

It is the opinion of the Committee, without critical intent, except constructive criticism, that in a matter of so much importance in conserving history as are these records, that they be kept in more permanent form, and therefore we desire to suggest that the books in which these minutes are recorded be, as some few are, of better grade, either loose leaf or bound uniform record books, so that they may be records of unlimited duration.

J. E. SHELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION

The Joint Commission representing the Conferences of the Methodist Protestant and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in North Carolina submits the following report:

In the effort to secure closer and more intimate co-operation between our two churches, we are much interested in the action taken by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in approving the plan for the union of the two Episcopal Methodisms. Following this action in May of the present year, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, assembled in special session in July following, approved the same plan.

The General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at its regular session in May passed the following resolution submitted by a special committee appointed by the General Conference:

"The General Conference has heard with delight the message of Bishop Anderson sent by the Methodist Episcopal Church, and of Doctor Miller sent by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In both messages we have been invited to participate in the unification of Methodism. We reciprocate heartily the sentiment expressed and the invitation extended. We favor and long for a united Methodism. Not understanding perfectly the present scheme of unification between these two churches we yet believe it would be possible for us to come in on such terms as would not require us to surrender the fundamental principles of the Methodist Protestant Church in the zone of church government. That we may satisfy ourselves on this point, we are authorizing a committee to receive any communication it may please you to make, to give them careful consideration, and to report the same to us. This letter is approved by unanimous vote."

(Signed) THOMAS H. LEWIS, Chairman,
J. C. WILLIAMS,
J. NORMAN WILLS,
A. N. WARD,
HARRY SHAW.

Never before has there been such significant action taken by these three great Methodist bodies looking to the ultimate union of American Methodism. We, in the words of the above resolution, "favor and long for a united Methodism," and hail with joy this day.

To provide a practical method of procedure, we recommend that whenever there is an effort to make readjustments between our two churches so as to make for efficiency and economy in the work of the two churches that the President of the Methodist Protestant Conference and the Presiding Elder involved be and are hereby constituted a Board of Mediation to act with the parties interested in doing the work enterprised.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
ROLAND C. STUBBINS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE METHODIST SUMMER SCHOOL

The seventh session of the School was held at Trinity College, June 4—8, 1924. This was the first session of a Standard Pastors' School in co-operation with the General Board of Missions and the General Sunday School Board held at Trinity. The venture proved to be a success in every respect.

Regular courses of instruction for which credit was given were offered as follows: "Rural Church Methods and Rural Church and Community Service," Dr. McConnell; "City Church Administration and Social Teachings of Jesus," Dr. Shattuck; "The Pastor and His Problems and the Conduct of Public Worship," Dr. Young; "Ministers Message for the Needs of Today and Studies in Life of Paul," Dr. Anderson; "Rural Sunday School Management and City Sunday School Management," Mr. Brabham; "Principles of Teaching," Professor Childs; "Recreation," Mr. Burbage.

Bishops Mouzon and Boaz, Dr. Charles E. Jefferson, New York; Dr. Charles R. Erdman, Princeton; and Doctors F. J. Prettyman, W. J. Young, and Stonewall Anderson of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were heard in inspirational addresses.

Five men from the N. C. Conference received 10 credits; and fourteen from the W. N. C. Conference 74 credits, in undergraduate work.

In advanced work, the record is as follows: 48 from the North Carolina Conference received 88 certificates; and 39 from the Western North Carolina Conference received 77 certificates.

No record of those in attendance who did not work for credits is available; though many attended class without trying for credits.

The School is extending its scope each year and bringing in a larger number of instructors, and runs for two full weeks. This means larger opportunities and increased expenditures.

We request the two Boards of Education and the two Boards of Missions to continue to contribute $400 each as hitherto. To meet the increased expenses the two Sunday School Boards are requested to contribute $400 each. This will enable the Treasurer to meet the demands made upon him.

The expenditure is such that every effort should be made to take advantage of the courses offered at Trinity and every pastor whose face is to the future should plan to attend.

We request the Conference to ask the Presiding Elders to so arrange their Quarterly Conferences as not to interfere with anyone who may desire to attend.

M. T. PLYLER, President,
W. H. WILLIS. Secretary.

REPORT OF DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

We have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Co., covering the period from October 1st, 1923, to October 1st, 1924, and after a thorough examination found the books of the Secretary and Treasurer in good condition.

There is insurance in force at this time of $1,766,765.00 which represents a net increase of $66,778.00 over the previous year.

There were no losses for the past year.

We find there is still a large part of the church property not protected by insurance, and we suggest that this Conference go on record as requesting that the lay leaders of the Conference give such assistance as they can to the Secretary and Treasurer in increasing the insurance in force to $3,000,000.00 by the time the next Annual Conference convenes.

We recommend the re-election of C. A. Wood as director, whose term shall expire October, 1929.

E. A. COLE, President,
W. E. WEBB, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

We are taught in the Scriptures that the Sabbath is a sign between God and man. In this sign we read God created the heavens and the earth and all things that dwell therein. In this sign we read the authority as well as the love of God.

Man is a three fold being, physical, mental and spiritual. On the Sabbath man is not to despise his physical and mental nature, as he is not to despise his spiritual nature on the week day. But on the Sabbath day man is to give his first thoughts to his spiritual nature. God through the wonderful services of his church, with her gospel and her prayers, has provided for the spiritual nature the necessary means of development.

If man fails to adhere to this wonderful provision which God has made, there will become a dearth in his spiritual life. In such a state man loses interest in spiritual things. He soon becomes isolated from the love of God and things that make for his eternal welfare.

It is in this condition man breaks the Sabbath and other laws of God.

Therefore we urge upon our preachers to preach as often as they deem it advisable upon Sabbath observance. We feel that the people should be urged to obey that rule in our discipline which says we are not to buy and sell on the Sabbath day. We therefore would earnestly insist upon all our people to refrain that day from buying and selling all articles of merchandise either for their comfort or pleasure. The sale of soft drinks, gasoline, tobaccos, are specially noticeable along our public highways and in many of our towns and cities; much, if not all of these, could be dispensed with, without seriously discommoding the people and to the better observance of the Lord's day.

We view with alarm the social bathing pools open on the holy Sabbath. Where these exist let the owners be urged to close them or those in authority invited to use such means as may be necessary to have them closed.

Brethren, members of this great Conference, we call upon you to do all in your power to help save the holy Sabbath, God's own institution for man's civic and spiritual good, from desecration, for in so doing you serve your country's best interests and save the Church of Christ.

W. R. WARE, Chairman,
J. L. WOLFE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DUKE FUND COMMISSION

In submitting another annual report, the Duke Fund Commission would call special attention to three important matters.

A. Conditional pledges to church buildings automatically expire unless the conditions are met within one year after the grant is made; provided, however, that the grant may be extended if a new application is filed with the Commission.

B. Believing that the next few years will see the consolidation of weak and badly located churches, the building of new church houses, and the enlarging of old ones that are inadequate for present-day needs, therefore the Commission has voted

1. That the Commission join with the two Conferences in making a study of the needs and in securing the necessary architectural plans for the work ahead of us, and invite any Presiding Elder or Preacher in Charge interested to advise with and secure aid of the Commission in efforts to advance the work of the church in the open country.

2. That afternoon conferences be provided at the Pastor's School at Trinity College in June to consider the demands of needy fields and find what ought to be done.

3. That the following committee be appointed to act with the Executive Committee of this Commission in the work contemplated in this resolution: H. C. Byrum, R. O. Eller, J. W. Fitzgerald, and O. V. Woosley.

C. All churches that ask aid from the Duke Fund will be expected to submit plans to the Commission so as to give assurance that the church buildings helped will be sufficient to meet the needs of the communities they are intended to serve.

We feel sure that much good is being done through the money which Mr. James B. Duke is giving year by year for the upbuilding of country churches in North Carolina. It is the earnest desire of Mr. Duke and of all who have any part in the administering of this Fund that the money given for Missions and Church Extension be spent to the best possible advantage. To secure this end the Pastors and Presiding Elders must give all diligence.

The Commission would remind the Western North Carolina Conference that the term of Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, nominated by the Presiding Elders, expires with 1924.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

Your Board has given consideration to many of the conditions of modern life that are blocking the progress of Christian civilization. We are convinced that these condition offer a distinct challenge to the church, and that its continued supremacy as the greatest force for righteousness depends on the answer it makes to this challenge. We look to the church's ministers as the ordained messengers of God to work as wholeheartedly for social salvation, for the Christianizing of education, industry, recreation, government, of all the processes of our common life as they have always labored for the salvation of the individual soul.

We believe that the whole strength of our churches should be brought to bear upon social problems especially as they are met in the communities. We have faith that a thorough understanding of the actual conditions in the community by all the members of the local church will be the first step in cleansing and vitalizing the community life, and that a definite program for Christianizing that life should follow.

We therefore recommend:

1. That the Social Service Committee of the local church be constituted to represent all ages, interests and organizations within the church, and we suggest that the pastor nominate as members of this Committee a member of the Board of Lay Activities, and other members of the board of stewards, the Third Vice-President of the Epworth League, a member of the Workers' Council of the Sunday School, and the Social Service Superintendent of the Women's Missionary Society.

2. That this Committee be elected and organized at the beginning of the conference year and hold monthly meetings to study the social, industrial and religious needs of the community and to lay plans for meeting these needs.

We believe that these committees can render the communities a splendid service, among the many awaiting them, in the matter of law enforcement. In this effort they should acquaint themselves with Section 13 of the law known as the Turlington Act of 1923, and act in accordance with its provisions. The Act is as follows:

"When the solicitor of any judicial district has good reason to believe that liquor has been manufactured or sold contrary to law within any county in his district, and believes that any person has knowledge of the existence and establishment of any illicit distillery, or that any person has sold liquor illegally, then it is lawful for the solicitor to apply to the clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the offense is supposed to have been committed to issue a subpoena for the person so having knowledge of said offense to appear before the next grand jury drawn for the county, there to testify upon oath what he may know touching the existence, establishment, and whereabouts of said distillery, or persons who have sold intoxicating liquor contrary to law, who shall give the names and personal description of the keepers thereof and of any person who has sold liquor unlawfully, and such evidence, when so obtained, shall be considered and held in law as an information on oath upon which the grand jury shall make presentment, as provided by law in other cases. If any officer shall fail or refuse to use due diligence in the execution of the provisions of this section he shall be guilty of laxness in office, and such failure be cause for removal from office."

In like manner, these committees may render a service by taking the initiative in a movement to stop the unlawful gift or sale of cigarettes to minors, thereby taking their part in protecting growing boys from the evil effect on minds and bodies of a poison, which contributes to the moral corruption of so many.

We recommend that these committees study some standard work relating to the church's place in social regeneration, such as "Serving the Neighborhood," by Felton; "The Child and America's Future," by Stowell; and "The Methodist Church and Its Work," by Kern and Tippy.

We believe that this study will stimulate an increased activity on the part of the church in the correction of abuses, in preventing juvenile delinquency, in promoting wholesome recreation, and in enhancing family life.

There are powerful influences menacing family life today that can only be overcome by summoning every social force for good.

We believe that we should encourage parents to reinstate the family pew and the family altar, family recreation, as well as family co-operation in work; and further, that a renewal of parental companionship and oversight with the will to hold the children close in bonds of affection and confidence and restraint will greatly lessen the evils of wild automobile riding, too frequent and too promiscuous attendance on moving pictures, and other exceses that are destroying ideals, and fineness of living in young people. We suggest that a Parent's Conference might well be sponsored by the Social Service Committee, at which some of these matters may be discussed, and further, that the younger representatives on the committee might initiate discussions in Epworth Leagues, Young People's Missionary Societies, and classes on "Manners and Morals, Standards of Behavior," and other topics bearing on their own social habits.

There are many functions for this committee, too many to outline in this report, which we hope will be discovered as the forwardlooking churches proceed with this kind of service.

LEGISLATION AND GOVERNMENT

We desire to commend the work of the State Board of Public Welfare in its achievements of the past and to pledge to it the co-operation of Southern Methodists in Western North Carolina, in the work being done under county and state agents for the rehabilitation of families, the rescue of girls, and the care of neglected, dependent and delinquent children and especially in the administration of the State Child Labor laws.

We advocate the establishment by the state, of a detention home for adult female offenders, both that they may be reclaimed if possible, and that our homes and society may be protected. We ask your support of the bill to be presented at the next session of our legislature for the establishment of a farm colony where these women may be confined, treated and taught a trade.

We advocate marriage and divorce laws uniform with the other states as advocated by the American Bar Association.

We advocate federal censorship of moving picture films, for we know that the caption "Passed by the National Board of Review," carries only the endorsement of the producers and distributors, and that sensationalism, indecency, sex suggestiveness, and crime regnant, characterize many films seen by millions of children and adolescents.

We pledge our support to State and Federal provisions for the prevention and control of child labor.

Complying with the request of the Conference that a committee be appointed to visit the next Legislature in the interest of a law to prevent legalized boxing matches, we appoint the following as members of a committee: C. C. Weaver, J. F. Shinn and Charles H. Ireland.

NEAR EAST RELIEF

Recognizing the efficient and practical work being done by Near East Relief, and realizing the educational and Christian value of our own co-operation, we approve continued generous support of the work of Near East Relief in order that those who have been rescued by its agency may continue to receive schooling, training in trades and Christian education that will best fit them for self-support, and for their duties as citizens and leaders in the Near East of the future, and—

Further, we endorse the idea of observing Sunday, December 7th, 1924, as Golden Rule Sunday in the homes of our families, and in our schools and colleges.

We reiterate our adherence to the Social Creed of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America as found in the Discipline. Your Committee believes that our people should know this statement of the application of the Gospel of Jesus to society as it is organized today, and we therefore recommend that it be read in every church during the conference year.

W. L. HUTCHINS, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The annual session of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference met in West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C., Tuesday evening, October 14, 1924, W. R. Ware, president of the Society in the chair.

J. E. Abernethy conducted the opening devotional service, and J. Ed Thompson led in prayer.

W. G. McFarland was appointed secretary, pro tempore, and read the Minutes of the previous session, which were approved.

W. L. Sherrill, H. K. Boyer and J. Ed Thompson were appointed a committee on nominations for officers for the coming year.

C. M. Pickens, having been chosen to deliver the annual address, selected as his topic "The Development of Methodism in North Carolina in the Territory West of the Blue Ridge Mountains." The paper was replete with historic incidents occurring in this region, and showed evidence of great care and research in its preparation.

The committee on publication of the historical papers and addresses, delivered before this Society, and the Society of the North Carolina Conference, made its report through W. L. Sherrill, which was supplemented by explanatory remarks by T. A. Sikes, showing that progress had been made toward issuing the first volume of these addresses. The committee was continued by vote of the Society.

The president, W. R. Ware, and W. L. Sherrill were appointed to draft suitable resolutions expressing the sense of loss to the society in the death of Dr. H. M. Blair, who for several years had rendered very fine service to the Society and to the Conference by his interest in our past history.

Upon motion of W. L. Dawson, the Society requested W. L. Sherrill to undertake the task of compiling and writing a History of the Western North Carolina Conference. J. H. Barnhardt moved and the Society voted that L. A. Falls complete the task undertaken by the late Rev. R. M. Taylor of arranging a biography of the present clerical membership of the Conference, in book form.

It was the opinion of the Society expressed by the vote on the motion of W. L. Sherrill, that the publishers of Historical papers by the two Conference Societies be asked to place a price of one dollar on the forthcoming volume, and on motion of Charles H. Ireland, T. A. Sikes was instructed to solicit pre-publication subscriptions of this volume at above suggested price.

A collection was taken, and $21.09 was added to the expense funds in the hands of the treasurer.

On the report of the Nominating Committee the following officers were elected for the Conference year 1925:

President, J. E. Abernethy; Vice-President, J. H. Barnhardt; Secretary-Treasurer, John F. Kirk, and the following as members of the Executive Committee: to succeed himself, A. W. Plyler; to succeed W. A. Lambeth, C. M. Pickens.

After the singing of the Doxology, the bendiction was pronounced by J. E. Abernethy, and the meeting adjourned.

J. E. ABERNETHY, President,
JOHN F. KIRK, Secretary.

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in sixteenth annual session in West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C. at 2:30 P. M., October 17, 1924, with W. L. Sherrill, the President, in the chair. After devotional service conducted by H. H. Robbins, the minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. The treasurer then made his annual report. This report showed that on the death of S. M. Davis, H. M. Blair and J. C. Mock a benefit of $1,750.00 had been paid on each claim. After these claims were paid there was a balance on hand of $1,923.00. This amount is $610.00 less than the balance of one year ago and shows that an effort must be made to bring up the collections on this fund.

The President spoke at some length on the history of the Brotherhood, stating that there had been 41 deaths of Brotherhood members in fifteen (15) years, making the average cost during the period only $9.00 per year; the cheapest insurance on earth, and a great benevolence which every preacher, apart from the insurance feature, should delight to give his financial support. He was followed by G. D. Herman, W. L. C. Killian of Gastonia, Fred Tate of High Point, and others. All suggested ways of enlarging the lay membership. A committee appointed a year ago to consider group insurance reported such insurance is undesirable and not practical at present. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice President, W. R. Ware; Secretary and Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. G. D. Herman and W. L. Dawson were appointed by the President as members of the Executive Committee for the coming year. This committee was called to meet the following day at 2 o'clock.

W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

MEMOIRS

BISHOP JAMES ATKINS

James Atkins was born in Knox County, Tennessee, April 18, 1850, and died in Little Rock, Arkansas, December 5, 1923.

He was the son of Rev. James Atkins, D. D., and Mary Jackson Atkins. His father was one of the most influential members of the Holston Conference for many years, and represented that Conference six times in the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

James Atkins's boyhood was spent in Riceville, Tennessee, where he attended the Riceville Academy. His early education was interrupted at the coming of the war between the States, and during the four years of the war period the conditions in East Tennessee were such that no educational advantages were obtainable.

In 1866 his father moved to Emory, Virginia, and he attended Emory and Henry College for three years. During this period he was happily converted and became active in church work.

In 1869, on account of the lack of adequate funds, he was forced to abandon his college career, and during that year taught in the rural schools of East Tennessee. In 1870 he was elected Principal of the Blue Springs Academy, located six miles south of Cleveland, Tennessee.

On October 31, 1870, he was licensed to preach, and appointed Junior Preacher of the Cleveland Circuit.

In the fall of 1871 he was enabled to return to Emory and Henry College, and completed his college course.

In the fall of the following year—1872—he was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference and appointed Junior Preacher on the Morristown and Mossy Creek Charge.

From the beginning of his Conference career he was considered one of the brightest and most acceptable pastors and preachers of the Holston Conference, serving within six years the Jonesboro, Abingdon and Asheville Stations.

On September 14, 1876, while serving his second year at Asheville, he was united in marriage to Miss Ella M. Branner. Mrs. Atkins came of a line of distinguished ancestry in Tennessee and Western North Carolina. She was a woman of unusual attractiveness, culture and piety, and was of the greatest help to him in all of his various activities until the date of her death, which occurred in Waynesville, North Carolina, on August 3, 1916. Four children were born to them: Mary Lyons, Love Branner, James and Hilliard. Mary Lyons died at the age of thirteen years. Love Branner is the wife of Dr. J. W. Shackford, General Secretary of the Sunday School Board, and James and Hilliard are respected business men of Waynesville, North Carolina.

In the fall of 1879 Dr. Atkins was appointed President of the Asheville Female College. This college did not belong to the Church, but was thoroughly religious in its ideals, and during the ten years of Dr. Atkins's Presidency was one of the greatest influences in the upbuilding of Western North Carolina. Owing to Dr. Atkins's success and experience as an educator, he was elected President of Emory and Henry College in 1889. The college was in financial straits, and for the next four years Dr. Atkins devoted his energy, not only to building up a strong faculty and an adequate curriculum, but also in placing the College upon a better financial footing.

In the spring of 1896, Dr. W. D. Kirkland, the Editor of the Sunday School Board, died in Nashville, Tennessee, and Dr. Atkins was elected by the Book Committee as Sunday School Editor on June 6. He served in this capacity, being elected by each succeeding General Conference, until the General Conference at Birmingham, Alabama, in 1906, at which Conference he was elected to the Episcopacy.

On June 7, 1921, Bishop James Atkins was united in marriage to Miss Eva Rhodes, of Tennessee, who was with him until the end, and by her loyalty and devotion brought much happiness and comfort into his latter years.

The above brief summary of the principal events in the life of Bishop Atkins is but suggestive of the great activities of a well-rounded career. He was a member of Five General Conferences before his election to the Episcopacy, and during his work as an educator and preacher and Sunday School Editor was connected with almost all of the great enterprises and movements of the church.

He was author of many tracts and monographs, in addition to his constant editorial and other contributions to our Sunday School literature. His book, "The Kingdom in the Cradle," was at the time in which it came from the press one of the epoch making contributions to Christian Education. I think it can be said without controversy that his administration as Sunday School Editor was the beginning of the great forward movement in the Sunday School work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which he lived to see reach the position of first place in the denominations of America.

He was always primarily interested in the educational life of the Church, having a great deal to do with the founding of Southern Methodist University, at Dallas, Texas, and in other educational enterprises, too numerous to mention. The greater part, however, of his thought and energy along lines of Christian Education centered in the Sunday School. His closest affiliations were with men who were devoting their lives and talents to this particular field of education, and he was President of the Sunday School Board at the time of his death.

Bishop Atkins was vitally interested in and officially connected with the great Centenary Movement. He was the Chairman of the Centenary Commission, and had a large part in the wise planning, which resulted in the outstanding success of this greatest forward movement in missionary endeavor of modern times.

Bishop Atkins loved the mountain section of Western North Carolina as he did no other section of the Church, and for a quarter of a century before the founding of the Southern Assembly at Lake Junaluska had visualized a great Assembly in that loved section where the people of Southern Methodism could gather in the summer months for religious instruction, healthful out-door recreation, and Christian communion. Perhaps we owe the Southern Assembly, which is today fulfilling to a large degree a great need on our Church, to his planning and activities more than to any other man.

Of the Episcopal administration of Bishop Atkins it is only necessary to say that in all of his official relationships and acts he was always fair, brotherly, and sympathetic. The Conferences which he held both at home and in the mission fields were always pleased with his administration, and in the onerous burdens and many problems which are necessarily connected with the office his brethren believed that he met them to the best of his ability in a high Christian spirit.

I shall not speak at any length of his family life and its relationships, except to say that, having a somewhat intimate knowledge of his home and family, I can bear testimony to its cordiality and happiness.

Aside from all of the official relationships of Bishop Atkins, it is of the man in relationship to his fellow-man that we think with the highest regard and deepest appreciation. He was truly "a friend to man," and in the social circle and in every other relationship of life was first of all a Christian gentleman.

There are many members of this Conference who today are missing the warm personal touch which they sustained with him for so many years.

Bishop Atkins had been in failing health for several months preceding his death. A short time before he left to hold the North Arkansas Conference at Little Rock he had an attack at his home at Lake Junaluska which caused his family and friends great apprehension. Grave doubts were entertained as to the advisability of his attempting the trip to Arkansas, but he would not consent to forego the journey. I am told by brethren who are members of the North Arkansas Conference that his Presidency of this last Conference over which he presided was altogether satisfactory.

On Sunday evening, December 2, 1923, he performed his last act of public service in reading the appointments of the Little Rock Conference. On Monday morning he went to the home of his friend, Dr. James Thomas, and throughout the day, though quite unwell, he maintained his usual cheerfulness. On that night at 11 o'clock he was stricken with paralysis, became unconscious, and remained in this condition until 10:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, when he passed peacefully into the Great Beyond.

At his bedside at the time of his passing were his devoted wife, Mrs. Eva Rhodes Atkins, his daughter, Mrs. John W. Shackford, and his younger son, Mr. Hilliard Atkins.

His body was brought back to the mountains which he had so much loved to find its last resting place amidst the friends and loved ones with whom he had lived for so many years. The Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences appointed two of their number, Rev. Clem Baker of the Little Rock Conference, and Rev. W. B. Hayes of the North Arkansas Conference, to accompany his body to its final resting place in Waynesville, North Carolina.

The funeral services were conducted by Bishop Warren A. Candler and Rev. J. T. Mangum, Pastor of the Church at Waynesville, assisted by Dr. George R. Stuart, Mr. John R. Pepper, Dr. E. B. Chappell, Dr. Ashley Chappell, and Rev. R. S. Howie, Presiding Elder of the Waynesville District. Dr. Dan Atkins closed the service with prayer.

The day his body arrived in Waynesville was very gloomy, the sky was overcast with clouds, and at intervals showers of rain had been falling. As the train pulled into the station at Lake Junaluska, the sun broke through the clouds and the whole sky and the mountain ranges were bathed with the Glory of God, finding reflection in the placid bosom of the Lake. Those of us who were waiting at the station for the coming of his earthly body, as we looked at the glorious sky, felt with one accord that all of this glory was but a forecast of that glory which awaited him, who had been a good and faithful servant in all the relationships of life.

REV. HUGH McLEOD BLAIR

The great soul of Rev. Hugh McLeod Blair passed through the gates into the City of God in the early morning hours of May 19, 1924.

This friend of man and servant of the church had lingered for many days along the border and, since he has slipped so quietly from among us, we feel that his will, as well as the will of his Father in heaven, has been accomplished in his going. And now that the storms are hushed in the harbor and the tempests lie in the lap of the declining day, we behold in him the afterglow of qualities and virtues which were partly obscured in the midday splendors of his vigorous manhood, and which we were too blind to see when we worked by his side in the stress of the day's toil. There is always a lingering halo of precious memory surrounding the life of a good man or woman—a kind of intangible though real presence—which may be observed profitably by us, but which can never be translated into human vernacular, nor handled even by the gloved hand of neighbory sympathy and love.

Hugh McLeod Blair was the eighth child of Morgan Blair and Mrs. Elizabeth McLeod Blair of Caldwell county. He was born September 9, 1853. He grew up on a farm in his native county, and when a young man attended Rutherford College, from which institution he graduated with the B. S. degree in 1875. Later he received the degree of A. M. from the same institution, after which he taught school for a few years. But he was destined for other tasks. Practically all his life he felt the call to the ministry. With him, as with his contemporaries in those days, the ministry was a calling entirely too high for him to enter from any choice of his own, and finally when he felt it incumbent upon him to preach he went into the work without any reservation whatsoever and gave himself wholly to it.

In the spirit of this apostolic conception of the ministry, he presented himself for admission on trial into the North Carolina Conference at its session held in the city of Statesville, November 28-December 4, 1883. Of the fifteen members of his class it is noteworthy that eight survive him as follows: J. A. Bowles and J. E. Woosley of the Western North Carolina Conference, and D. H. Tuttle, C. C. Brothers, J. B. Hurley, R. B. John, F. M. Sham-burger, and T. J. Dailey of the North Carolina Conference. Another member of the class, Rev. J. E. Underwood, like himself, has passed to his reward during this Conference year.

Brother Blair's appointments have been as follows: 1883, Wilson Circuit; 1884-5, Rowan Circuit; 1886-7-8, Farmington Circuit; 1889-90-91, Forest Hill Station, Concord; 1892-93, Mount Airy Station; 1894, Editor North Carolina Christian Advocate; 1895-96-97-98, Presiding Elder, Mount Airy District; 1899-1900, Shelby Station; 1901-1919, Editor North Carolina Christian Advocate; 1920-21, Bethel Station, Greensboro; 1922-24, superannuated.

He was ordained a deacon in Charlotte in 1885 by Bishop John C. Keener, and elder in Fayetteville in 1887 by Bishop Joseph S. Key.

It will be seen at once that he was called upon to cover a much broader field and to exercise his talents in a wider territory of interests than is the case with the average minister among us. He was twice elected a delegate to the General Conference—at Birmingham in 1906 and at Atlanta in 1918. In the Atlanta Conference he had the distinction and honor of leading his delegation, but after a few days was compelled on account of illness to yield his place to his alternate and return to his home in Greensboro. He has served on various boards and committees. At the time of his going he was a member of the Board of Trustees of Davenport College and Rutherford College.

It will be noted that the field in which he rendered the most signal service was that of religious journalism. As editor and business manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, his career was nothing short of phenomenal, when we take into consideration all that he accomplished in that capacity and the difficulties under which he did his work. He took the Advocate over when it had no resources to speak of. His predecessors had struggled along heroically, giving the church a strong paper usually at a financial loss to themselves, until the Conference took over the stock and assumed ownership and management of the same. It was in this difficult period that Brother Blair was called to the helm and his management of the affairs of the paper soon demonstrated the wisdom of his choice. By the exercise of rigid economy and rare business ability he succeeded in putting the enterprise upon a substantial basis, and in building up a constantly increasing circulation for the Conference Organ. Through his unfailing effort, and those who stood with him and have followed him, the circulation has now reached more than twenty-five thousand, one of the largest in Southern Methodism, and the physical plant has grown from nothing to its present proportions, showing a valuation of approximately $115,000, and giving our church paper the distinction of being one of the very few in the whole connection owning its own house and home.

As a climax to his long and distinguished service in this field, he stood for the unification of the two North Carolina organs in 1919, which was worked out by those in charge in a highly satisfactory manner to all concerned, resulting in the consolidation of the Raleigh Christian Advocate and the North Carolina Christian Advocate, to be published in the city of Greensboro as the joint organ of the two North Carolina Conferences. Almost contemporaneously with this consolidation he retired from the field of religious journalism and turned over the business, now grown to large dimensions, to other and younger shoulders.

It is to be doubted whether a bigger piece of constructive work has been accomplished by any one among us than was done by this modest, uncomplaining, patient, hardworking, capable man of God who wrought in this difficult and exacting field for so many years, and turned over to the church he loved so well the product of his hands to bless the hosts of Methodism after his heart had been stilled. And while we know he would be the last man to claim distinctive honors here (and we would not discount the work of others in placing our Conference organ where it is today) it will doubtless be said by members of our Board of Publication and all others who have stood with him in the struggles incident to this achievement, that it was largely his faithfulness to every constructive plan of the Board, and his fitness for carrying out difficult undertakings, that gave the whole enterprise its stamp of success, and merited for our Conference paper, as a permanent asset, the confidence and support of all loyal Methodists.

But however marked may have have been his success in the field of religious journalism, it must be remembered that he gave more than half of his ministerial career to the work of an itinerant Methodist preacher, and that in every field he rendered faithful and effective service. No interest of the Kingdom was allowed to lag through any fault of his, and he always went cheerfully to his task in the spirit of a hero, and wrought in every field to which he was sent (some of which were hard) with abandon to the things of God and devotion to the duties of the ministry. Thousands of people today in the various charges served by him join with us in acclaiming him a genuine prophet of the true God.

For several years, Brother Blair has been in declining health. Slowly but surely we have noted the ebbing away of his strength. However, until within a few months of the end, we nor he realized that his malady was necessarily fatal. Nothing is finer in the present day Acts of the Apostles than the fortitude and christian composure with which he regarded the approach of the inevitable crisis. He gave more than one ringing testimony of his readiness to go. In the last hours of waiting, when the flow of the tide tugged for days at the frail bark anchored in the harbor of departure, he remarked to a friend, while his face reflected the light of a glorious assurance, that his soul was filled with glory and with God. It was in this high mood of triumph that he entered upon the life beyond.

Brother Blair was twice married. First, in 1878 to Miss Effie Bell of Lincoln county, who passed to her reward a number of years ago. One daughter of this marriage survives—Mrs. Eva Bell Harwell of Terrell, North Carolina. In 1903 he was married a second time, to Miss Laura A. Ramseur, also of Lincoln county, who survives him.

A prince and a mighty man of God has fallen among us. Let us cherish his memory and follow his example. God rest his ashes and keep his loved ones in peace.

REV. SQUIRE MICAJAH DAVIS

Rev. S. M. Davis was born in Cleveland county, N. C., March 7, 1847. He was converted August, 1866, in the old historic Mount Harmony church, Shelby Circuit. That conversion was "clear, conscious, powerful."

His school advantages were limited to the common school of that day and one term at Yarboro Institute. It is a fact worthy of note, by the way, that not one of those men who compose the "Old Guard" of our Conference, men who have wrought so efficiently for their church and their Lord, had a collegiate education. Evidently few college men entered the ministry fifty to sixty years ago.

Brother Davis was licensed to preach in October, 1867, and joined the South Carolina Conference 1867, the session in that year being held at Morganton, N. C. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Paine at Cheraw, S. C., and elder by Bishop Pierce at Charlotte, N. C.

The following places received the services of this faithful itinerant: Darlington Circuit, 1868; Kingstree Circuit, 1869; Wadesboro Circuit, 1870; Happy Home Circuit, 1871; Pineville Circuit, 1872; was supernumerary 1873-75; Mount Airy station, 1876; Magnolia Circuit, 1877-78; Plymouth station, 1879; Washington station, 1880; Plymouth station again, 1881; Wilson Circuit, 1882; supernumerary, 1883-85; Matthews Circuit, 1886; supernumerary, 1887-90; Shelby Circuit, 1891; Mount Holly Circuit, 1892-95; Brevard Street, Charlotte, 1896; Mountain Island, 1897-1900. Since that time he has been on the roll of superannuates. The first three circuits named above had fifteen churches each. On one of these he received as salary for one year, $83.00. The highest salary he ever received was $600.

In spite of the fact that he always had hard and uninviting work, he was able to look upon "'the bright side of things" for he said that he had always had good fields of labor, that the Lord had been good to him, and so had the brethren; that he had no treasures on earth, they were all laid up in heaven. Surely a man who has been treated well by his Lord and his brethren, who has had a good place to work, and has treasures safe from rust and thieves, and who now is enjoying the reward of his labors, is supremely happy.

Brother Davis was never very strong physically, but the physical weakness of his latter years he attributed to the effect of severe attacks of fever while serving in the eastern part of this state. Notwithstanding his bodily infirmities, and trials incident to retirement from active service he was always cheerful and was never heard to complain.

Among the literary labors of this good man has been written and published several booklets and tracts and a catechism. In spite of the fact that he was no longer to deliver sermons he continued to make them till the last. It is not an uncommon thing for men to quit making sermons even before they stop preaching, but the unusual thing is for men to continue sermon-making when unable to preach.

Brother Davis was never married, yet he joined together more than a thousand couples in matrimony.

The twenty-three years of his retirement were spent in Caroleen, N. C., with his niece, Miss Mary Seay, now Mrs. J. I. Phillips. During these years he was a friend, brother, and wise councilor, to the pastors who have served here. His sweet Christian influence was felt by all who came in contact with him. Brother Davis slipped quietly and peacefully away very early in the morning of December 1, 1923. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Sharon church, Shelby Circuit, to await the final summons on the resurrection morning.

REV. JOHN CARTER MOCK

On Saturday evening, May 24, 1924, upon a day that bespoke the mating of seasons, came the hour when another of our beloved superannuates was called to lay aside the weatherbeaten temples of earthly life and to come into citizenship where the blend of spring and summer make up the unending day. John Carter Mock had lived to pass the milestone of "three score and ten" by almost a year, being close to 71. The date of his birth was April 14, 1853, and the place near Brookstown, Forsyth County. Within this span of years he had a record of 33 years service in the Christian ministry. He was therefore a veteran indeed, for he had wrought out a well ordered life. And he had kept faith and the zeal of a tested Christian soldier right through to the end. It could aptly and in truth be said of him that the arch enemy of all the righteous never had more than a minimum chance of ever turning him out of his chosen course. He followed it resolutely, having his face set toward the new Jerusalem, and with unremitting conviction he kept to his course and to the labors of his task.

It was his hard fortune to be sorely stricken and bedfast most of the time for nineteen weeks. But he bore his sufferings with patience, and held on to waning life with the same sort of tenacity that characterized his hold upon his creed of life. One of the great comforts that helped to sustain him, however, was the visits and letters of friends testifying to the fruits of his ministry and the benedictions of grace brought to them by it.

Funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. W. F. Womble, first briefly at the home, Winston-Salem, in the presence of many neighbors and friends, and then more fully at the old home church of the deceased, Brookstown. There a large company of friends were gathered to pay tribute, as were also many of the preachers from the district. Following the spoken tributes, the interment was made in the churchyard cemetery to sleep alongside the mortal forms of relatives until the call of the resurrection.

Turning to the journals of the Western North Carolina Conference we find that he became a member in 1891, at Asheville. His subsequent itinerary is given as follows: Danbury, 1891-92; Zion, and Prospect, 1893-94; Rock Springs, 1895-96; Weddington, 1907-08; Forsyth, 1899-1900; Table Rock, 1901-02; Polkton, 1903-06; Forest City, 1907-08; Kerr Street, Concord, 1909; Salisbury Circuit, 1910-11; Statesville Circuit, 1912-13; Forsyth Circuit, 1914; Olin, 1915-16; Rural Hall, 1916-17; supernumerary relation, 1919; and superannuated 1921.

He was married to Miss Martha Ann Sprinkle on March 23, 1873, who, with four daughters and two sons, survives him.

It can be said of this noble man that he was an unsparing contender for the Christian faith; that he was a tireless and faithful shepherd of his people. What he believed to be right he proclaimed without equivocation or scruple. His strong convictions, always unsusceptible to compromise, sometimes brought him into sharp disagreement with friends, and this characteristic cost him the good will of associates at times; but he never wavered in any of his beliefs nor was ever known to sacrifice a conviction to expediency. He did his duty as he saw it, and lived and died an unquestioned champion of the orthodox faith of our branch of the Christian church.

By this never faltering fealty to his high calling, and a life of militant service, has vouchsafed to himself an enduring monument; a name that is linked with the heroic history of our great church and that will be carried along in the annals of its achievements until its new history begins above.

REV. JOHN McCOLLUM PRICE

John McCollum Price, son of J. M. and Sarah McNeeley Price, was born in Sandy Ridge Township, Union County, North Carolina, December 14, 1863.

At the age of fifteen he became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on profession of faith. But in his experience the age of eighteen was fixed as the time when he was "soundly converted." This date, to him, was the religious crisis of his life and he met it by unequivocal consecration to the work of his Lord.

He was educated at the Wesley Chapel school in Union County, at the Monroe High School and at Rutherford College. At all these places he applied himself diligently to his studies and in 1886, being thoroughly convinced of a call to the ministry, he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference and appointed to Dobson Circuit. Ready always to listen to an appeal for service he volunteered, when a call was made in 1889 for preachers on the Pacific Coast and spent one year on an appointment in Oregon. Conditions there were not suited to a man of his temperament and ill health resulted in two years of cessation from the pastorate. At the Conference held in Winston-Salem in 1892 he was re-admitted and appointed to McAdenville.

On May 10, 1893, he was married to Miss Mollie E. Walker of Mecklenburg County. Through a period of nearly thirty years this good woman struggled with him through the hardships of the itinerancy. To them were born two sons: Robert McCollum, now a student in Yale Divinity School and Walker McNeely, who lives with his mother.

Following his work at McAdenville, Brother Price served these appointments: Charlotte Circuit, 1893-95; Wentworth Circuit, 1895-99; Randolph Circuit, 1899-1901; Mooresville Circuit, 1901-03; Davie Circuit, 1903-05; Monroe Circuit, 1905-06; Caldwell Circuit, 1906-07; Catawba Circuit, 1907-10; Lenoir Circuit, 1910-11; Salem, 1911-12; Dobson Circuit, 1912-13; Gold Hill, 1913-15; Kernersville, 1915-17; North Lenoir Circuit, 1917-19.

In 1919 Brother Price was superannuated but in 1920 being always anxious to do all he was capable of doing for his church, he served the Bald Creek Circuit and in 1921 was appointed Junior Preacher on the Morganton Circuit where he labored most effectively for two years. He was re-appointed to this charge at the last session of our Conference but later was transferred to the McDowell Circuit and it was here in Nebo that he was stricken with paralysis on the morning of January 17, and sinking into unconsciousness, from which he never rallied, died in the afternoon of January 18, 1924. On the preceding Sunday he preached three times and hence died as he had often expressed a hope, "In harness." Thus ended a life of bravery and devotion to the Methodist ministry, which, though oft repeated, and of common occurrence never grows old nor loses in the charm of its heroism and unfaltering faith in a holy task.

On Sunday, January 20, 1924, the funeral service was conducted at his old home church, Wesley Chapel, by Reverends Zadok Paris, T. J. Huggins, E. N. Crowder, C. C. Weaver and J. B. Craven, and his body was laid to rest in the Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

J. B. CRAVEN.

REV. JOSEPH P. REYNOLDS

Joseph P. Reynolds was born in Buncombe County, North Carolina, May 23, 1838, and died in Fincastle, Virginia, December 3, 1923. He was reared on a farm under the best of moral and religious influences and early in life established a character for deep piety which he maintained with increasing fervor through a long and useful life. He became a member of the Methodist church early in life and was a useful and consistent member until thirty-seven years old, when he received license to preach and joined the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, where he did faithful work for fourteen years. In the year 1889, on account of impaired health, he retired from the active work of the ministry, until 1896, when he took up again the work of his love and pursued it again in the Western North Carolina Conference until 1902, when he retired permanently from the active ministry, and spent the rest of his life in Sunday school and such other work in his local church as his hand found to do.

Brother Reynolds was married twice. First, to Miss Anna E. Perkins, of Cleveland, Tennessee, in 1878. Of this union there were four children. He was married the second time to Miss Sarah A. Ingle, Asheville, N. C., in 1892. His death came after a brief illness of only three days. He died as he had lived, at peace with God, and a friend of man. His body was brought to Bryson City for burial. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. L. T. Cordell assisted by Rev. Jesse Gillespie.

Brother Reynolds belonged to one of the prominent and highly respected families of Western North Carolina. He was a kind husband, a good father, a good citizen, a faithful minister, a workman who needed not to be ashamed. He rests from his labors and his works follow.

D. ATKINS.

REV. HENRY GILBRETH STAMEY

Henry Gilbreth Stamey was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina, October the 6th, 1856, and died at his home at Rutherford College, February the 14th, 1924.

Brother Stamey was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference in Greensboro in 1889, and served the following charges: Montgomery Circuit, 1890; Rockingham Circuit, 1891-93; Deep River Circuit, 1894-96; Buckhorn Circuit, 1897-1900; Cumberland Circuit, 1901-02; Montgomery Circuit, 1903-04; Nashville Circuit, 1905-06; Tar River Circuit, 1907-08.

At the end of 1908, he took the superannuate relation because of feeble health, but at the next session of the Conference he was made effective and transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, and served the South Fork Circuit the following year. At the close of this year, he took the supernumerary relation which he continued to sustain until the Annual Conference in Salisbury in 1920, when he consented to be placed in the superannuate relation, which he sustained until the end. It will be seen by the foregoing, that for only three years, did he consent to share the meagre amounts received by the Conference Claimants.

Brother Stamey was ordained deacon in November, 1891, by Bishop Galloway. He was ordained elder in December, 1893, by Bishop Duncan. He was educated in the local schools of his immediate section, and at Rutherford College during the administration of the splendid scholar and Christian gentleman, Dr. R. L. Abernethy.

On the 17th of January 1886, he was married to Miss Mollie Frances Wyatte at Sipe Springs, Texas, and she for thirty-eight years walked by his side, and shared the toils, trials, and triumphs of his itinerant life. From this union six children were born, all of whom together with the wife, remain to mourn his departure. There is every reason to be assured that our loss is his eternal gain.

The last illness of our translated comrade lasted only a little more than two weeks. All that two good physicians, a trained nurse, and loving hands could do, was done for him, but the Saviour said, "It is enough; come up higher."

Perhaps the foremost among the outstanding excellencies of Brother Stamey's character was his fervent piety. No one could converse with him long without being reminded that supreme love for God and love for his fellow men were uppermost in his life. His devotion to his family was beautiful and constant. Brother Stamey had a correct conception of values. He put first things first. When the members of the Men's Wesley Bible Class of Rutherford College, of which he was the efficient teacher, would wander from the main thoughts of the lesson of the hour, and discuss the dangers of Modernism, and the blight of skepticism, he would call them back and assert that the best way to meet such things is by a life hid with Christ in God. No one could induce him to leave the main issues and waste time with non-essentials and trivialities.

The funeral service was held in Kadesh Church, Belwood Circuit, conducted by the writer assisted by Revs. W. R. Ware, L. E. Stacy, John H. Green, and Rev. J. M. Morgan, Pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church at Fallston. Other members of the Conference present were Revs. J. T. Stover, R. A. Taylor, J. W. Bennett, and Rev. J. M. Lowder of the North Carolina Conference. The Men's Wesley Bible Class of Rutherford College had a large delegation present to do honor to the memory of their teacher. The Rutherford College quartet gave some beautiful selections of music. A large congregation was in attendance. The Junior Order took charge of the service at the grave. Farewell dear brother and comrade till we meet again in the glorious fields of light.

E. J. POE.

A. W. PLYLER.

The following, by W. A. Newell, was passed:

With the deep sense of appreciation for the splendid benefaction of Mr. James B. Duke in his gift to the country churches of North Carolina, with a genuine belief that the North Carolina Conferences have come into the kingdom for just such an hour as this when vast possibilities of service and high achievement lie out before us and with a keen feeling that these opportunities call for the most heroic and efficient leadership, be it resolved:

First: That we invite the North Carolina Conference to join us in forming a "Council of Rural Agencies" for the purpose of securing the co-operation of all the agencies now operating in behalf of the country church in order that larger and more definite results may be realized.

Second: That the "Council of Rural Agencies" shall be composed of the Chairmen and Secretaries of the Sunday School Boards, the Boards of Missions and the Boards of Church Extension, of the two Conferences, together with the President of Duke University, the head of the Department of Rural Life at Duke University, and the Chairman of the Duke Fund Commission.

Third: That the "Council of Rural Agencies" shall not interfere with the activities of the various boards in the prosecution of their work, but shall seek to correlate the work of all the agencies for more effective service.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—REPORT NO. 1

The report of Rev. W. L. Sherrill, Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Education, shows that from November last to date, $52,465.00 have been collected, also that new money to the amount of $23,552.00 has been secured, making a total for the year of $76,017.00 This money has been raised at the remarkable low cost of .062% overhead. Your Board recommends that Rev. W. L. Sherrill be reappointed as Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Education, and that from Jan. 1st to April 1st, 1926, the Christian Education Movement be given right of way in the Conference for special effort to collect pledges now due, so that as much as possible may be reported to the credit of our Conference when the General Conference meets next May. The assistance of presiding elders, pastors, collectors and subscribers is requested in order to complete this work.

The following paragraph was referred by the Conference to the Committee on Memorials:

Your Board recommends that our Conference memorialize the General Conference to consolidate the various Boards, namely: the Board of Missions, the Epworth League Board, the Sunday School Board and the Board of Education, to the end that the work now done by these various Boards may be done more efficiently and more economically. On motion, the Chairman of our Board appointed a committee to draft suitable memorial.

We recommend that this Conference be very careful lest the two-third rule in admitting men on trial be abused, also that all undergraduates be reminded that the law of our Church requires them to take their courses of study in the Correspondence School and Preacher's Institutes. We urge them by all means to complete their college education.

We urge every pastor to continue to make the Life Service appeal and keep up the Ministerial Aid Fund by gifts and bequests from our people.

It is recommended that Religious Education be fostered in tax-supported institutions and that our Conference make application to the General Board for help where it is needed in carrying on this work.

We ask you to co-operate, as far as you think wise and feasible, in the plan of holding Bible Conferences in cities.

Our Chairman, Dr. G. T. Rowe, is appointed representative of our Board to attend the annual meeting of the Methodist Educational Association.

G. T. ROWE, Chairman,
R. S. HOWIE, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—REPORT NO. 2

We learn from the report of the General Board some interesting facts which we wish to set before you.

Interest in education is greater today than at any time in the past. The Church is becoming more and more engrossed in the work of Christian Education. The past quadrennium has been the most fruitful in results, in all our history. Much, however, should and can be done during the months remaining until the General Conference toward completing the plans for the quadrennium. The last regular installment of our pledges for Christian Education falls due Nov. 1, 1925. The quota for our Conference was $1,607,300.00, the amount pledged was $733,605.00, the amount paid to Oct. 1, 1925, $226,903.23. The number of preachers admitted on trial during the year was 300. The Western North Carolina Conference heads the list with 19 received on trial. We are still, however, in great need of preachers. Let us continue to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest. We note a slight increase in the percentage of undergraduates who pass their course of study. We urge the presiding elders to take special interest in the undergraduates in their districts and so instruct them that they shall not fail. Correspondence Schools and Preacher's Institutions afford highly useful aids in the life preparation of our young preachers. Our Christian Worker's Education Aid Fund is now $150,329.96. Participating schools and colleges have already received $4,991,684.18 from the Christian Education Movement. There has also been a larger sum of money paid on Annual Conference assessments than hitherto. The amount being $501,107.99 distributed as follows:

General Conference Education	74,272.01
Theological Schools	52,939.25

As encouraging as these facts gleamed from the report of the General Board are, we bring to your attention some facts equally as interesting and encouraging pertaining to the work of our own Conference.

The Board has had before it representatives and reports from Duke University, Greensboro College, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges and Jefferson School. We have given careful attention to the problems of every one of these institutions and have done everything in our power to meet and satisfy every demand laid upon us.

Duke University, formerly Trinity College, has loomed up before us so large in its conception and so great in its prospects for the future that we find words inadequate to express either our gratitude or expectation for the future. This unparalleled movement toward higher Christian Education within our own borders was made possible by the establishment of the James B. Duke Foundation, the value of which is $40,000,000. As a result of this magnificent donation of Mr. Duke, a large building project has already been undertaken in the form of one unit, consisting of eleven new buildings, representing a cost of $4,000,000. It is gratifying to note that a larger number of students has been enrolled this fall than ever before. We feel that in Duke University, North Carolina Methodism has both a great trust and a mighty responsibility thrust into her hands.

The report from Greensboro College indicates that substantial progress has been made along all lines. An interesting item in the report indicates that close attention is given the religious life of the student body. Improvements are being made in material equipment. The enrollment of students for this year shows a gratifying increase over last year. The campaign for a $500,000 endowment has gone steadily on until the sum of $227,223 has been paid. Special mention is due the fact that $100,000 of this amount was given by Mr. B. N. Duke. We reaffirm our recommendation that the request of Greensboro College for permission to raise an endowment fund of $500,000 be granted. Davenport College had added a large number of books to her library. A continued effort has been made with gratifying results to raise funds for the erection of a much needed building. Mr. B. N. Duke, of New York, has contributed $50,000 to the endowment of Davenport.

Weaver College has a larger faculty, growing library, active alumni association, improved curriculum and is in a growing condition in all its departments.

Rutherford College reports an enrollment of 194 students, seventy-two of whom are ministerial students. During the year some marked improvements have been made in the physical equipment of this school. A gymnasium has been started and will be completed in the near future. Twenty-eight students graduated during the past year.

Jefferson School has the brightest prospect it has had in many years. The report is gratifying inasmuch as it indicates an improved financial condition.

The Board commends the work being done in the summer school for pastors at Duke University. It is hoped that interest and attendance will increase until every pastor in our state may be found enrolled at this seat of learning during its sessions.

Your Board has spread upon its Minutes a resolution pertaining to the full settlement of all action and claims against Weddington Institute. We feel the Conference will be glad to know that this matter has been settled. We hereby express our appreciation of the legal service rendered by Mr. James A. Bell, attorney, in the final settlement of these claims.

It is recommended that in view of the fact that the sustentation fund is so inadequate that every district, as some of them have already done (viz: Winston-Salem and Greensboro), create a fund to be used in aiding needy ministerial students.

E. W. Fox is recommended as a member of Board of Managers of Pastor's Summer School at Duke University, in place of Z. E. Barnhardt, deceased.

W. R. Odell, E. W. Fox and J. F. Kirk were continued as interdenominational commissioners on teaching of Bible in state institutions.

We recommend the election and confirmation of the following Trustees for our Conference schools: For Greensboro College, C. H. Ireland and John A. Young; Duke University, J. B. Sherrill, J. A. Bell, W. D. Turner and Rev. J. H. Barnhardt; Davenport College, A. G. Foard, Rev. J. H. Barnhardt and Rev. L. D. Thompson; Rutherford College, J. E. Coulter, J. M. Holland, Joe K. Kjellander, C. D. Gray, G. B. Goodson, G. F. Ivey, H. C. Morris, Rev. W. R. Ware, Rev. R. M. Hoyle and Rev. W. B. West; Weaver College, S. P. Burton, Guy Weaver, W. M. Reagan and Rev. C. M. Pickens; Jefferson School, Rev. W. E. Poovey vice Rev. Z. E. Barnhardt, deceased.

We recommend the following appointments: Dr. Plato Durham, Professor in Candler School of Theology; Dr. S. B. Turrentine, President, and Rev. W. M. Curtis, Treasurer of Greensboro College; Rev. R. M. Hauss, Professor in Rutherford College; J. A. Baldwin, President of Southern Industrial Institute; J. M. Downum, Teacher Appalachian Training School.

We recommend the following student appointments: To Boston University, A. P. Brantley; Harvard University, W. O. Goode; Chicago University, R. A. Smith; Scarritt College, George Clifton Ervin; Yale Divinity School, F. E. Hartsfield.

We recommend an assessment of $32,500 for the coming year to be apportioned as follows: Summer School for Pastors, $550; Ivey Chair, $3,000; Religious training at Duke University, $3,000; Greensboro College, $7,000; Davenport College, $4,150; Weaver College, $4,150; Rutherford College, $4,650; Jefferson School, $3,000; Sustentation Fund, $3,000.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

This Board is sharing with the other Boards and with the entire Church, the anxious burden of a depleted treasury and an open door for greater work at home and in other lands.

But to this Board comes the main responsibility of providing for the needs of this work and we suffer for the cause which is so dear, and imperative in its claim upon us.

In view of the situation which has been presented by Dr. Pinson, our Secretary, setting forth a challenging opportunity that calls for our prayerful, whole-hearted and speedy co-operation, and not forgetting that it was largely his voice and vision that aroused our Church to the realization of our dreams in the mightiest movement for Missions that our Church has ever made:

1. We recommend that our Conference get into this crusade to relieve the debt on our General Board, and further set forward our work by assuming the obligation of $60,000 to be raised the coming year.

2. That the allocation of this sum to the districts be made at this Conference through the Executive Committee of our Board.

3. That the presiding elders call a special meeting at an early date for laying the plans to secure this fund.

4. And that this be made a free will offering on the part of our people after they have been made thoroughly familiar with the real need, and that the entire membership of the Church be given an opportunity to help in this cause.

5. In order that this work may be efficiently carried out your Board has elected Charles H. Ireland director of this work in our Conference.

6. We earnestly recommend that in view of the emergency and the meeting of the General Board in December, at which time they will make appropriations, that this work be done as early after this Conference adjourns as possible.

E. K. McLARTY, Chairman,

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

The Board of Missions wishes to convey thanks to the Conference for adopting the recommendation contained in our first report. Your decision to enter into and raise our emergency fund of $60,000 has given hope to our burdened hearts and will bring relief to our hard pressed battle line in the field. The Board heartily approves the allocation of this sum to the various districts made by the Elders. Looking toward a wise economy and co-ordination of our forces we urgently request the Presiding Elders and pastors to plan and work for the consolidation of Churches in the rural territory. Our Board is co-operating with the Duke Commission and we are going to favor those charges that are unifying their energies and organizations.

Rev. R. M. Courtney is nominated by the Board as Missionary Secretary to serve in our Conference without salary. C. H. Ireland and Rev. L. D. Thompson are nominated to succeed themselves on the Board of Managers of Duke University Summer School for Preachers.

The usual special appropriation of $400 has been made to the school for preachers; also the $600 which has been our appropriation to Chapel Hill is made with the extra sum of $300 for a special worker.

The following appropriations are made for this year:

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Much time and careful consideration have been given to matters presented to this Board. The largest number of applications for aid ever submitted at one time were before us for review.

Attention is called to the fact that the funds which come into the hands of this Board for distribution are limited. This makes it impossible to grant donations or loans in large amounts on any one project.

The Presiding Elders and preachers are requested and urged to make no promise of aid on behalf of this Board. Some embarrassment has been caused in the past because the official Boards and the membership of some Churches have advised that the Board of Church Extension would give a definite sum to help meet their obligations. The Board would be very glad to carry out these promises but for two reasons: First, we do not have sufficient funds; second, it is not businesslike for parties who are not members of this Board to lead members of Churches to believe they will get aid before the applications have even been presented to the Board.

A number of applications from towns of 1,500 or less will be submitted to the Duke Fund Commission. On account of the death of Mr. J. B. Duke, it is uncertain just what amount will be available, but it is reasonably sure that the amount will be known by April 1, 1926. Applicants for aid will, therefore, understand if there should be some delay in advising them as to the final disposition of their requests for aid.

Attention is called to the following facts which should be borne in mind in making applications for aid:

1. Aid should not be asked until projects are fairly well advanced. Frequently applications are presented where the work has hardly been started. The congregation should exert every effort to raise funds for their projects before making application to the Board.

2. The Appropriation Committee of the General Board at Louisville meets twice a year—in the Spring and Fall. Prior to the dates of their meetings our Conference Board Executive Committee will meet to give consideration to applications for donations and loans to be made to the General Board only. Notice will be given of these meetings in the Advocate. Conference Board applications are only considered at the annual meeting of the Board.

3. Fire insurance should be carried on all property on which aid is requested.

4. Applications should be in the hands of the Secretary at least one week in advance of the annual meeting of our Conference Board so they can be properly tabulated. It causes considerable confusion for these applications to be handed in after the Annual Conference has convened.

Rev. A. W. Plyler is nominated to succeed himself as a member of the Duke Fund Commission.

Rev. J. S. Hiatt was elected Vice-Chairman of this Board to succeed Rev. Seymour Taylor.

Applications for aid for the following Churches were carefully considered and referred to the General Board for action: Asheboro, Lowell, Marshville, Ronda, Rockford Street (Mt. Airy), Ardmore, Maylo.

The following applications were reviewed and referred to the Duke Fund Commission for final action:

Churches—China Grove, Concord (Marion District), Forsyth Circuit, Friendship (Salisbury District), Landers Chapel (Shelby District), Sandy Plains (Charlotte District), Triplett (Statesville District), Palmyra (Mt. Airy District), Henson's Chapel (North Wilkesboro District), Avondale (Marion District), Catawba, Dallas, Marshville, Rutherford College, West Jefferson, Glenville, Spruce Pine, Blowing Rock, Gilboa (Marion District), Topton (Waynesville District), Center (Winston-Salem District), Fairview (Asheville District), Reeds (Winston-Salem District).

Parsonages—Forsyth Circuit.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

In addition to the securities amounting to $23,550.00, held by our Treasurer, the proceeds of which are paid to the Superannuates of our Conference, and the $40,000.00 Heath Fund, from which interest is paid to our Children's Home, we are pleased to report that cash to the amount of $19,350.49 and stocks and bonds for $11,750.00 have been received from Central Bank & Trust Co., as administrators of the John Wesley Higgins estate.

The Trustees have appropriated from interest, rents and Methodist Publication Co. dividends two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) for our Superannuates for the year.

After careful and prayerful consideration of all the interests which have been represented we beg to make the following recommendations:

First: That twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500.00) be paid to the Treasurer of Burnsville Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the purchase and improvements of lands for church lot, the completion and repair of the Church and parsonage for the home Church of the late John Wesley Higgins. At the request of representatives of said Church, we nominate Dr. D. Atkins as a committee to act with the local Church building committee in carrying out the plans submitted by said representatives.

Second: That the remainder of all moneys, securities or stocks which have been or may be received from said John Wesley Higgins estate shall be held as a permanent fund to be known as the Higgins Endowment Fund, and that the interest from said fund be paid to the Treasurer of our Conference Board of Education to be distributed to the educational institutions of our Conference as directed by the said Board of Education.

Third: That our Conference Trustees be authorized and empowered to convey to the agent or trustee of the creditors of the Weddington Industrial Institute our tract of land known as the Weddington tract in Mecklenburg County upon the condition that the deed for said land shall not be delivered to said agent or trustee until receipts for the satisfaction in full of all lawful claims held by any and all the creditors of said Weddington Industrial Institute shall have been delivered to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Weddington Industrial Institute.

We nominate James A. Bell as a member of the Board of Conference Trustees to succeed Rev. R. D. Sherrill, resigned.

The following officers have been re-elected for the ensuing year: D. Atkins, President; W. R. Ware, Vice-President; I. F. Craven, Secretary & Treasurer.

Attached hereto is a copy of the Treasurer's cash report for the past year.

We now have four all-time workers in the Sunday School Field for the Conference, namely, Mr. O. V. Woosley, Conference Superintendent; Miss Virginia Jenkins, Elementary Superintendent; Mr. Paul F. Evans, Superintendent of Extension Work; and Mrs. W. G. Raker, office Secretary, all of Lexington, North Carolina. We are fortunate in having these consecrated and efficient workers in the employment of our Board. They have done a splendid work during the past year, and are even better prepared now to do a more efficient work in the future.

The past year has been one of encouraging progress and development on many lines. There has been a deepening interest in the evangelism in the Sunday School and an encouraging use of a program of educational evangelism. We have had a continued advance in our Leadership Training Program, and a most encouraging growth in the interest of Religious Education. We have conducted nineteen Training Schools during the year, in which 1,655 credits have been earned. In all there has been earned during the past year 2,492 credits in our Conference. We especially commend the 144 of our pastors who have earned credits during the year, amounting to 205. We have conducted several Cokesbury Training Schools in localities where Training Schools were not practical. These Cokesbury Schools are proving a great benefit, especially in the rural districts.

The Elementary work has been steadily developing, and Children's work has increased in favor and usefulness.

Great development and progress has been made in work of Intermediate, Seniors and Young People's Work.

Wesley Bible Classes properly registered have increased in number.

Much encouraging development has been made in Home and Parent-Teachers Work.

We have adopted the Dual-Special plan for our Conferences, and have pledged our support to the Mission Fields of Europe. We urge that the pastors and Sunday School Superintendents see that the Missionary offerings from the Sunday School, including the Fourth Sunday collections, will be forwarded to our Conference Treasurer, H. A. Dunham, Asheville, N. C. It will help us with the Extension work in the Western North Carolina Conference, and at the same time help take care of the Mission Fields in Europe.

We have a great building program on at this time in our Conference, and we want to emphasize the importance of building Religious Educational buildings to take care of the needs of the Sunday School pupil, and to meet the approval of our General Sunday School Board. We have a Church architect who is ready at all times to give expert assistance, and our Board and Field workers are ready at all times to help in getting approved plans.

We want to urge the use of our own literature in the Sunday School to the exclusion of literature that is not approved by our General Board. There is no better literature, and by giving it careful study and a fair trial, no Sunday School will want to use literature other than our own.

We are emphasizing at this time Leadership Training, Church Building, Workers and District Conference, Conference-Wide Meetings, Sunday School Day Observance, Missionary Educational Training in giving of self and substance, and we cannot emphasize too strongly the placement and checking of Sunday School "Programs of Work." We wish to urge every Sunday School to obtain a "Program of Work" from our office at Lexington, N. C.

We have agreed to contribute toward the support of the North Carolina Pastor's School at Trinity College, and urge our pastors to take advantage of the courses to be given there during the summer months. We are to be given representation on the Board of Control, and recommend that Mr. O. V. Woosley be elected for a term of three years, Dr. C. C. Weaver for a term of two years, and Rev. W. H. Willis for a term of one year.

We have approximately 127,535 members enrolled in the Sunday School of the Western North Carolina Conference, which is an increase of 52 per cent during the last eight years. We are anxious to increase our membership considerably during the next year. Our task is to reach the unreached, and to discover and bring in the neglected and the lost. It is ours to see that the blessings of Christian education and training are given to all the people, and whatever is necessary to this end must be attempted.

D. E. HENDERSON, Chairman,
G. L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD REPORT

"Unless the business men of this country step into the breach and encourage our young people in matters moral, no man can say with certainty what will become of America. Wall Street today is more interested in the moral training of its young men than in any other phase of their education." Thus spoke a few days ago the personnel director of the New York Stock Exchange before a great body of business and professional leaders. If the perpetuity of our institutions and the very soul of America depend on the moral and religious training of our young men and women, then we should be quick to see that this training be given by the church which alone is qualified and in possession of adequate facilities for doing this work.

The Epworth League was organized with this purpose in mind and wherever it has been given a fair chance has more than satisfied its promoters. One of our greatest statesmen, some years ago, said, "It is easy to slam but hard to replace!" We believe as much may be said of the Epworth League.

The growth of this institution in our Conference continues steady and in some sections quite remarkable. At least two districts report the membership doubled in the past year. Membership increase, 1,532.

Your Board would respectfully but urgently submit the following recommendations:

First: That all our pastors continue to give a part of their best to the young people of their congregation by helping to organize chapters in every congregation, if possible, and that special attention be given Junior and Intermediate work.

Second: That the circulation of the Epworth League periodicals, the Era, the Intermediate Epworthian and the Junior publications be encouraged.

Third: That our pastors and Leaguers do not overlook the great Southern Assembly that is being held every summer at Lake Junaluska. This meeting should be attended by a large number of our people.

Fourth: That we continue to manifest our interest in the young life of our Church by attending and in every way possible aiding in the Annual Epworth League Conference which has grown to be the largest Church body of our Conference.

Fifth: That we seek to turn the attention of all our young men and women toward the young people's Convention to be held in Memphis during the approaching Christmas holidays. We urge pastors to see that delegates be elected from all their congregations.

Let us see that we study to understand and appreciate the heart of our young people and that we so upraise them that "Our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth and that our daughters may be as cornerstones, polished after the similitude of a palace."

G. T. BOND, President,
J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The Methodist Church looks back to a university for its beginnings, and has propagated itself through fervent evangelistic preaching and the dissemination of good literature. The pioneers of our faith went everywhere, calling sinners to repentance and distributing good books to the people. We need the ministry of good books no less today. We cannot be the Church we ought to be unless our people read wholesome literature. Happily our own publishing house is producing a volume of good reading matter that is worthy of our enthusiasm. It remains for us to earnestly bring this to the attention of the people.

Special mention needs to be made of the tracts bearing on Christian life and doctrine now furnished by our publishing house at actual cost, and to mission charges without charge. If our people were supplied with these tracts they would be held the steadier in their faith and loyalty, now that there are so many strange and erroneous doctrines abroad.

The Quarterly Review contains a wealth of material that should appeal to both the ministry and laity. To have a journal that is so sane and courageous and scholarly as the Review is a rare fortune to our Church, and we commend it to our people.

The Christian Advocate, Missionary Voice and Epworth Era, and in fact all our periodicals are admirably suited to the constituencies they seek to serve.

It is to be regretted that so good a paper as the North Carolina Christian Advocate should have suffered a loss in subscribers this year. We believe our pastors should make a real effort to place it in the homes of all our people. At the request of the Board of Publication therefore, we recommend that at the very beginning of the new Conference year each pastor appoint an Advocate agent for his pastoral charge, and send his name and address to the Advocate office in Greensboro. Our Advocate publishing company proposes to allow a liberal commission to such agents.

We respectfully request the Program Committee of our next Annual Conference to set apart Wednesday night for the anniversary of this Board.

We recommend that A. W. Plyler be appointed editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

J. E. ABERNETHY, Chairman,
OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The Family and Child Welfare

We hold that the great concern for the Church today is the bringing of family life to a vastly higher state of efficiency, in which children will be given their rights to health, to play and to education, in which growing boys and girls will be trained by their parents in ideals of honor and habits of industry; while adolescent youth will be encouraged in those desires, natural to this period of development, for a larger civic and religious life.

We believe that parents must be called back to a finer sense of this responsibility of parenthood and that there is no organization save the Church that can call them to this duty.

Our homes must take their ancient place as social centers, where that first social group, parents and children, find pleasure in companionship. We believe that fathers and mothers owe their children this sympathetic companionship and that they have no right to transfer the responsibility to the motion picture producer or any other commercial purveyor of amusement.

Motion Pictures and Bad Llterature

With all its possibilities for good, the motion picture today is a great menace to the morals of our youth and to the progress of the entire social order. Motion picture producers persist in making vice alluring and attractive and subtly demoralizing. The situation calls for an aroused and militant public sentiment and a protest from those who desire to protect the morals of the young people. We advocate federal censorship of moving picture films and federal regulation of the moving picture industry.

Many of those who sell magazines are not acquainted with their contents. We would suggest that parents would do well to examine the reading matter in the hands of their children and we would invoke any possible means to suppress the sale of such books and magazines.

We commend to local Church social service committees an investigation of the contents of magazines that are on sale in the various stores and stands in their communities, and such concerted action as will remove from sale those that are degrading.

THE USE OF LEISURE

We urge social service committees of the Churches to ally themselves with the agencies that are promoting play and play grounds and especially commend the Play Ground and Recreation Association of America, which has co-operated with North Carolina cities, under their field secretary, Dr. Willis J. Parker, Charlotte, N. C.

Divorce in the United States has increased 500 per cent in the last fifty years. Each year we have between 75,000 and 80,000 children robbed of one or both parents by disruption of the home through divorce. Forty per cent of the inmates of our reformatories and Juvenile Courts are from houses broken by separation. We advocate federal legislation that we may have uniform divorce laws, as the best means of checking the inroads that are being made on the sanctity of our family life.

Since hasty marriages are contributing to divorces we ask your support for the bill which failed of passage at the last session of our state legislature, which calls for publication of the intent to marry two weeks previous to the marriage ceremony. This bill is recommended by the American Bar Association and will be introduced again at the next session of the legislature.

PROHIBITION AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

Believing that the real fight is still ahead for enforcement of the Prohibition Law, we urge the continuance of our efforts to uphold and encourage the public officials whose duty it is to discover, arrest and conduct the trial of violators of the law. We know that powerful forces are working in subtle ways to discredit the results of prohibition and to create sentiment for repeal of the Volstead Law. We must not allow our consciences to be satisfied until law is effectively enforced. We can help by serving on juries when called, by giving verdicts in accord with the evidence and by commending the local newspapers that uphold law enforcement.

Nor must we cease to teach temperance and law observance in the schools, Sunday schools and from the pulpit.

Since the Anti-Saloon League is the special agency through which the united Churches are making the fight against the lawless liquor traffic, we pledge it our continued support.

USE OF TOBACCO

Since the tobacco habit is injurious to the youth of our land, we would discourage its use. We would suggest that the Social Service Committee of our local Churches co-operate with the Civil authorities in enforcing the law against the sale of cigarettes to minors. We urge leaders in Epworth Leagues and superintendents and teachers in Sunday Schools to teach the injurious effects of tobacco.

CHILD LABOR LEGISLATION

The General Assembly of North Carolina at its last session took no forward step in Child Labor Legislation. Those who opposed the Twentieth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States based their opposition on states rights and contended that the state would make ample provision for the protection of the children of the state. We favor the enactment of proper laws by the State of North Carolina to give that measure of protection that would have been afforded by the ratification of the proposed amendment.

SOCIAL SERVICE FOR RURAL CHURCHES

The open country presents our greatest social problem and has received the least attention at our hands. We are deeply gratified by the munificent gift of Mr. James B. Duke which was directed to rural work in our state. We urge the appointment of social service committees in every rural Church and the preparation of a proper course of study for the direction of these committees. We should be glad to see these courses of study given in our Standard Training Schools, conducted by our Sunday School Board, and credits given for the work done.

We urge this Conference to establish at least two demonstration charges composed of forward looking country Churches and that a part of the demonstration be along the line of social activities. This Board pledges its co-operation in the establishment of such charges.

CO-OPERATION WITH THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC WELFARE

From year to year we have commended to you the program of the Board. We ask your support for three projects in state welfare:

First, for the establishment of a farm colony for women prisoners, where they may work under healthful conditions.

Second, for a state reformatory to which boy criminals between the ages of 16 and 21 may be committed, separated from older criminals and trained with the hope of restoring them to society as citizens.

Third, the adoption by the state of the training school for delinquent negro girls at Efland.

This school is the project of the negro women of the state. They have sacrificed and saved and given for this object, which means to them the salvage of girls of their race. The white women of the League of Women Voters sponsored it last year, when the Colored Women's Federated Clubs offered it to the state. Owing to the program of economy it was refused by the legislature. We ask you to interest your legislators in this institution. Those of you who visit the Juvenile Courts and jails know how desperately it is needed. It is eminently a work for Christians.

MOTHERS' AID FUND

This fund is administered under the Mothers' Aid Law by state and county welfare agents working co-operatively. Last year the legislature cut the fund from $50,000 to $30,000. We urge you to help your people to realize the benefits of this law.

We know that you are in a position to interest thousands of citizens in these state agencies that are working to repair the havoc caused by broken homes. Let us make use of these months intervening before the next legislature convenes to instruct and interest Church people in this work. And then let us keep the spirit of Christ moving through these public agencies.

NEAR EAST RELIEF

We commend to our Churches continued support of the work of the Near East Relief, as the act of mercy of citizens of a rich land to a stricken people.

W. L. HUTCHINS, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

FINAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The Committee on the Superannuate Endowment Fund begs to submit its final report, as follows:

1. That it has finished its more than nine years of activities in behalf of the Superannuate Endowment Fund for the Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, and submits the results herewith as its final report to the Conference, and asks its discharge as a Committee, trusting that the Holy Spirit will continue to direct in the increase and management of this fund, and that the blessing of our Heavenly Father will rest and abide upon every one who has ministered to this cause.

2. It may not be amiss to say that the initiation of this movement was begun at the District Conference at old Harrison Church on the Pineville Circuit, Charlotte District, in July, 1916, where a resolution was offered proposing an appeal to one hundred laymen in the Conference to pledge one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each, in building and loan stock, as a beginning of an endowment fund for the superannuates of this Conference; upon the reading of this resolution, five laymen in that District Conference pledged one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each to the cause; a committee was appointed at this District Conference to present the cause to the Annual Conference to meet at Gastonia, and at this time a total of fifteen thousand ($15,000.00) dollars had been added to the pledge, but on condition that a minimum of one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars be secured; the Gastonia Conference approved the plan and appointed your committee to present the cause to the laymen of the Church. For the next year the committee acted by corresponding with picked laymen throughout the Conference with some success, and with an abiding and increasing enthusiasm for the cause. The response to the enterprise was sufficiently encouraging to warrant the Annual Conference of 1917 in appointing the late Brother J. P. Rodgers as special agent to devote his entire time to this work. Brother Rodgers entered upon the task with such zeal, enthusiasm and singleness of purpose that at the Charlotte Conference in 1918, the goal of one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars, in pledges was reached; however, upon the appointmen of Brother Rodgers as agent, the plan of receiving only pledges of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) dollars, and on the building and loan plan was abandoned, and subscriptions to any amount were accepted.

3. About this time the Centenary campaign was launched by the Church, and thereafter the success in securing new pledges was very much retarded and Brother Rodgers' time and attention was devoted more largely to the collection of the outstanding pledges rather than securing new ones, yet in spite of these difficulties, he secured pledges aggregating in number about one thousand (1,000), and in amount about $125,000.00 for the cause.

4. The Committee acknowledges its debts and owes its success largely to the labors of Brother Rodgers and would have you know that the cause was upon his heart to the end, and his life went out in this work as an expression of his love for his brethren.

5. Since the death of Brother Rodgers, the Committee has confined its efforts to the collection of the pledges, and has done its work largely by correspondence, and without expense to the Conference or to the Fund.

6. The Committee has collected in cash and in matured building and loan stock the total of $115,888.80. The Committee also holds certificates for unmatured building and loan stock to the amount of 138 shares. There are also various pledges on which partial payments have been made, and certain other pledges on which nothing has been paid and probably will never be.

7. The Committee has collected and received these funds as and for an endowment for the superannuate cause of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, and is delivering the same to the Conference as an endowment fund with, and on condition that said funds, securities and pledges shall forever be held as an endowment, and in trust for the use and benefit of the superannuates of this Conference, the corpus or principal to be preserved sacred and intact, and the interest or income only to be used and paid to the Conference claimants under such rules and regulations as the Western North Carolina Conference may adopt.

8. The Committee earnestly recommends that these funds be kept separate and distinct from all other funds of the Conference, and to that end, would suggest that this endowment fund be committed to a special committee of Trustees of the Conference, incorporated, or otherwise, under separate account, by distinct name, and that said funds in no event be used, loaned or invested temporarily or otherwise, in any other cause, branch, division, building or institution of the Conference or the Church.

9. The Committee herewith tenders and delivers to the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, for the purpose above declared, the proceeds of all sums collected by it and which are evidenced by interest bearing first mortgage bonds in the sum of $109,700.00 and in cash $6,188.80, together with certificates of unmatured building and loan stock in the sum of $13,800.00, all in form and figures as further shown on the report of J. B. Ivey, Treasurer of the Committee, attached hereto and made a part of this report; together with all notes, pledges and promises which have come into the hands of the Committee from the late Brother J. P. Rodgers, agent, or otherwise.

10. That in said account is included the sum of $5,492.33 interest collected on the cash and the matured building and loan stock since its maturity.

11. The Committee submits this, its final report, and asks that same be accepted and the Committee discharged.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

I. We rejoice in this day of large projects and high purpose in every field of human activity, that the Church of Christ is keeping pace in the onward march and massing its resources to meet the needs of the world in a religious sense, in keeping with the material development. It is with profound gratitude that we record the hearty co-operation of all our workers as indicated by the increase of our payments to the collections this fall.

2. It is with no small degree of appreciation that we maintain the splendid spirit of brotherly co-operation on the part of all of our pastors and presiding elders. So much have we been encouraged by this evidence of their help, we have been inspired to project a still further step for an enlarged program of activity and an intensified prosecution of those plans which have proven so helpful this year.

OUR EVERY MEMBER CANVAS

I. In this program lies the certainty for solving many of the financial difficulties of all our work. In the first place it affords a definite task for all our laymen, to have an active part in the work of the Church.

2. It plans for the practice of systematic giving on the part of our membership. In order that every pastor may put on this canvass we have provided free of charge the cards for the every member canvass, which cards will cost nothing more than a post card saying how many you need for your work.

At the last meeting of the General Board of Lay Activities it took advance steps for an intensified program which was four-fold in its aim.

1. A full payment of all claims upon the Church and in order to do this successfully, an increase in the use of the Every Member Canvass in every congregation.

2. A concrete Church-wide movement for Stewardship, cultivative in order to train our laymen for a proper appreciation of their obligation to the gospel and a becoming loyalty to every pledge made to the Church.

3. The use of speakers to supply vacant pulpits and mission points with a religious service every Sunday.

4. A persistent effort to bring about a revival of religion in all of our Churches in order to get all of our laymen to take an active part, and thus become personal workers for Jesus Christ.

THE METHODIST LAYMEN

One of the greatest needs on our Church has been a means of communication between the men of our Church. We have provided for this in a very efficient manner. The Methodist Layman is in our judgment the best publication gotten out by any Church for its lay membership and in order that our partners may be informed in the work we are doing, we have sent to each preacher free of cost a subscription to the Methodist Layman.

We have audited the Treasurer's book and find his accounts in proper form and balanced.

C. H. Ireland is nominated Conference Lay Leader of the Western North Carolina Conference for the coming year.

EDWIN L. BROWN, Acting Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The number of children at the Home is 188. This is 37 more than we had a year ago. This increase has been made possible by the building of the John Neal cottage, the money for which came from the endowment given by the late John Neal. We have occupied the Heath Memorial hospital and have not only found it a great convenience and benefit in taking care of the sick children but it has also made possible for us to put children in the High Point cottage to live.

The health of our children has been good in the main, though we have had two mild epidemics of colds, which have taxed the Heath Memorial hospital, but which served to demonstrate its value. Mrs. J. W. Hanes, of Winston-Salem, has recently instructed us to buy equipment for a dental room and a surgical room for minor operations and send the bill to her.

The school has had another successful year under the direction of Mr. Robert Bradshaw. It would be hard to exaggerate the improvement in the spirit and aspiration of our children since he came to us and we have occupied our new school house. We have used our high school to help establish an annual home coming for our old boys and girls. By this means we hope not only to help us keep in touch with those who leave us, but may enable us to benefit them yet more.

A farm has been purchased in Davie County for a reasonable price with the hope of reducing the cost of our milk and other items of food used at the Home. And we hope to establish there a summer camp where all our children may have a vacation under safe and happy surroundings.

We have broken ground for the Baby cottage which will further enlarge our capacity. The children of the late J. A. Gray, Sr., have authorized us to make an addition to the Gray building which will more than double its size and greatly enlarge its usefulness and supply quarters for 20 girls.

Within the next twelve months the number of children at the Children's Home will approximate two hundred and twenty-five. This increase in the number of children will necessitate a larger income for our support.

In order to supply this added amount, we would urge upon our pastors the importance of raising the ten per cent assessment without applying any of the 5th Sunday collections to that fund. We have no means of knowing how much of the 5th Sunday collection is applied to the ten per cent. We only know that the offerings from this source reach us from less than half of the Sunday Schools in the Conference.

If the Conference is to take care of the children who are dependent upon us it will be necessary for the 5th Sunday offerings to be taken in every Sunday School and kept religiously apart from the ten per cent assessment. And the amount of this offering must be increased in every charge. We are seeking to encourage individuals, Sunday School classes, and other organizations to undertake the support of individual children in order to increase our income to the point that all our Methodist children shall be properly cared for.

We recommend that J. L. Nelson, C. H. Ireland, J. A. Gray, H. C. Johnson, Rev. J. T. Mangum and Rev. T. B. Johnston, be reelected Trustees of the Children's Home for the term of six years.

T. F. MARR, President Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF HOSPITAL BOARD

We are gratified for the general growth of the Hospital idea, evidenced by the prosperity of the enterprise during the past quadrennium, despite the embarrassment of the General Board, due to the small assessment of the General Conference—only $16,016.00 received in the four years.

We have seven Hospitals operating under the control of our Church:

Wesley Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, Ga.
Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.
Methodist Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.
Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas.
Methodist Hospital, Hattiesburg, Miss.
Montgomery Hospital, Montgomery, Ala.
Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, Ky.

The new Methodist Hospital at Fort Worth, Texas, when completed will be our largest, and the Dallas Sanatarium will be little behind it.

Your Board deeply regrets the small interest manifested in our Conference in the matter of Golden Cross Societies and the amounts collected for Hospitals. While we duly appreciate the gift by the citizens of Winston-Salem of the Children's Hospital and its endowment by the bequest of the late B. D. Heath, we are convinced that this Conference should have a great Hospital within its bounds, making provision for general hospitalization, and that at least one ample building should be provided for tuberculous patients; and we earnestly recommend that we address ourselves with renewed energy to carry the resolution of this Conference two years ago to that end.

We recommend that the presiding Bishop appoint the Rev. J. T. Mangum, Conference Commissioner of Hospitals and Conference Commissioner of the Golden Cross.

H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

Among the many things contributing to the success of our Methodism is that Wesley organized classes and provided places of worship for his converts from the beginning and that this policy has been adhered to all the way down to this good day. Pioneer Methodism in America followed the immigrants west, where altars were established. When Abraham was called from the land of his nativity into a land about which he knew nothing, in this strange new land of promise, an altar was erected. Later the tabernacle was built and schools of prophets were established. The glorious age reached its height in the building of the Temple. The best building in any community should be the Temple or Church. We are therefore, justly happy to note the constant growth of our Church as indicated by the reports of the pastors through the years.

The following are the figures for the current year: Church buildings reported this year, 888; the value of Church buildings, $11,262,679; parsonages this year, 254; value of parsonages, $1,501,026; value of other Church property, $438,094; insurance carried, $3,324,802; property damaged, $3,113; collected on losses, $1,113.

The questions called at the fourth Quarterly Conference should be answered as the Discipline directs. The Trustees should see that all properties are properly insured, the deeds recorded and kept in a safe place.

When new Churches are contemplated, we would urge Building Committees to consult the General Board of Church Extension for plans. Entirely too much money is invested in buildings manifestly inadequate for the program of the Church. We believe it is better to wait, even for a considerable time, than to invest in such Churches.

We commend our several City Boards of Extension for their splendid work.

G. A. STAMPER, Chairman,
J. J. EADS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BIBLE BOARD

Your Bible Board has not been able to get a report from the Bible Society, and therefore, cannot give the information desired as to the distribution of Bibles. But we feel sure that a great work has been done by the Bible Society.

Your Board is fully convinced that the Bible cause is very vital in our work. The Holy Bible is the very heart of our Christian life. It is always safe. It is all sufficient. There is no other safe guide. We need truth and not theory. The Bible is truth. We, therefore, urge our preachers and people to do all in their power to distribute this, the greatest of all books, in the home and insist on its being read and studied with diligence and prayer.

J. M. DOWNUM, Chairman,
T. J. HOUCK, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church desires to bring to your attention several things that make us glad because we feel that God's spirit is directing and God's love is leading the Churches toward achievements of real worth in many lines of Christian Endeavor Service.

Our Epworth League is doing much for the development of the young people of the Church. The ideals of service that have come to many of the young people through it give promise that the Church leadership of the future will fall into good hands.

Our Sunday Schools as a result of constantly increasing training under the leaders, such as Brother Woosley, Miss Jenkins and many others, has brought about a wonderful change in Sunday School work that rejoices our souls. We commend to every Christian worker that the Sunday School above all things should be a school of evangelism, for unless the pupil is brought to know Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour, splendid equipment, advanced methods and more scientific teaching are vain.

Numbers of Churches and parsonages have been erected during the past year. Much money has been raised for the work of God's kingdom in the hands of our Conference and again we rejoice.

The reports of revivals held in our Churches are that many souls have been converted and prove that the church is the mighty spiritual power to heal the hurts of sin. We have a great ministry in our Conference and we believe a great gospel is being proclaimed by these faithful men of God. We feel sure our people are interested in the gospel that Wesley preached, the true gospel of Jesus Christ, in its purity and simplicity. The old time religion is not a thing of the past. The foundations of the Christian faith are sure.

We ask our preachers to preach none other than that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, very God of very God, that he was born of the Virgin Mary, that His death on Calvary was an all sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world, that through the shedding of His blood was made an atonement for every human soul who by repentance and faith accepts Him as a personal Saviour and follows Him in all sincerity of purpose.

We desire that emphasis be laid upon the doctrine of the bodily resurrection of the Lord. We want the Holy Spirit emphasized as the third person of the God-head, and not merely a beautiful influence upon the lives of men. We desire the great doctrines of our Church to be emphasized in this day of dangerous tendencies. There is no denying that the Church of God and the faith of our fathers are facing conditions that are deadly foes to spiritual life. Restlessness is in the very atmosphere of our daily lives. Constant rush and activity have taken away much that is fine from our lives today. Our homes are different. There are no longer the close relationships between parents and children in the early teen years as once existed. Parents are not as carefully training in religious things as in days of yore. We fear family altars are fewer than in days of our fathers. If the home is lax, and there are not priests who minister in those homes, the altar fires of God's Churches become heaps of dead ashes. The Church and home are in competition with paganistic materialism, rampant, in many phases of our social life. Questionable amusements are poisoning the minds of our people. Dance halls and a cheap sensationalism found in our picture shows, swimming pools, parlor bridge parties, are all foes to true spirituality. Let our preachers lay emphasis upon our book of Discipline and the rules of our Church. There should be a difference in the life of a Church member and of the man of sin. No member of the Church should be permitted to take part in the pleasures of sin without rebuke, for the believer on the Lord Jesus Christ must set up a standard for the people. We believe the Church should have a great part in helping humanity to a sweeter and better life, by ministering to the bodily and intellectual needs of the world, but the gospel that will come nearer healing the wounds of mankind is the gospel that saves from sin. Ours is a mighty task, but the grandest privilege of a human soul. Ours the task to create a hunger and a thirst in the souls of men for God. We must have the experience of close fellowship with God or we cannot bring the truth of God to the consciences of men. May God send the power of His spirit upon us that we may be equipped for this tremendous responsibility.

ASHLEY C. CHAPPELL, Chairman,
E. E. WILLIAMSON, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Only through Christ and obedience to God's word can man be saved. We are taught in the Scriptures to "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." We notice with great regret that our people are more and more desecrating the Sabbath Day. We believe that on this day a man ought to give his first and whole thought to spiritual things. A great number of people, and sad to say, many Church people, are participating in buying and selling upon this holy day. The world will never be ashamed or condemned as it should be until the Church practices obedience.

The difference between buying on Sunday a paper, cigar, cold drink, a gallon of gas and an automobile is only the price paid unless there is repentance. Calamities are sure to come upon men, cities, states or nations that are Sabbath-breakers.

The ministry of this nation can help greatly, we believe, in creating a greater reverence and love for the Sabbath, if they will earnestly urge the people to keep the Sabbath day holy.

Therefore, we recommend that the ministers of this Conference preach a sermon or more at each Church on circuits, and a sermon or series of sermons on each station on Sabbath Observance during the next year.

T. J. ROGERS, Chairman,
GEO. W. CLAY, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CHAPEL HILL METHODIST CHURCH

In selecting the contractor for the University Methodist Church, plans and specifications were sent to several responsible builders for bids. The Jewell-Riddle Co., of Sanford, submitted the low bid of $156,500.00 and was awarded the contract, after the Committee was assured that this firm was thoroughly reliable and that they did high class work.

The heating contract was awarded to Carolina Heating and Engineering Co., of Durham, for the low bid of $14,500.00, and the electrical contract was given to the Durham Public Service Co., for the sum of $3,740.00.

The work of construction began in January and has advanced satisfactorily. It is the aim of the contractors to push the work to completion by the first of the year. If the pew contract can be let and there be no delay in their manufacture and installation, the Church will be ready for Easter services, 1926.

There has been collected on subscriptions $137,229.00, and $132,-224.00 has been paid on the contracts. There are in unpaid individual notes about $30,000.00, but before all the bills can be paid it will be necessary to secure $40,000.00 in new subscriptions. The work, therefore, of taking subscriptions will have to be continued during the year.

The plan to provide the pews is to have individuals pay for one sitting each at a cost of $7.50. As there are about one thousand to be installed an opportunity is given to a large number to have a part in building this beautiful Church for University students.

Mr. James Gamble Rogers, the architect, said that it was his purpose to make this Church as perfect a work in Colonial architecture as the Harkness Quadrangle at Yale is in Gothic.

The great need for this Church has been revealed this fall by the inadequacy of the present Church to minister to the religious life of the eight hundred Methodist students at the University and its final completion must be consistently pursued.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON RELATIONS TO METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCHES

The Joint Commission representing the Conferences of the Methodist Protestant and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in North Carolina submits the following report:

For the most cordial and brotherly relations existing between these two members of the great Methodist family, we are truly grateful and would do all in our power to contribute to this fine feeling of fellowship and good will. That we may know the unity of a common task, we offer the following suggestive method of procedure in all the efforts ahead of us here in North Carolina.

1. That there might be a more general interchange of pulpits between the ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. This would be helpful to both preachers and people.

2. That there might be an interchange of the preachers in their revival work. Each would have a contribution to make to the other in revival methods and zeal in the work.

3. That in this time of enlarged interest in the country Church every effort be made to readjust the work of the two Churches in those places where the work overlaps so that no loss may result in men or money. The contribution of the Duke Foundation to the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, makes it most important that we agree for a readjustment that will be for the good of both of the Churches involved. Also, that similar effort be made to avoid crowding or overlapping where new preaching places are being established in the towns and cities.

4. We recommend that wherever there is an effort to make readjustments between our two Churches that the President of the Methodist Protestant Conference and the Presiding Elder involved be and are hereby constituted a Board of Mediation to act with the parties interested in making the readjustments.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. C. STUBBINS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF PASTOR'S SCHOOL, DUKE UNIVERSITY

The Pastor's School, June 10-24, 1925, proved to be the best yet. The courses offered and the men who were heard on the platform proved to be most satisfactory. The report submitted by Dean H. E. Spence indicated the number in attendance and the work done:

Attendance: 293.
Number undergraduates taking credit: N. C., 11; W. N. C., 14
Courses taken by undergraduates: N. C., 35; W. N. C., 70.
Courses taken by graduates: N. C., 97; W. N. C., 82.
Number graduates taking courses: N. C., 97; W. N. C., 82.
Women and others taking courses: 9 for total of 17 courses.

Totals: Attendance, 293; undergraduates taking courses, 25; undergraduate credits, 105; courses taken, 196. Total number taking courses, 136; total number courses taken, 301.

The Board of Management passed the following significant resolutions:

Resolved, That hereafter the Sunday School Boards of the two Conferences be invited to participate in the operation of the Pastor's School, both by the election of representation of the two Boards and by sharing of the expense, as the Boards of Education and the Boards of Missions have done heretofore and that we request the two Conferences to take appropriate action.

The Boards interested will note that the terms of the following have expired:

Western North Carolina Conference: In 1924—L. D. Thompson; in 1925—C. H. Ireland, Z. E. Barnhardt (deceased).

North Carolina Conference: 1925—W. W. Peele, H. M. North.

Special mention should be made of the addresses of Dr. E. Stanly Jones, Dr. Edwin Mims, Bishops McDowell and Moore. All of these were heard with sustained interest.

M. T. PLYLER, President,
W. H. WILLIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

The Committee recommends the following:

I.

Inasmuch as there are in many places, congregations of different branches of Methodism, often in hurtful competition, entailing a large unnecessary outlay in building and maintaining Churches and consequent waste of both men and money, and there being no way by which competing Churches can legally merge and preserve their respective property rights; with a possibility that the present plan for union between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, may be defeated, therefore.

Resolved: That we memorialize the next General Conference to pass an enabling act by which said competing Methodist Churches, by mutual agreement, and with the consent of their respective governing bodies, may legally unite into one corporate body and have the right to take such property, as they may be legally possessed of, into said merger. This act to be in full force and effect whenever such an enabling act shall have been duly passed by the legislative body of any other Methodist Church.

II.

Amend Chapter 2, Section 6, Paragraph 100, of the book of Discipline, so as to include the Director of Religious Education in the list of those composing the membership of the Quarterly Conference.

III.

Inasmuch as there is in different departments of the work of the Church duplication of work, in some of the General Boards, which entails unnecessary overhead expense, and in many instances breeds confusion and sometimes hurtful rivalry, therefore, we respectfully memorialize the next General Conference to so reorganize and correlate said Boards, as to secure the least possible duplication and overlapping of work and the fullest co-operation of our Churches activity.

IV.

1. To adopt a hospital policy that will command the attention of the Church at large and worthily represent it in the efforts to heal.

2. To relate the Golden Cross Enrollment to the work-calendar of the local Church, with pastor's report to Quarterly, District and Annual Conference.

3. To make such financial provision for the General Hospital Board as will enable it to promote this ministry and lead a mighty advance in hospital service.

V.

As the circumstances under which our General Rule on drunkenness or drinking spirituous liquors was written have changed and conditions so improved that there is no more a seeming necessity for such an exception as is recognized in this rule, the legalized liquor traffic being abolished and the evil outlawed, and since the leading medical authorities have abandoned the use of liquor as a medicine and declared that it has no place in materia medica, and as the exception in this rule has been by many abused, we believe that it should be so changed as to eliminate the exception, and read "Drunkenness or drinking spirituous liquors," leaving out, "unless in cases of necessity," as there are no cases of necessity. We memorialize the General Conference to make or start this change.

VI.

Change paragraph 788, line 8, of the book of Discipline so as to read: The requirements for admission on trial into the traveling connection, so far as academic training is concerned, shall be equivalent to those fixed by the Commission on Education for admission into the junior class of a standard college.

G. D. HERMAN, Chairman,
O. P. ADER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DUKE FUND COMMISSION

For ten years Mr. J. B. Duke has been contributing $25,000 annually for the work of the country Churches of North Carolina. This money has marked a new day for the Churches in many places and has furnished a new impulse for the work.

The Duke Foundation, established during the present year, with the provision that a definite amount of the annual income shall go to the work of the Church in the country, has made possible a work undreamed of a few years ago. A big job is before us and a heavy obligation is upon us. We must work to certain definite ends, a few may be mentioned:

1. The effort of the Rural Life Department of Duke University to secure a map of each county and a survey of each charge should receive the support of all.

2. The consolidation of Churches properly located in relation to consolidated rural schools; the location of parsonages in the country near these schools, when the rearrangement of charges take place; the building of adequate Churches wherever we ought to have a Church, call for wisdom and unselfish action.

3. Churches need not expect financial aid until the site and plans have been approved by competent authority. This will contribute to the building of a Church adequate and properly located.

4. A district committee along with the local committee, and also a representative of this commission, should be able to aid in securing proper location and suitable plans.

5. At the earliest possible day demonstration charges should be provided with trained leadership to show what can be done by a more intensive effort.

The Commission would once more remind all concerned that conditional pledges to Church buildings automatically expire unless the conditions are met within one year after the grant is made; provided, however, that the grant may be extended if a new application is filed with the Commission.

The term of Rev. A. W. Plyler, nominated by the Board of Church Extension, expires with 1925.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.

We beg leave to report that we have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Co., covering the period from October 1st, 1924, to October 1st, 1925.

There is insurance in force at this time $1,585,910.00

Total net losses for the year were $183.78.

We find the affairs of the Company in better condition than ever before, all accounts of the company being paid to date. The company has admitted assets of $14,572.40.

We recommend the re-election of Jno. F. Kirk as director whose term shall expire October, 1930.

E. A. COLE, President,
W. E. WEBB, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Asheville record is a model for neatness and beauty.

The Salisbury and Shelby records are also in fine form, correct and well arranged.

The Greensboro, Charlotte and Marion District records are neat and correct, but they need to secure larger and better record books.

The North Wilkesboro record is correct but bears all too many blotches.

The Statesville record is neatly written, but does not show that the local preachers had their characters passed.

The Mount Airy record is neatly kept but no mention is made of any afternoon session.

The Waynesville record is carelessly kept, part of the minutes are written with pen, part on type-writer and part with pencil.

The Winston-Salem record was not before the Committee.

We recommend:

First, That all districts purchase books large enough to record the Minutes for from 10 to 20 years.

Second, That these records be kept in some vault owned by our people, or better still, at Duke University, with the Historical papers belonging to this Conference.

C. H. TROWBRIDGE, Chairman,
A. S. RAPER, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The annual session of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference met in Broad Street Methodist Church, Statesville, N. C., on Tuesday night, October 13, 1925, J. E. Abernethy, president of the society, in the chair.

Rev. H. C. Sprinkle conducted the devotional service.

The secretary read the minutes of the previous session of the Society and the president was authorized to name a nominating committee for officers for the incoming Conference year. The following were named as the committee: W. F. Womble, C. M. Campbell and O. P. Ader.

The president introduced Walter B. West who delivered the annual address. He announced that he would discuss "Early Methodism in Lincoln County." From a Methodist standpoint, Lincoln County is one of the richest historical mines to be found in North Carolina. The paper submitted by Brother West unearthed many interesting and valuable facts in our early history.

A collection was ordered, and the amount realized was $21.63, which added to the $66.95 already in the hands of the treasurer, gives us a balance at this date of $88.58.

T. A. Sikes, of the Methodist Board of Publication, reported that Volume I, Historical Papers of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Historical Societies, is now ready, and that sufficient copies to supply those desiring them, had been brought to Statesville, and could be secured from him. It was also announced that those desiring copies after the adjournment of Conference could secure them from Rev. T. A. Sikes, Methodist Board of Publication, Greensboro, N. C., by remitting the price, one dollar per copy.

A resolution was passed, requesting the authorities of Duke University to provide suitable quarters for a museum of Methodist historical relics, for the preservation of valuable material, now in danger of being permanently lost, or destroyed.

The committee on nominations reported the following officers for the coming year, who were unanimously elected: President, Rev. J. H. Barnhardt; Vice-President, Rev. H. K. Boyer; Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. John F. Kirk; member of the Executive Committee to succeed himself, Rev. W. L. Sherrill.

The treasurer reported as follows:

Balance on hand Oct. 15, 1924	$21.09
By T. C. Hoyle, Ex. H. M. Blair, Treasurer, Nov. 19, 1924	45.86
By collection, Oct. 13, 1925	21.63
Balance	$88.58

The meeting adjourned with the benediction.

J. E. ABERNETHY, President,
JOHN F. KIRK, Secretary.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The seventeenth annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in the Sunday School room of Broad Street Methodist Church, Statesville, N. C., October 16, 1925, at two o'clock P. M. W. L. Sherrill, the President, was in the chair. After a short devotional service conducted by W. E. Poovey, the minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved, The treasurer then made his report, which showed that $6,250.00 had been paid to beneficiaries during the year, while $4,250.00 remained unpaid on a basis of $1,750.00 to each beneficiary. Amount on hand, $4,002.18.

An amendment to the constitution was introduced by W. L. Hutchins, providing for the payment of one dollar by each clerical member of the Brotherhood to a fellow member when he superannuates. On motion, the amendment was referred to a committee of five to be appointed by the chair and to report at the next annual meeting. The following was named by the chair on this committee: W. L. Dawson, C. M. Pickens, W. L. Hutchins, J. W. Moore and C. A. Wood.

Another amendment to the constitution was offered by C. M. Pickens, providing for the increase of the mortuary fee of the clerical members from three to five dollars upon the death of a member. It was ordered by motion, that the vote on this amendment shall be taken by ballot and by mail conducted by the Secretary-Treasurer. It was further ordered that this amendment must have a two-thirds vote of the entire membership in favor of it, before it can be adopted and in case of a favorable vote it shall not become effective before the next annual meeting.

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill, Vice-President, W. R. Ware; Secretary and Treasurer, C. M. Pickens.

The President named W. L. Dawson and G. D. Herman as members of the Executive Committee for the coming year.

On motion, the presiding elders were asked to bring the claims of the Brotherhood before their district stewards meetings.

The Brotherhood adjourned at 2:45.

W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

Memoirs

REV. H. L. ATKINS

Hardin Louis Atkins was born in Surry County, N. C., August 12, 1864, and died at Bandera, Texas, September 30, 1925. His parents, John Lytle and Hally Hudson Atkins dwelt in Surry, were very worthy and poor people and Hardin was their third child. In the community where they lived the Primitive Baptist Church was dominant and until he reached his teens Hardin Atkins heard but few sermons except from preachers of that sect. His parents were not religious, though his mother believed with the Baptists, while his father leaned toward the Methodists. Finally under the ministry of Dr. W. S. Creasy these people were mightily converted and joined the Methodist Church. This change in the lives of the parents made a lasting impression on this son. It was evidence of the power of Christ to save which his youthful mind readily accepted, though he lived in the shadows for a time, but finally in his eighteenth year while trying to teach a Sunday School class, his heart was strangely warmed, he was sweetly assured of his acceptance in Christ, and then joined the Church. Until he was twenty he had no school advantages, except in the short term rural schools of that time, even then his attendance was irregular, but despite all hindrances he led his classes.

He was ambitious to make a man of himself and first wanted to read law, but the Lord needed him for the ministry, he heeded the call and began to make ready by using every possible means to secure an education. He carried the mail on a country star route, worked on farm and in factory and taught short term schools to pay expenses at Dobson and Rockford where for four years he studied under capable teachers, and in June 1888 was licensed to preach. In the following November he was admitted into the North Carolina Conference at New Bern and served the following charges, all now in the Western North Carolina Conference: 1889, Reddies River Mission; 1890-93, Mount Airy Circuit; 1894, Mountain Island Station; 1895-97, Calvary, Charlotte; 1898-99, Haywood Street, Asheville; 1900-1903, First Church, Salisbury; 1904, Presiding Elder, Shelby District.

He was ordained deacon in 1890 by Bishop Keener, and elder in 1892 by Bishop Hendrix. He was married December 4, 1895 to Miss Elizabeth Whitaker of Surry County. She survives him with five children, all of whom live in Texas.

At the very beginning of his ministry he gave promise of fine service to the Church and when he preached his first sermon in his home community a friendly critic remarked: "He has humility enough and mentality enough to make a Bishop some day." When received into the Conference he asked to be sent to the hardest field and went to it joyfully. With a heart yearning for more of God's love and a mind thirsting for knowledge, he was a devout and diligent student who grew in grace and in breadth of knowledge, became a preacher of unusual force and attractiveness and a gentleman of wide and varied culture. When he went into the pulpit he was always prepared, having a firm grasp of his subject and withal seasoned it with prayer; then in his pastoral work he was faithful to his flock, but especially did he seek for the poor and distressed, and the preacher who does these things cannot fail. He was perfectly at home with the humble poor and with the cultured and refined, and recognized by all as a noble, warm hearted, saintly man, and loved as one who was brother to all men.

On the mission, circuit, station or district, wherever he preached, he measured to the highest demands and in the sixteen years of his active ministry wrought well and left lasting results for good. At the end of his first year on the Shelby District his health gave way. Tuberculosis had gripped him and he was forced to superannuate, and on advice of his physicians went to Southwest Texas in the hope that he might in that climate recover strength. For a time he seemed to improve and was able to preach both on the Bandera Circuit and Station and for several years had a monthly appointment at a nearby mission point. Then for three years he edited the Bandera Enterprise. but in 1909 was too weak to work longer and retired to a farm near the town, where he lived for sixteen years till the end.

He was the first in this section to introduce the night school for workers. In 1894 while pastor at Mountain Island he started one for the benefit of the textile workers there, the mill management furnished the hall while he and other interested friends did the teaching. Later he established like schools in Charlotte and Asheville during his pastorate in these cities and did great good among the worthy poor who had no other time for study. Six years after he began this work, schools of like nature were established in various textile communities in the Carolinas.

He never lost his love for and interest in the poor and strove diligently to help them. Like the Master he was filled with compassion for the multitude and spent his active years striving to better the material and spiritual condition of his fellows. He was a most lovable man, full of faith, humility and goodness. He possessed deep spiritual insight and presented the truth so clearly and in such simple style that the ignorant and the lettered alike hung upon his words. The Church grew wherever he ministered and the evangelistic note was always in his message so that sinners were converted under his preaching. Had he retained his health and continued active until now he would have won fame as a preacher and received the highest honors from the Church, but alas! dread disease overtook him and his hopes for a long and active ministerial career were blasted. For the last fifteen years he had lived in expectation that death would soon claim him. Racked by pain and weakened by disease, the pressing cares of his family, and the prospect of early separation, brought to him that sense of loneliness which comes with weakness and sore trial. A homesickness for the far away scenes of childhood and the friends of youth and for rest and health or heaven. But he conquered, and was not afraid, for he wrote:

"I am not so anxious about when or how the end shall come, as I am to 'endure to the end.' The long fight gets tiresome and monotonous and one feels an awful sense of isolation from all the world. More and more are people afraid of the consumptive and more does his own weakness circumscribe his associations. One wants so much to break the chains and be free. Instead, however, of being able to do so, I am like Poe's man in the story of the Pit and the Pendulum, who finds himself in a dark dungeon with only a dim ray of light above, a four square wall, without a single opening surrounds him, and then, between him and the light, he sees an immense sword swinging back and forth like a pendulum. After a while he finds that the sword is steadily approaching and the walls are closing in on him. My own situation reminds me so much of this. It is only when you recline on the arm of Him who can lift you from between the walls and above the sword and beyond the stars, that you can find any comfort. If for a moment you lose sight of Him, the heart grows faint, but the thing I am trying to do is to forget the sword and the dark walls, to care nothing about when the crash shall come, and to trust in the God who can lift us above all those things."

He wrote these words ten years ago and how much he has suffered since, no mortal can tell, but he endured with patience of faith. Four month ago he wrote:

"Have wanted to write you for this long while but have been so weak and sick. I am not able to write now but feel that I must or give it up for good. Since January 1924 I have been in bed, going down slowly but surely. I suffer much, have little company and get few letters but God never fails me. I can say but little now and may never write again. Thank God I am not afraid of His call. I have no doubt of His grace and mercy, no doubt of the immortality of the soul and of its immediate rest and association with the saints in paradise. I am sometimes amazed at my peace of mind about the future, despite my deep sense of unworthiness, which seems to increase as I approach the end."

These words from his sick chamber sound like a message from the other world. When death came there was no fear, but a calm and holy peace, and when he joined that vast company that no man can number, we may be sure that a great angel led him to a place close up to the Throne of Him whom he had so long and faithfully followed.

A little while before he died he told them to take his body back to his childhood home and bury it near the graves of his kindred, under the shadow of old Siloam Church in Surry, where he preached his first sermon and there his mortal remains were laid to rest on Sunday, October 4th, just two weeks ago, in the presence of a great congregation, after the funeral service, conducted by Rev. A. W. Plyler, who officiated at his marriage, 30 years before.

"Green be the turf above thee,
Friend of my earlier days;
None knew thee but to love thee,
None named thee but to praise."

REV. Z. E. BARNHARDT

Zeb Elonzo Barnhardt was born in Cabarrus County, N. C., May 19, 1880. He was the son of J. R. and Susan Connor Barnhardt, parents possessing that high type of religious conviction, of whom too few are left to bless the world.

Brother Barnhardt was educated at Trinity College, from which he was graduated in 1906, and in November of the same year was

1907-08, Mount Airy Circuit; 1909, Evangelist for Mt. Airy District; 1910-13, West Asheville; 1914-15, First Church, Lenoir; 1916, Spring Garden Street, Greensboro; 1917-20, Tryon Street, Charlotte; 1921-24, Centenary, Winston-Salem; 1925, Broad Street, Statesville.

In vigorous health he came to Broad Street Church, Statesville, where for five months his labors were exceedingly arduous. His heart was set on so preaching and visiting, that a great revival would come to his people in the early spring. His last work was in preparation for this long hoped for revival. That meeting was never held. To his soul-hungry congregation who shared his earnest desire for a great spiritual outpouring, there came a revival of another kind. As they tenderly ministered to their sick pastor, they received a work of grace in their hearts which spread throughout the congregation, kindling in them a great love and loyalty for their Church and a desire for service.

In his parsonage home on May 21, 1925, Zeb Barnhardt, valiant soldier of the cross, peacefully breathed his last and entered into the reward of a faithful ministry.

The funeral service was conducted from Broad Street Church, his presiding elder, Rev. D. M. Litaker and Rev. J. B. Craven, presiding elder of the Charlotte District, officiating. Fifty of his comrades from all parts of the Conference attended, marching in a body from his home to the Church. The ministers association of Statesville, the Rotary Club and the various Church organizations also attended in bodies.

The Board of Stewards constituted both the active and honorary pall bearers. Flowers of rare beauty surrounded his casket. He sleeps in the beautiful cemetery east of the city.

Mrs. Kate Wagg Barnhardt, wife of the deceased and their seven beautiful children are left to "carry on," to live up to the standard which he cherished for his family. It was his dearest ambition to personally lead each of his children to Christ. In his wife, Brother Barnhardt found a true companion and co-worker. Her deep spirituality and devotion to his interests characterized all her work.

To us who feel the loss of a comrade now promoted to higher service, he left the rich legacy of a strong and beautiful character. Zeb Barnhardt, as he was affectionately called, was a noble man in the kingdom of God. His life and his work were pitched on a high and commanding plane. As a preacher he was brave, hard working and courageous. His sermons showed much study and application, were strongly intellectual and deeply spiritual, with a pronounced evangelistic appeal. His doctrinal viewpoint was Methodist of the most orthodox type.

The Quarterly Conference of Broad Street Church appointed a committee to prepare a paper expressing the congregation's high appreciation of their pastor, which follows: "Rev. Z. E. Barnhardt, our pastor, crossed over the great divide between earth and heaven on May 21, 1925, and now rests with the saints and prophets of his God. He kept the faith of our fathers and the divine truth as revealed by the word of God. We in Quarterly Conference assembled, herewith, give expression of appreciation of his labor of love among our people and testify to his noble life. Like Enoch of old, 'he walked with God and was not, for God took him.'"

E. G. Gaither, W. T. Nicholson and W. D. Turner, Committee.

D. M. LITAKER.

REV. L. A. FALLS

Rev. Lee A. Falls was born in Double Shoals, N. C., August 19th, 1864, son of Robert and Rebecca Baxter Falls; his aged mother survives him. Theirs was a model Christian home of the old type. Bible reading, song and prayer were not neglected.

He was educated at the Kings Mountain Military School, Shelby and Rutherford College. After completing his education, he taught school for a time. He was married to Miss Alice Self Hoyle, December 30, 1886. To them were born six children, three of whom are living: Robert B. Falls, of Raleigh, N. C.; C. Gault Falls, of Los Angeles, Calif.; and Mrs. Gertrude Adams, of Norwood, N. C.

His first wife died February 19, 1920. On May 30, 1923, he was married to Miss Myrtle Lillian Baber, of Rutherford County, who survives him.

He died May 26, 1925, and was laid to rest in the cemetery at Kadesh Church, Belwood, N. C., near the home of his boyhood. The service was conducted by his presiding elder, Rev. W. A. Newell, assisted by a number of his brethren.

He joined the North Carolina Conference at its session in New Bern in 1888, and served the following charges, all within the bounds of the present Western North Carolina Conference:

During his pastorate, he builded new Churches at Brevard Street, Charlotte; Main Street, High Point; and Belmont Park, Charlotte.

He gave the Church a long service of nearly thirty-seven years, and surely no man has given more faithful or efficient service, always to the satisfaction of the people served. Possibly no form of his service was greater than that which he rendered the young people of his Church by his eleven years of service on the Epworth League Board. No man among us was more dearly loved by the people he served than Brother Falls. He served missions, circuits, and stations, and was never a misfit. He could see and meet the needs of his people in any class of work. He was a good organizer; knew how to organize his people for the best work, and knew where to stop organizing.

He was a great preacher in the best sense. He was a great station preacher and pastor, who understood the details of that particular work, knew what to do and did it.

As a man he had no superior. He believed something and knew what that something was; was ready to show where he stood and why. He stood for every good cause until it won out or lost. If the cause of truth and righteousness must go down in defeat, Lee A. Falls would have nothing better for himself than to go down with it.

For several years his health was not good. More than once he found it necessary to take treatment in the hospitals, but came out to work, and perhaps sometimes too soon. He loved to work. He suffered patiently and worked faithfully while waiting for the Master's call until he heard it in his parsonage home in Kernersville, May 26, 1925.

His work here is done, but has not Christ a place for his workmen worthy of great souls redeemed by His blood? Did he not say, "Where I am, there shall my servants be?" and there with his Lord we may expect to find our dear Brother Falls.

R. M. HOYLE

REV. OSCAR C. FORTENBERRY

Rev. Oscar C. Fortenberry was born in Cleveland County, N. C., Jan. 11th, 1885, and was, at his death, Feb. 13th, 1925, just a little more than forty years of age.

In 1897, at the age of 12, he was converted and joined the Methodist Church. On Feb. 18, 1906, he was happily married to Miss Lottie Buff. Six children God sent to bless this union. They with the widow survive.

His call to preach came somewhat late but was clear and unmistakable. It found him engaged in the mail service for the government, and with a family to support. God's call, however, was answered with a hearty, "Here am I, send me." Feeling that his educational preparation had been inadequate, he moved to Rutherford College and entered school. After a period of study there he was admitted on trial at the Conference at Charlotte in 1913.

His appointments and years of service were as follows: Wilkes Circuit, 1914; Lowell, 1915; Cherryville, 1916-17; Lincoln Circuit, 1918-21; Troutman, 1922; Lowesville, 1923-25. He was a Shelby District product, and with the exception of two years, spent his life there.

Hundreds of grateful people in Lincoln, Gaston, and Cleveland Counties remember him as a true friend and spiritual guide.

He was never strong physically. The year 1918 he planned to rest, and took a nominal appointment as Junior Preacher at Lincolnton, but early that year Brother J. P. Davis died on the Lincoln Circuit. He was not a man to turn down a call to service and back into the work he went. He not only filled the year here but the quadrennium.

The last year of his life he suffered much. Not long before his death he said to the writer, "I suffer nearly all the time." He went to his pulpit at times in such shape as most of us would have gone to bed. He preached some times in pain. At the Conference at Greensboro he suffered an attack which made it necessary for him to be carried home.

His suffering was borne without a murmur. One could but be impressed with his Christian fortitude and resignation. On his return from the hospital, after his first attack, he said to me, "I have had such fellowship with the Saviour that my illness has been a blessing and not a hardship." In it all he saw God's hand and he made no complaint. His confidence in God never faltered and his faith endured to the end.

He was specially strong as a pastor and held a strong grip on his people. Grateful parishioners said to me, "He lived the gospel he preached." His personality was attractive and his heart tender. During those two weeks of suspense, when he lay in the hospital at Charlotte, many of his members went daily to enquire of his condition and show their love and appreciation.

A faithful man of God has finished his labors and gone to his reward. His body sleeps in the little cemetery at Asbury Church on the Lincoln Circuit where he preached for four years. His pure spirit has anchored in the haven of rest.

C. S. KIRKPATRICK.

REV. LUCIUS E. STACY

Rev. L. E. Stacy, one of the honored superannuates of the Conference, passed away at his home near Fallston, Cleveland County, Oct. 3, 1925, at the advanced age of 75 years. He retired seemingly in good health, but in the night made known the fact that he was suffering. Before a physician could be secured his brave spirit crossed the great divide to rest. The call came unexpectedly, but many years ago he had committed his life to Christ, and he was ready.

Dr. Marvin H. Stacy, Dean of the Faculty of University of N. C., Hon. W. P. Stacy, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of N. C., and Hon. H. E. Stacy, of Lumberton, N. C., were his sons.

He lived to see his children take places among the honored of the State. A governor has said, "I would rather be the father of such sons, than to be the governor of the State." Besides his immediate family, there are hundreds of spiritual children in the bounds of the charges he served, who owe their success to this man of God, who helped them to catch a vision of the higher way.

Early in life in McDowell County he made the great decision, by accepting Christ as his Saviour and heeded whole heartedly the call of God to preach. Believing the call to preach was a call to prepare to preach, he entered Rutherford College where his education was completed. In 1873 he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Goldsboro, N. C., and served faithfully and in the active ranks as an itinerant preacher until 1911, when he took a supernumerary relation, owing to the condition of his health. In 1919 he was placed on the superannuate list. All his ministry was within the bounds of the present Western North Carolina Conference as follows:

Madison Circuit, 1874-77; Pineville Circuit. 1878-81; Ansonville Circuit, 1882-85; St. Johns, 1886-87; Mt. Zion, 1888; Albemarle Circuit, 1889-91; Farmington Circuit, 1892-94; Weaverville Circuit, 1895-98; Morven Circuit, 1899-1902; Waxhaw Circuit, 1903-06; Belwood Circuit, 1907-10; Randolph Circuit, 1911; Supernumerary, 1912; Shelby Circuit, 1913; Supernumerary, 1914-18; Superannuate, 1919-25.

A consecrated man once said to the writer, "When you take active work, take some older man into your confidence and tell him your problems and heartaches. It makes a friendship sacred to feel that God sent it. In 1917 I was sent to this friend, he was sent to me. He came at the time when I needed him most. There were many problems to solve during those years of service on the Belwood Circuit, but they were wisely solved, because it was my great privilege to have the association and wise counsel and advice of Brother Stacy. He was a sincere friend and loyal to every preacher who was his pastor."

He was gentle, kind and lovable and his gentle spirit was charged with true courage and wonderful energy. He was ready to defend the right at any time, regardless of the cost. He had deep convictions on every question concerning Church or State, but he studied the merits of every question through before he took a position and then he was immovable.

He possessed a warm heart and a true community spirit. He was the friend of every cause that promised to benefit the community, the State, or the kingdom of God and he enthusiastically stood for better schools, better roads, and better Churches.

Modesty, humility, considerateness were some of his qualities. Four years he served well the Belwood Charge. Later he settled at Fallston. No longer was he the preacher in charge. but a retired preacher taking gracefully the second place, where he once had led the Church, but the friend always and wise counsellor of the pastor.

He was never disturbed about the final triumph of right. He defended the right as he saw it. The cause was then committed to Him that doeth all things well. No approaching cloud disturbed his calm faith in God.

His spirit was youthful and progressive. Every movement launched by the Church had his loyal support. He read a great deal, thought deeply and was well informed on every question of the day. Seemingly in his quiet home in the country he would be lonely but the association with great characters in books helped to keep him happy in the service of Christ.

He never grew old. The record says that he was 75 years old, but he was always young in spirit. As the end grew nearer, he seemed to grow sweeter in spirit. As he approached the sunset, he could with Browning say: "Grow old along with me, the best is yet to be." His life was stainless, his record of service glorious and thousands could testify of the hallowed influence of his ministry.

The funeral service held in Central Church, Shelby, on Sunday, Oct. 4, was largely attended and was conducted by Revs. A. L. Stanford, C. S. Kirkpatrick, J. H. Green and the writer. Other members of the Conference present were, Revs. R. M. Hoyle. W. B. West, W. M. Boring, and S. M. Needham. His body rests in Sunset cemetery, Shelby, N. C.

D. W. BROWN.

REV. MARTIN THORNWELL STEELE

Rev. Martin Thornwell Steele, one of our honored superannuates who died at his home in St. Petersburg, Florida, on May 13, 1925, was a man of noble spirit with a magnetic nature which drew to him friends from all walks of life, and he had the commendable qualities of heart which not only drew but held friends, and in every congregation he served will be found those who mourn because of his death.

He was a son of John B. and Mary (Williams) Steele and born in the Waxhaw community of Lancaster County, S. C., on August 15, 1848. He came from good stock. His grandfather, Col. James Steele, came from County Autrim, Ireland, and was a devout Christian, and his mother was from the substantial Williams family of that section.

When a mere boy he ran off to join the Confederate Army and his older brother, hearing of it, had him sent home, but in 1864, when his old father was conscripted, the young son, Martin, volunteered as his father's substitute.

While his people were Presbyterians he attended the Methodist Church, which he joined when about sixteen years old. He at once became active in Church work, taught a class in Sunday School and was later made superintendent.

On April 30, 1868, he was married to Miss Haseltine Owen, daughter of Rev. W. C. Owen, who was for many years pastor of Flint Hill Baptist Church in Mecklenburg County. After his marriage he farmed for a time and taught short term public schools and being a ready speaker was in frequent demand as a public speaker.

Heeding the call to preach he moved to Rutherford College in 1882, and for four years pursued his studies there in preparation for the ministry; in 1886 was licensed to preach and in the fall of that year was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Reidsville. From that time for thirty-two years he was active in season and out of season as a useful itinerant preacher and served the following charges, all in the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference:

1887-88, McDowell Circuit; 1889-92, South Fork Circuit; 1893-95, Lincolnton; 1896-99, McAdenville; 1900-02, Waxhaw; 1903-06, Morven; 1907-8, Ansonville; 1909, North Monroe; 1910, Mooresville Circuit; 1911, Salem Station; 1912, North Monroe; 1913-14, Unionville; 1915-16, Hickory Grove; 1917-18, Stokesdale.

Failing in health he reluctantly requested the Conference at Charlotte in 1918 to grant him the superannuate relation, which he sustained until his death.

He was ordained deacon by Bishop Granberry in 1888 and Elder by Bishop Keener in 1890.

After his retirement he moved to St. Petersburg, Fla., and was as active as his health would allow, often substituting for absent and sick pastors, preaching at Deland eight weeks, when the pastor was unable to do his work.

For some months previous to the end he was very feeble but always full of faith, ready to live or die as the Lord might will.

The funeral was conducted by the St. Petersburg pastor and then the body was laid to rest in Royal Palm Cemetery in St. Petersburg. The widow and seven children survive.

Brother Steele was a born gentleman, modest in demeanor, gentle in manner, humble in spirit, sincere in heart, courageous in faith, consecrated to the work of the ministry, a preacher who loved the people and who preached a gospel which they gladly heard. His labors were fruitful in that believers were built up under his ministry, and in revival meetings his earnest and persuasive appeals reached the hearts of many who believed. He loved the Lord and loved his brethren and when the end came he left a record of service which is a rich heritage to his family and to the Church.

WILLIAM L. SHERRILL.

MRS. L. W. CRAWFORD—1851-1925

Marianna, daughter of James D. and Nancy McLeod Pullen, was born August 27, 1851, in Moore County. Her parents made their home in Raleigh where she was reared. After attending the best school in Raleigh, in 1865 she went to Louisburg College, then under the presidency of Dr. T. M. Jones, and was graduated in 1869. Then after a year at Vassar she taught for Dr. T. M. Jones for two years at his college in Warrenton. On December 12, 1872, she was married to Rev. L. W. Crawford, and with him followed the itinerant's life at Salisbury, Fayetteville, Greensboro, New Bern and Reidsville. For fifteen years she was corresponding secretary of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of our Church, and for two years assisted her husband in publishing the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Many good women there are who can give themselves to the home. Others, like Mary, meditative and spiritual, love the association with great souls, and draw their happiness from such contacts and from great books. Very few have the finished genius of being at home in all these circles. Our sister was such a rare soul.

She was a wise and devoted mother, proof of which is seen in the nobility of character shown in her children, who are serving in positions of responsibility and trust, preserving in a marked degree the godly precepts and examples set by their parents.

As great as she was in her home life, she is equally deserving of praise as the wife of a minister. During the long years of their itinerancy, she kept the home fires burning and shared with her husband in a distinguished way the great responsibility of their various parishes. She lived beyond the threescore and ten, and died young in her 75th year. With her the best was always yet to be, and her hope and enthusiasm was fresher in her last years for she never ceased to study, being a student in Columbia University at seventy, and keeping pace with the best thought of her day at all times.

During the years of her residence in Greensboro she gave practically all of her service to the Lord through the West Market Street Methodist Church. Knowing that the Park Place Church was the child of West Market, and finding herself living nearby, she deliberately made up her mind to leave the older Church, with its larger membership and more inspiring services and to serve in the church where she was needed most. But now she has joined the Church triumphant.

MRS. J. E. B. HOUSER

Miss Mary Ethel Hoover was born in Lincoln County, N. C., August 9, 1890.

She was educated in the public schools of Lincoln County and at the North Carolina College for Women.

After teaching for several years she was married to Rev. J. E. B. Houser, June 6, 1916, and proved a real help-mate to him by entering whole-heartedly into his work. She shared his sorrows and rejoiced in his triumphs.

Mrs. Houser grew to young womanhood in the Evangelical Lutheran Church but after her marriage, joined the Methodist Church and became an active and faithful member.

Her affectionate disposition, together with her intelligence and educational training, abundantly qualified her for the position she occupied and endeared her to all those who knew her.

The life of this young wife and mother was unselfishly devoted to her husband and children.

Her beautiful and useful life came to a close on January 23, 1925, when Mrs. Houser "fell on sleep."

B. WILSON.

MRS. JOHN F. KIRK

Ida James Ross was born in the city of Albemarle April 1, 1873, daughter of John O. and Mary D. Ross. She attended the public schools of Albemarle and finished her education at Asheville Female College, graduating in the class of 1895. She taught one year at Leicester and then returned to her alma mater and taught for one year while the late Bishop James Atkins was president of that institution.

When about 12 years old she joined the Methodist Church, and during all the years after was ever mindful of the vows she then assumed, and her walk with God was beautiful and inspiring.

On the 28th day of June, 1899, she became the wife of John Franklin Kirk, who was at that time principal of the school at Norwood. Brother Kirk joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1902, and Mrs. Kirk has always been to him a source of great strength and encouragement in the work of the ministry.

She died January 27, 1925, a few hours after being struck by an automobile in Greensboro, and the body was laid to rest at Albemarle.

W. F. WOMBLE.

MRS. R. G. TUTTLE

Janie Gregory Tuttle, daughter of Geo. H. and Emily Mullen Gregory, was born September 6th, 1874, in Greensboro, N. C. Early in life she became an earnest Christian and joined West Market St. Methodist Church.

On August the 20th, 1902, she married Rev. R. G. Tuttle and for twenty-three years shared the joys and sorrows and service of her husband. Rev. A. W. Plyler said of Mrs. Tuttle at the time of her death, "Having chosen to make Methodist parsonages her future dwelling place she at once devoted all the grace and charm of her delightful personality and the best energies of her life to the difficult and delicate tasks that devolve upon a minister's wife. To know how well she measured up to these exacting duties one has only to get the testimonies of the people among whom she lived and whom she served. Ask the people of Matthews, where the young wife had her first experience as keeper of a parsonage, the people of Elkin, of Albemarle, of Thomasville or wherever she lived and they will tell you of the beautiful, consecrated spirit, gentle and kind and cultured who, like her Lord, came not to be ministered unto but to minister. The people of Centenary, Greensboro, with tearful eyes delight to tell how when disease had weakened her body and pain was her constant companion, she, true to the practices of a life time, gathered about her the children and young people to teach them and prepare them for future usefulness in the kingdom of God."

As a leader of the Young People's Society, she was eminently successful. and as an expression of love and appreciation of her consecrated life, the Thomasville Young People's Missionary Society bears the name of Janie Tuttle.

On August 27, 1925, she passed peacefully into rest.

R. M. COURTNEY.

MRS. JAMES WILSON

Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, May 17th, 1925, the soul of this saintly woman gently passed to that "undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns." She was born on October 18th, 1851, in Iredell County, daughter of Wilfred and Dorcas Turner.

She was married to Rev. James Wilson October 23, 1874. This union was blessed with six children, four of whom still live.

Mrs. Wilson was converted in early womanhood and joined the M. E. Church, South, and lived a consecrated Christian life till her death. She was a faithful and loyal member of Ardmore Church. She was an active worker in the Sunday School and the Ladies' Aid Society. She was affectionate, gentle and unselfish. Because of her beautiful traits, she won the confidence, esteem and friendship of a host of acquaintances throughout the State. Every person who knew her intimately became a sincere friend. By a consistent Christian life, loving ministry, and a lending hand, she helped to thrill many sorrowing, troubled, and appreciative hearts with joy. As a wife of an itinerant preacher, as a mother and grandmother she was devoted, true and lovable. In the home she was a bright and shining light. A member of the old school, a typical Southern woman given to hospitality and kindness. We loved and admired her while she was with us, now since she has gone let us cherish her memory.

Minutes of Thirty-Seventh Session

of the

Western North Carolina Annual Conference

of the

Methodist Episcopal Church, South

Edited for he Conference by

Gastonia, North Carolina
October, 20-25, 1926

RURAL CHURCH NUMBER

The Conference held in Statesville, N. C., a year ago, adopted the following resolution:

Inasmuch as the year 1926 marks the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the first Methodist circuit in North Carolina and since it is to be the first year when the new funds from the beneficent gift of Mr. James B. Duke will be available for use in the country church buildings, it seems highly fitting that the two Annual Conferences of the state should take special notice of these facts in some suitable and uniform manner. Therefore, be it resolved:

First: That the Western North Carolina Conference unite with the North Carolina Conference in an appropriate celebration of the anniversary.

Second: That the celebration consist of setting apart the 1926 Journal of the Conference as a "Rural Church Number," and that this special number contain the data usually recorded, with an additional statistical table to include reports of each church within the bounds of the Conference.

Third: That "Rural Church Number" be printed on the cover page and that a preface be inserted within to set forth the reasons for such a number.

Fourth: That the Historical Society be requested to select some subject for the 1926 paper that will be in harmony with the celebration.

Complying with the above action of the Conference, this issue is called the Rural Church Number, and Statistical Table No. 5, found in another part of the Minutes, gives interesting facts about the Rural Churches of the Conference.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your Board has heard with pleasure the report of Rev. W. L. Sherrill, our Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Christian Education. He has been faithful and diligent in the discharge of his official duties. His report shows that more than $50,000.00 has been paid on Christian Education pledges since last Conference. He also reports $155,247.00 new money, raised during the year by our church schools.

In connection with this report, your Board adopted the following resolutions:

Our Bishops recently declared that every interest of the Church waits upon our educational institutions. Our last General Conference authorized that two months during the fall period of 1926 be set aside for the special effort to collect our Christian Education pledges, and, further, authorized that this work be completed during the calendar year of 1927, calling upon the Bishops, Presiding Elders, Pastors and Laymen to co-operate in this common task.

Therefore, it is the sense of the Board that November and December, 1926, be the months set apart for this special effort.

Second: That the Bishop be requested to urge the Presiding Elders and Pastors to give special attention to the collection of these pledges at this time and to publish in the North Carolina Christian Advocate a call to all our people to join in this effort.

Third: That the Presiding Elders be requested to write to the Pastors in the respective Districts, calling attention to the amount pledged, the amount paid to date, and urging that a tactful, business-like appeal be made to each subscriber to pay his pledge in full. We suggest that about November 5-10 would be a suitable time to send this letter. The Conference Educational Secretary will furnish the figures for each charge.

Fourth: That this cause be made prominent and especially emphasized at the District Conferences, and all other District meetings, including Laymen's meetings, and also at the Quarterly Conferences, and that whenever possible, group meetings—or mass meetings—be held specially in the interest of this movement, adopting for our slogan, "Let's finish the job!"

Fifth: This movement began as a great united connectional effort. It has produced a profound sense of the common task committed to all of our institutions of learning. We believe that this unity of effort should be preserved to the end, collecting as far as possible the pledges as originally made.

We note from the report of the General Board that our Conference has paid to October 1st, $274,631.00, which is 37% of the amount of our pledge to the Christian Education Movement.

We have had before us representatives and reports from: Duke University, Greensboro College, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges, and Jefferson School. We have given careful attention to the problems of every one of these institutions, and have done everything in our power to meet and satisfy every demand laid upon us.

The report from Duke University indicates that the great building program is moving steadily forward. Two new dormitories are now completed and have already been occupied. Two others will probably be ready for occupancy by the fifteenth of November. The heating plant has been completed for some time. The new library is nearing completion.

The formal opening of the new School of Religion will take place November the 9th, with religious services suited to the purpose of the school. This school is already in operation, having eighteen students. It is to be purely a Graduate School of Religion.

The work of graduate students is stimulated by several fellowships and scholarships, ranging in value from $200.00 to $1,000.00.

Thirty additions have been made to the teaching force.

December the 11th has been set apart as Duke University Day to commemorate the signing of the indenture creating the Duke Endowment, and to keep before us the fine example of the far-sighted philanthropy of the late Mr. James B. Duke.

The report from Greensboro College indicates continued substantial progress throughout the various departments. Special attention is given to the religious welfare of the student body. Three heads of departments have been added to the faculty. Improvements have been made in the physical equipment of the college. Enrollment of boarding students is approximately the same as last year, available dormitory space now being filled. The Endowment fund is now more than $300,000.00. We re-affirm our recommendation that the request of Greensboro College for permission to raise an endowment fund of $500,000.00 be granted. We are pleased to note that the total assets of Greensboro College amount to more than one million dollars.

The report from Davenport College shows that material improvements are being made. The new dining room has been completed, seating capacity 290. Kitchen has been equipped with large new Kelvinator. Room for Domestic Science and Art need more equipment, likewise the science laboratories. Main building has been improved since June 1st. The campus has been greatly improved. Other improvements have been made and others still need to be made. The president hopes to break even this year in the running expenses of the college.

Weaver College has launched an extensive enlargement and endowment program and is meeting with success and encouragement in the undertaking. These plans contemplate an equipment to the value of more than one-half million dollars.

Rutherford College reports that quite a sum of money has been expended for renovation of buildings in need of repairs. We recommend that a campaign to raise an endowment fund of $200,000 be authorized, and that a financial agent be employed by the college to direct this campaign.

Jefferson has been, and is making a heroic struggle for its existence, and the management is to be congratulated for the way its finances have been handled. We submit the following resolutions:

WHEREAS it appears expedient under existing conditions that Jefferson School, located at Jefferson, North Carolina, be sold and disposed of:

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Western North Carolina Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in annual conference assembled:

That the Board of Trustees of Jefferson School be, and are hereby fully authorized and empowered to sell, dispose of, and convey in fee simple by the usual and customary forms of conveyance, all the real estate, properties and holdings of whatsoever kind or description in anywise belonging or appertaining to said school, unto such purchaser and for such purchase price, and at such time and upon such terms as to said Board of Trustees, or a majority thereof, may in their discretion deem best. Hereby ratifying and confirming all that said Board of Trustees may hereafter do in respect to the sale and conveyance of said property.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Walter H. Worth, G. L. Park, and John F. Kirk be and they are hereby appointed and designated as a committee with full and complete power to act, negotiate and complete the sale of said property, hereby ratifying and confirming all that said committee may hereafter in anywise do and perform with respect to the sale and conveyance of said property.

We recommend the setting apart of the funds now in the hands of the Conference Trustees derived from the J. W. Higgins estate, as an endowment fund for Rutherford and Weaver Colleges to be equally divided between the aforesaid colleges. Said funds to be invested by the said Conference Board of Trustees and the proceeds therefrom to be paid to the treasurers of said schools, on condition that said schools shall be continued as the property of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and on the further condition that the balance of the $50,000.00 be raised and so handled as to meet the condition of Mr. B. N. Duke's offer to donate $50,000.00 to each of the aforesaid schools, as an endowment fund.

H. H. Jordan was recommended as a member of Board of Managers of N. C. Pastor's Summer School at Duke University to succeed himself.

We recommend that Prof. Horace Sisk be elected as a director of Religious Foundation at North Carolina University.

Dr. G. T. Rowe has been selected as a representative of our Conference Board of Education to attend the Methodist Educational Association which will meet in February, 1927.

Trustees for Greensboro College: F. S. Lambeth to succeed himself. Miss Nannie Lee Smith, to represent the Alumnae.

We recommend the election and confirmation of the following Trustees for our Conference Schools: for Davenport College—Rev. C. M. Campbell, J. A. Bell, F. C. Sherrill, and J. B. Craven in place of A. M. West, and F. B. Bunch in place of D. H. Warlick. For Rutherford College—Dr. T. V. Goode, Rev. D. F. Carver, Dr. T. F. Marr, G. F. Ivey, G. B. Goodson, A. Setzer, C. D. Gray, J. F. Shinn, Rev. B. Wilson, and Rev. J. T. Mangum, whose terms expire December 31, 1926. A. J. Kirby in place of J. A. Goode. For Jefferson School—Dr. H. K. Boyer, W. E. Johnson, and James Allen, whose terms expire 1926, to succeed themselves.

We recommend the following appointments: Rev. W. L. Sherrill, Conference Secretary-Treasurer Christian Education; Dr. S. B. Turrentine, President Greensboro College; Rev. W. M. Curtis, Business Manager Greensboro College; Dr. Plato T. Durham, Prof. in Candler School of Theology; Rev. P. N. Garber, Prof. Church History in Duke University; J. M. Downum, Teacher Appalachian Training School; W. A. Jenkins, President of Davenport Colloge; I. L. Roberts, Student in Duke University.

We recommend an assessment of $32,500.00 for the coming year to be apportioned as follows:

Net.	Summer School for Pastors and incidentals	$ 550.00
	Ivey Chair at Duke University	3,000.00

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

The General Conference has declared that "during the months of January and February a special missionary cultivation campaign shall be conducted throughout the whole Church in every congregation, during which each member of the Church shall be given an opportunity to make a free will offering for maintaining the General Work of the Board, which free will offering shall be over and above the missionary assessments for the year and shall not include the income from Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues; provided, that all moneys so raised shall be directed to the Board of Missions, Section of General Work."

As to the method of carrying out this campaign of cultivation and taking free will offering from our people, the General Conference declared that "the Missionary Committee shall conduct an every-member canvass in every congregation to secure a free will offering for missions," and, further, "that the goal, in this special appeal, shall be to secure at least one million dollars over and above the income from assessment, Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, for maintenance each year during the quadrennium."

Since this is now the law of our Church, the utmost co-operation becomes duty, but we do not regard our work of extending the Kingdom entirely in this light. It is also a high privilege and an opportunity in which we rejoice. The world calls for Christ as never before. The world needs Christ as never before. In no moment of history has more critical consequences hinged upon our giving Christ to the nations. In every land on earth the leaven of Bolshevistic atheism is working; it is being assiduously propagated by powerful proponents. The issue is not now between our religion and a heathen religion, a higher and a lower faith. It is between Christ and Anti-Christ, between God and an absolute atheism and all that atheism means to the world and to the future.

No discriminating Christian can look out over the world today without being stirred by the call which this dread situation brings to him. To falter now would not only be disloyalty—not only sin—but it would mean certain disaster to the whole structure of society.

Resolved, therefore, that this Annual Conference hereby pledge its hearty and energetic support to the plan outlined by the General Conference and that we enter heartily into every feature of the campaign of missionary cultivation during the months of January and February.

Resolved, second, that we accept, and agree to raise by means of an every-member canvass for a free will offering the sum of $70,000.00, as our part of the total sum asked by the General Conference for missions.

Resolved, third, that the plan of raising this amount be as follows: that the Presiding Elder be made the director in his District, using such men and methods as best suits his field; and also that the allocation of this fund be made by the Presiding Elder.

E. K. McLARTY, Chairman,
L. B. HAYES, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2.

Your Board greatly appreciates the unanimity and enthusiasm with which our Conference adopted Report No. 1, the gist of which was the January and February campaign to secure our part of the Missionary Maintenance Fund.

The Board nominates the following persons to serve as an evangelistic committee: L. B. Abernethy, M. T. Smathers, J. F. Shinn, A. L. Stanford and Mrs. C. C. Weaver.

Rev. R. M. Courtney was elected to succeed himself on the Duke Commission, and is nominated by the Board to serve as Missionary Secretary, with the distinct understanding that his election to this office does not take any of the obligation off of the Presiding Elders in the raising of the special fund during January and February.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Careful consideration has been given to all matters presented to your Board.

We are still greatly handicapped by reason of the limited funds coming into our hands for distribution, as compared with the many requests for aid.

A few matters should be called to your attention in order that your Board may be in position to act more intelligently on requests for aid and properly assign funds coming into their hands.

1. Applications should be completed in detail. We find that much needed and important information is frequently omitted.

2. Applications to be considered at the Annual meeting of the Board should be in the hands of the Secretary at least five days before Conference convenes. This will serve to avoid considerable confusion.

3. Applications to the Duke Foundation for aid should be sent direct to Rev. J. M. Ormond, Duke University, Durham, N. C., as these applications are not handled by this Board. Applications filed with this Board for aid, which should rightfully be referred to the Duke Foundation will be transferred to the Foundation.

4. It is not advisable to file applications for loans or donations with our Conference Board where projects are just being started. The funds which we have to distribute are quite limited and cannot be assigned until building projects are well advanced . Every effort, therefore, should be made locally to arrange for the financing of a project before filing application for aid with this Board.

5. Request should be made of the Architectural Department of the General Board at Louisville for assistance as to plans and types of buildings before beginning construction based on other plans.

The attention of the Conference is called to the following communication from the General Secretary of the Board of Church Extension in regard to the pitiful condition of our people and the churches in the devastated region of Florida:

> "The Appropriations Committee of the Board of Church Extension, approved a church-wide appeal to rebuild churches and parsonages destroyed by the recent storm in Florida. It is the greatest loss ever sustained by our church in one disaster. The business and the homes of the members are destroyed. They are unable to rebuild churches and parsonages as they are themselves homeless. Just as soon as we can find out the number of churches and parsonages destroyed and the amount necessary to rebuild we are to issue a church-wide appeal. The funds derived from the church-wide appeal are to be administered by the Board of Church Extension and every dollar that is paid in will serve the purpose for which it was given."

The following applications were referred to the General Board for consideration.

Churches—Bessemer, (Greensboro District); Hanes-Clemmons, Long's Chapel, Lowell, Walnut Cove, Cherryville, Glenwood, Marshville, Oak Ridge, Center (Winston-Salem District); China Grove.

Parsonages—Whittier.

The following donations were granted by this Board:

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

For several years the policy of the Commission on Budget has been, "No increase in assessments but one hundred per cent collections." A policy justified by our experience for while the percentage of collections has been decreasing in the Church as a whole, there has been a steady rise in the percentage of collections in our Conference. We believe that the best way to procure the larger income necessary to provide for our growing work of benevolence is to bring all our Churches up to paying all the collections in full.

But this policy does not provide that none of our Churches shall have increased assesments. The principle of distribution of the assessments among the Districts adopted by the Conference requires that the assessments shall be divided to the Districts in a ratio obtained by finding the proportion of the members of the whole Conference living in each District together with a likely proportion of the amount paid for the support of the ministry. It follows, therefore, that the percentage given each District will vary every year according to the growth of the Districts. The Districts grow ing faster than the average in either liberality or numbers will get an increase in their assessments.

It is this principle in operation, no doubt, which accounts for the fact that our Conference has received a larger assessment for General Conference Work. The assessments for the General Work are as follows, namely:

	Assessed	Per Cent
Missions	$40,222	37.56
Negro Work	3,020	2.82
Church Extension	9,198	8.59
Education	6,478	6.05
Theological Schools	4,026	3.76
Board of Finance	9,605	8.97
Epworth Leagues	2,356	2.20
Sunday Schools	9,595	8.96
Bishops Fund	11,308	10.56
American Bible Society	2,516	2.35
General Conference Expense	2,013	1.88
Temperance and Social Service	1,210	1.13
Federal Council	503	.47
Lay Activities	2,516	2.35
Hospitals	2,516	2.35
	$107,082	100.00

For Conference work we recommend the same assessments as last year with three changes. The increase in the size of the Conference requires $500.00 more for Conference Entertainment; the new Hospital Board will need $50.00, but the Board of Temperance and Social Service can get along with $50.00 less.

	Assessed	Per Cent
Church Extension	$10,000	6.96
Conference Claimants	35,500	24.71
Conference Expense	7,500	5.22
Conference Missions	39,000	27.15
Education	32,500	22.63
Epworth Leagues	3,000	2.09
Lay Activities	2,000	1.39
Sunday Schools	14,000	9.74
Temperance and Social Service	100	.07
Hospital Work	50	.04
	$143,650	100.00

Instead of an assessment for the Commission on Benovelences we recommend that all the Boards contribute one per cent of their receipts to supply money for the activities of this Board, should so much be needed.

We recommend that the assessments be distributed among the Districts in the following amounts and proportions:

District	Salary	Members	Total	%	Gen'l Work	Conf. Work	Total
Asheville	$ 49,318	11,364	60,682	8.63	$ 9,241	$ 12,397	$ 21,638
Charlotte	70,139	16,937	87,076	12.39	13,267	17,798	31,065
Greensboro	59,998	15,812	75,810	10.78	11,543	15,485	27,028
Marion	43,289	10,935	54,224	7.72	8,267	11,090	19,357
Mount Airy	37,504	8,482	45,986	6.54	7,003	9,395	16,398
N. Wilkesboro	18,375	5,194	23,569	3.35	3,587	4,812	8,399
Salisbury	61,667	14,011	75,678	10.76	11,522	15,457	26,979
Shelby	62,480	14,902	77,382	11.01	11,790	15,816	27,606
Statesville	58,650	15,215	73,865	10.50	11,244	15,083	26,327
Waynesville	35,974	7,883	43,857	6.24	6,682	8,964	15,646
Winston-Salem	69,405	15,570	84,975	12.08	12,936	17,353	30,289
Total	$566,799	136,305	703,104	100.00	$107,082	$143,650	$250,732

We recommend that the assessment for the Children's Home be continued to equal ten per cent of the preacher's salary for the current year.

The following amendment to the report was adopted:

Resolved, that the Commission on Budget consider and report, on the second day of the next Conference, a better basis upon which to distribute the assessments to the Districts, and that they publish their findings in the Conference organ two weeks before the next Conference.

(Signed) J. B. IVEY, Chairman,
C. A. WOOD, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET—NO. 2

The new Commission of Budget met and organized as follows: J. A. Bell, Chairman; J. F. Kirk, Vice-Chairman; C. A. Wood, Secretary.

(Signed) J. A. BELL, Chairman,
C. A. WOOD, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Your Sunday School Board rejoices in the continued and sustained growth of our Conference Sunday School work. Every phase of it is in a healthy growing condition. The field workers employed by your Board have diligently performed their tasks and rendered good account of splendid achievement this year. Your Board has re-elected them for the ensuing year. Mr. O. V. Woosley has been elected Conference Superintendent of Sunday School work for the tenth successive year. The following associate workers have been elected: Mr. Paul F. Evans, Superintendent of Extension Work; Miss Corinne Little, Superintendent of Elementary Work; and Miss Agnes Peacock, Office Secretary. Mrs. E. O. Chandley has been elected Superintendent of Wesley Class Work.

There are now more Sunday Schools and more Sunday School scholars registered than in any Conference in Southern Methodism. Ours is one of the few Conferences numbering more Sunday School scholars than Church members. The increased Sunday School enrollment in the last nine years has been a little over 52,000. Only one Conference reports more Sunday School scholars joining the Church.

Our Leadership Training work shows continued growth. During the year twenty Standard and twenty-eight Cokesbury Training Schools have been conducted in which 2,446 certificates of credit were issued. Added to these should be listed 445 credits from colleges, and 350 credits earned through home study and correspondence, making a total credit record for year of 3,261.

Some idea of the growth of our Training Program can be had from review of the record for the past seven years, the time during which our Training Schools have been functioning. This record follows:

1920-21	305
1921-22	747
1922-23	1,403
1923-24	2,407

We are particularly pleased with the growth of the Cokesbury Training record. This phase of our work is just two years old but is a most healthy youngster. There is shown a four-fold growth in this field this year over last. As is known this work is especially adapted to our country areas and is under the direction of our Extension Superintendent, Mr. Evans. Plans have been laid for an extension of this good work.

Early in the year Miss Corinne Little, a graduate student in Northwestern University, but formerly the Elementary Superintendent of the North Georgia Conference, was employed to supervise our Elementary Work. Miss Little has entered upon her duties with us with much promise.

In order to properly take care of our growing Wesley Bible Class Work we have elected as Superintendent; Mrs. E. O. Chandley, who for several years served so acceptably the Conference Wesley Bible Class Federation. It is proposed to keep more closely in touch with the great number of Methodist organized classes in order that the class and the parent Sunday School may be more mutually helpful.

We wish to commend the growing number of Sunday Schools which are observing Sunday School Day and forwarding their offerings to our Treasurer, Mr. H. A. Dunham, Asheville, N. C.

It is now mandatory on our Sunday Schools to observe each month a Missionary Day when a missionary educational program is rendered and the offering of the day is forwarded to the Treasurer of our Board to be applied to the European and Sunday School Extension Special, known as the "Dual Special." We earnestly commend this missionary cultivation to our people.

Our Board is glad to report that in the main our people are consulting competent architects in the building of their Churches. We advise our people to use the Conference Sunday School Office at Lexington, and the Church Extension office at Louisville, Ky., in securing helpful data for their Church projects.

The Sunday School "Programs of Work" are commended to our Sunday Schools as the best ways and means of systematizing their religious educational endeavor. The continued growth in the number of placements and checking of these "Programs of Work" is a matter of much satisfaction to your Board.

We wish to recommend Rev. H. G. Hardin as a member of the Board of Managers of the Pastor's School held each year at Duke University.

With the great religious educational awakening manifest in our midst we wish to call attention to the everlasting need of faith and reliance upon the Holy Spirit in our work. Without a charging of divine fervor all our good plans are futile. Your Board covets the co-operation of all our Christian forces in keeping our religious educational program safe for Christian people.

D. E. HENDERSON, Chairman,
GEO. L. HACKNEY, Trtasurer.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

The world is in commotion. Careful observers tell us that the home is breaking down—the Christian Sabbath is threatend—the Bible is being questioned—lawlessness is rampant. Many are intoxicated by the desire for pleasure, charmed by the glitter of gold and bound by the hand of greed, and the babbler is heard on every side but there is only one remedy. The hope of the race is where it always has been, namely, in the Church and the hope of the Church is in her young people.

One of the wisest men of his generation declared some years ago: "The destiny of any nation at any given time depends on the opinions of its young men under five and twenty." If this is true of a nation, it is certainly no less true of the Church!

The most potential procession the world ever saw is that procession of children and young people who at this very hour are passing before our eyes. Youth is but for a moment but it is life's most beautiful, eventful, fateful, pregnant moment. Our chance to mould youth comes but once. What is done must be done quickly. Your Board would urge upon every pastor the necessity of seizing the opportunity of the hour to save for the Church and train for service this mighty army!

The best place that has been found in Methodism for doing this work is in the Epworth League. We rejoice in its continual growth and earnestly suggest that all our pastors give some of their best effort to this work.

We call your attention to the Epworth Era, the Intermediate Epworthian, the Junior Quarterly and all the other literature on the subject and urge that this literature be circulated in all our congregations.

The work done by Rev. W. A. Barber, our Field Secretary, has been highly gratifying. Your Board has re-elected him and we ask that the Bishop appoint him to this office. The faithful work of our Annual Epworth League Conference organization which culminated in the great summer gathering at Asheville is to be commended. The Junaluska Assembly continues to offer a fine, constructive program to the young people within our bounds.

The Memphis Convention, held last mid-winter was the first of its kind ever held in the history of any Church. It will powerfully affect the Church of tomorrow.

With the poet of another time, let the whole Church, as she beholds the multitude of her young people today, cry:

"Youth! youth! how buoyant are thy hopes.
They turn like marigolds toward the sunny side!"

And when we have thus addressed them let us set ourselves to the business of helping them to sanctify their hopes and remain forever on life's sunnyside!

G. T. BOND, Chairman,
J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The Board of Christian Literature had before it the report of the Board of Publication and the quadrennial report of the Publishing Agents and Book Committee. There are facts found therein to which your committee wishes to direct your attention.

The adoption by our Publishing Agents of the name, Cokesbury Press, the greater industry shown in advertising our publications, and the increased number of very ably written books coming from the presses of our Publishing House have resulted in a volume of business totaling almost $10,000,000.00 during the last quadrennium. Our Publishing House is thus not only producing a literature worthy of our reading, but out of the profits realized through this business it is helping to finance several enterprises of the Church, and during the past quadrennium it was able to appropriate for the relief of superannuates, their widows and orphans, the sum of $220,000.00.

The Christian Advocate has had considerable increase in circulation, of which it is worthy, but it continues to be published at a financial loss.

The Quarterly Review, notwithstanding the fine quality of its contents, has suffered some loss in circulation. Genuine and sustained effort ought to be made to gain a wide circulation for these periodicals which are so essential to the cultivation of the spirit and the carrying out of the program of our church.

The Epworth Era has increased in favor and in value to its constituency.

The Missionary Voice, if it could but secure the circulation it deserves, would almost assure the success of the special effort in the interest of missions during the coming year. Our Sunday School literature is surpassed by none.

North Carolina Christian Advocate

We recommend that a vigorous campaign be launched as early as possible in the new year, beginning not later than January 15th, to secure the renewals of all those who are behind with their subscriptions and not less than 6,000 new subscribers. The fact that we are to erect a new home for the Advocate, and that we are entering upon a new quadrennium, will doubtless be an incentive to our pastors and friends to put forth a special effort to increase the circulation and thus put the paper back as the leader of all other Advocates in the Southern Church. From the report of the Business Manager we find that when our pastors can do so, and will get behind the Advocate campaign, it is easy to secure renewals and new subscriptions, and we earnestly plead for the hearty cooperation of all presiding elders and pastors, and that this Conference accept as its quota of the 6,000 new subscribers to be secured 3,450, to be divided among the Districts as follows: Asheville, 300; Charlotte, 450; Greensboro, 400; Marion, 250; Mount Airy, 200; North Wilkesboro, 150; Salisbury, 350; Shelby, 375; Statesville, 400; Waynesville, 175; Winston-Salem, 400.

If any pastor finds that he can put the campaign on prior to January 15th, he is urgently asked to do so. The number that we are asking you to apportion to each presiding elder's district is about 2½ new subscribers to each 100 members of the Church.

The Business Manager and Editor will assist in any way possible in the prosecution of this work.

The term of office of F. S. Lambeth having expired, he was nominated to succeed himself as a member of the Methodist Board of Publication, and the Conference is asked to confirm this nomination.

The Board also requests Bishop Mouzon to appoint Rev. A. W. Plyler Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, he having been re-elected to that office by the Board of Publication.

A. W. PLYLER, President,
OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

In offering the following recommendations your Board addresses you as a body of people bearing a dual responsibility, first, in this Conference as representatives of a great branch of the Church of Christ, deeply desiring to express the mind of our Lord to all men in all relations of life, and second as citizens of a rich commonwealth, daily increasing in material wealth, and which may become as great spiritually as it is destined to be economically if Christian policies shall be embodied in its statutes and carried out in its public processes.

Concerning Education: We recommend support of the movement for a longer school term. Our income warrants an eight-months school year. North Carolina's place—forty-first among the states in per capita expenditure for schools—is not a disgrace when we consider the wonderful progress made in the past twenty years, but we must look to the future and develop a public school system, commensurate with our resources. This service should be rendered impartially to every child.

Concerning Family Life: Our state makes some provision for aid to worthy mothers of dependent children, thereby keeping their families together under the helpful supervision of the county welfare officer. The present appropriation falls so far short of the need and so far short of the state's ability to render this service that we favor a bill raising the appropriation to $100,000 a year.

We recommend that the General Assembly of North Carolina be earnestly urged to amend the present divorce law and to limit the grounds for divorce to the one Scriptural cause, and that Chas. C. Weaver, A. W. Plyler and J. F. Shinn be appointed by this Conference to serve on a committee to be composed of representatives from the various religious bodies of the state to present this matter to the General Assembly at its next session, and that the same committee petition for a change in the law, so as to require publication of intent to marry, two weeks prior to the granting of license to marry inasmuch as hasty marriages contribute largely to divorce and to unhappy homes.

Scientific study of the home life of women in industry shows a great increase in the number of married women engaged in gainful toil outside their homes for the partial or the sole support of their families. In North Carolina 170,000 women are employed in gainful occupations ranging all the way from domestic service to managerial and secretarial positions. That the facts may be gained which will enable us to safeguard the health and morals of this vast number of mothers and potential mothers we favor a survey of the industrial status and the conditions surrounding these working women of our state.

Economic pressure has drafted an army of youthful laborers entering industry at the age of fourteen years. The Constitutional Amendment for the control of child labor was defeated by the various state legislatures. Many of these legislatures asserted their competence, right and determination to protect the children of their own states by laws holding as high standards as afforded by the proposed Amendment. North Carolina was one of these. Since that time our Assembly has rejected a bill to limit the hours of daily toil to eight for children under sixteen years of age. Our present law permits an eleven-hour day, and a fifty-five hour week, for any child who has reached the age of fourteen. We beg you, and all Christians, to make it clear to your representatives that you want no children under sixteen years permitted by law to work in factories, stores, or at any gainful employment at such hours, or under such conditions as you would consider harmful to your own child.

Concerning Delinquency: We favor state support for the Training School for Colored Girls at Efland, a farm colony for women prisoners, and a separate reformatory for boy criminals from the ages of sixteen to twenty-one years.

Race Relations: We ask your interest in the work for dependent, neglected and delinquent colored children directed by Lieutenant Lawrence Oxley through the Bureau for Work Among Negroes, under the supervision of the State Department of Public Welfare. Four Southern states and one Northern state have adopted this pioneer work as a model. The North Carolina Committee on Race Relations has been able to assist in promoting community committees which are doing a fine work in arousing interest in colored schools, housing, sanitation and other phases of welfare and also in uniting leaders of both races in mutual understanding and effort for community betterment. Professor W. C. Jackson of North Carolina College for Women is the chairman of this committee and will gladly co-operate with any community which desires to organize a local committee. These committees should be organized in every community having a considerable Negro population.

Use of Tobacco: We suggest that the Social Service Committees of our local Churches co-operate with the civil authorities in enforcing the law against the sale of cigarettes to minors. We urge Epworth League leaders and Sunday School superintendents and teachers to teach the injurious effects of tobacco.

Law Enforcement: The insidious propaganda that is being carried on in the press for discrediting prohibition calls for vigorous rebuttal on the part of Christian citizens. The next few years will be crucial for the maintenance of the Volstead Law. The eyes of the world are upon America, watching the outcome of National Prohibition in this Christian nation. We pledge our hearty co-operation to the Anti Saloon-League of America, as the Church in action for temperance and law enforcement, and we ask that you will give right of way in your Churches to Mr. C. A. Upchurch, our state representative of the League.

We commend all the above measures to pastors for study. If you find in them the basis for Christian treatment of the immature, the weak, the unfortunate and the sinful, we beg that you will interpret their significance to your people.

W. L. HUTCHINS, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 1

Believing in a Divinely called ministry and approving the custom of our Church of requiring our ministry to refrain from all secular employment, and as many of our ministers serve charges that cannot pay salaries sufficient to provide a margin for retirement and for support of their dependents, it is proper that those of us who have profited by their service should contribute to a fund to meet the needs of those who have ceased to labor.

We, therefore, recommend that the Board of Lay Activities be charged with the responsibility of enlarging the membership of the Conference Brotherhood of the Western North Carolina Conference and to enable them to perform this act, we recommend that the Presiding Elders be requested to add one other item to their list of questions to ask at the first Quarterly Conference—Who is appointed as the representative of the Brotherhood and when such appointment has been made to report all such names to the District Lay Leader in order that in every congregation our people may have a chance to participate in this worthy effort.

2nd. That the pastor's during the year, preferably in the early part of the year, present this claim to the people.

3rd. That the Presiding Elders at each District Conference be requested to set aside an hour in which this cause may be presented.

If this plan, as outlined, can be carried out, we believe we can promise a large increase in the membership of the Brotherhood and thus give substantial help to this worthy cause.

C. H. IRELAND, President,
A. C. DAVIS, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 2

The Lay Activities Board accepts the duties as interpreted in the advanced program of legislation enacted by our last General Conference. Realizing that a greater degree of responsibility has been placed upon the shoulders of the laity, we do not assume these responsibilities without a realization of the serious consequences that are involved in these new duties laid upon us. At the same time our loyalty to our Church causes us to embrace this opportunity for a wider field of usefulness and service in the Kingdom of our Lord and his Church.

In the largest meeting ever held of the Board of Lay Activities, every District being represented, the laymen decided that to the best of their ability as the opportunities may be given them, they would dedicate their time and effort in their endeavor to meet these obligations placed upon them, fully appreciating that their work is not to be individual, but a joint obligation in which both preachers and laymen alike will labor together to bring up in full the benevolent assessments of the Annual Conference, and to this end they have pledged their best endeavors.

Under the new constitution adopted by the General Conference at Memphis, in May, the Conference Board of Lay Activities has three definite and well defined duties, to wit: the promotion of Christian Stewardship, the Wesley Brotherhood, and the full payment of the benevolences.

(1) Christian Stewardship: We recognize that leadership in this important field entails upon us a solemn responsibility. We must, first of all, be Christian Stewards ourselves. The Conference, District, Associate District, Charge and Church Leaders should set a worthy example in this regard. Then we must be organizers and propagandists. We must study to show ourselves approved unto God, workman that need not be ashamed. Our primary and immediate stewardship objectives, therefore, are the organization of Christian Stewardship Committees in each local Church and the training of these committees and other church officials and members in Stewardship principles and practice. As members of the Conference Board we would dedicate ourselves to this holy task and urge all Charge and Church Leaders to join heart and hand with their Presiding Elders and pastors in the fulfillment of these objectives, and thus lay broad and deep the foundation for a great Stewardship Church.

(2) Wesley Brotherhood: The Wesley Brotherhood is the duly authorized organization of the men of our church for the promotion of "fellowship, personal evangelism and all phases of men's work." The growth of this organization for the past eighteen months indicates that it has passed the experimental stage. We are fully persuaded that the Brotherhood movement is a coming and providential movement in Christendom, and that in the Wesley Brotherhood the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has an opportunity for marsahlling men and promoting brotherhood that is second to no denomination in the world.

(3) Benevolences: According to the provisions of the new legislation the General Board of Lay Activities is charged with the promotion of an every-member canvass throughout the Church in behalf of all benevolent claims, in which effort it shall have the co-operation of all the general agencies of the Church, and to quote from the new constitution—"The Conference Board, together with the Bishop in charge, shall be responsible for promoting this canvass in the Annual Conference and shall have the co-operation of the other Conference Boards." In harmony with these provisions your Conference Board of Lay Activities, after due consideration and conference with the presidents of other Conference Boards, make the following recommendations looking toward the full payment of all benevolent assessments the coming Conference year:

(a) That as soon as convenient after the session of the Annual Conference a meeting of the Bishop, Presiding Elders, Conference Board of Lay Activities and the Commission on Benevolences be held to make definite plans for promoting the full payment of the benevolent assessments.

(b) That the every-member canvass to secure the benevolences be made as early in the year as practical, and in this connection we call attention to the fact that May 1st has been fixed as the time when the entire Church is expected to complete the canvass, at which time every Church, Charge, District and Conference shall report the result. Your Conference Board offers to furnish free the necessary pledge cards for this purpose and will send same postage paid upon receipt of request to Charles H. Ireland, Greensboro, N. C.

We desire to express our genuine interest in, and pledge our co-operation in behalf of, the special effort to secure funds to meet the needs of our expanding missionary program, the completion of the Christian Education Movement and the raising of the remainder of Superannuate Endowment Fund.

By the action of the General Conference the Methodist Layman is now recognized as the official organ of the General Board of Lay Activities and the Wesley Brotherhood, and the Conference, District, Circuit and Church Lay Leaders are made responsible for its circulation. We believe that this magazine is the strongest and most effective agency we now have in promoting lay activities and carrying forward the whole program of the Church, and we will appreciate the influence and help of our Presiding Elders and pastors in extending its circulation.

We nominate Charles H. Ireland as Conference Lay Leader for the ensuing year.

We recommend that in the selection of District, Charge and Church Lay Leaders due consideration be given to the selection of only those men who are spiritual and who will agree to perform the duties assigned to them.

C. H. IRELAND, Chairman,
A. C. DAVIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

We make grateful acknowledgement to God for another year of progress at The Children's Home. Again we can report that there has not been a death in our midst. While there have been a few cases of serious illness and quite an extensive epidemic of German measles, as a whole the health of our children has been good.

The number of our children has grown from 188 to 209 since the last Conference. But the number of applications in behalf of children increases even faster than does our room. Although application is made to us to take a great many children who should not be sent to an orphanage because other arrangements can be made for them, it is nevertheless true that we are not keeping up with the real needs of the children of our Conference. We must come to the vision of a home for every child of the Church, and then see to it that it is made a reality.

We have just finished and occupied a cottage for babies of two years old at a cost of more than $30,000. This cottage is the gift of a citizen of Winston-Salem who does not wish his name published. And we have just begun the erection of a cottage for little boys, the gift of Mrs. J. W. Hanes of Winston-Salem. Each of these buildings will house twenty children.

Mrs. Hanes has given us a dental outfit and surgical room equipment for Heath Memorial Hospital at a cost of nearly $2,000. Mr. A. E. Smith, Mt. Airy, N. C., has given us a concrete drive and a handsome stone entrance to our grounds. Mr. J. K. Norfleet, Winston-Salem is giving us a chain link fence to enclose the Baby cottage yard. From the Duke Endowment we have received nearly $2,400, which has been applied to our school work, providing a teacher of science and agriculture.

There has been some apprehension among orphanage men lest the munificent provision of Mr. Duke for the orphans of the Carolinas should create an impression among the people that it is no longer necessary for them to give to this good cause. But we have not shared this belief. Our people have shown no disposition to let up in their care for our work. In fact, our income from the Churches has been larger this year than ever before.

Our school continues to grow in efficiency, and as our population increases it grows in size. We think that our children are happier and more contented, and are giving themselves more earnestly to the task of getting ready for a place of service in the world.

While the work our Home is doing may never dazzle us by its size and glitter, it is a work which tells more and more as the years go by. To those of us who are engaged in it, the task of rescuing children and training them for a place in the Kingdom of God appears to be the supreme work. One little boy who came to us had never heard of God, and had no idea of prayer, told his matron how his mother had nothing to eat for herself or for him, and how the water had been cut off and they had then nothing to drink. And he told of how his mother went through his father's pockets, hoping to find money, but found a bottle instead, and he said his mother drank part of it and gave him some. He is still an active, impulsive, mischievous little fellow, but a month or two ago he offered himself for Church membership of his own notion, saying he wanted to be good. The best investment we ever maké of our money is the money invested in the children.

We recommend that Fred N. Tate be re-elected a Trustee of the Children's Home for a term of five years. Also that Richard G. Stockton be elected Trustee to succeed H. C. Johnson, resigned, his term to expire November, 1931. And that Robert M. Courtney be elected Trustee to succeed N. R. Richardson, deceased, his term to expire November, 1929.

T. F. MARR, President.

REPORT OF HOSPITAL BOARD

Dr. Frank W. Brandon, Associate Secretary, of the General Hospital Board, was with us and rendered signal service to our deliberations. We rejoice in the hospitals of our Church already established and operating in St. Louis, Atlanta, Memphis, Hattiesburg, Houston, Lexington, and Montgomery; and the Connectional Hospital at Tuscon, Arizona. The success of these hospitals under many difficulties proves two things: That God wants the Methodist Church to minister to the suffering, and that our people wish to be ministered to by Protestant Christian hands in their suffering.

It is the judgment of your Board that now is the opportune time for the Western North Carolina Conference to lay foundations for participation in the benefactions of philanthropists in ministering to suffering humanity. We believe that the time is here when we should profit by the wonderful advantages graciously given us by God in providing Methodist hospital facilities in the Western North Carolina Conference.

We therefore recommend that this Conference appoint the following committee of three: Mr. W. H. Webster, Chairman; Dr. T. A. Hathcock, and the Rev. H. K. Boyer, D. D., and authorize said committee carefully to review all prospects for Methodist hospitalization within the bounds of our Conference; and that this committee be requested to assemble all necessary information and receive and formulate any definite proposition, and bring their find ings and recommendations to the next session of our Conference.

We respectfully call attention to the legislation embodied in the new Discipline, Sec. 2, Chapter 18, with reference to the Golden Cross enrollment. And we urge every pastor among us to observe the law by making the enrollment at the specified time—second and third Sundays in May.

Pending the acquirement of a hospital within our borders, which we sincerely hope will not be long deferred, we recommend that proceeds of the Golden Cross enrollment be directed to charity work at Tuscon, the only hospital for which we at present share responsibility, it being the property of the whole Church.

We hereby request of the Commission on Budget the appropriation of $250.00, or such part thereof as may be needed by the Executive Secretary and Golden Cross Director.

We respectfully recommend the following appointments: Rev. J. T. Mangum, Executive Secretary Hospital Board and Golden Cross Director for the Conference; and Rev. L. W. Colson, Chaplain Oteen Hospital No. 60, U. S. Veterans' Bureau.

Respectfully submitted,

H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

We, your Commission, composed of the chairmen of the various Conference Boards, appointed as auxiliary to the General Commission on Benevolences to co-operate with the General and Conference Boards of Lay Activities in the promotion of Christian Stewardship and the full payment of the assessments for all the benevolent claims, beg leave to report as follows:

1. We rejoice in the opportunity afforded in this Commission for closer fellowship and more intimate and sympathetic relations among the different Conference Boards. The work of the Kingdom is one work, and the purpose of all the interests represented by all our Boards is one and the same, namely, the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

2. We recognize the wisdom and timeliness of the action of the General Conference in providing for the correlation of all the educational and administrative agencies of the Church in a great program of stewardship cultivation, as outlined in Paragraph 561. We believe that we have no more fundamental need in our Church today than the training of our people in the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship. Our hope of stemming the tide of materialism that is threatening our civilization, of safeguarding our membership against the deadly curse of covetousness, and of financing our regular work and succeeding in all our forward movements in behalf of our special interests lies in such training. We join heartily with the Board of Lay Activities in urging that a Christian Stewardship Committee be organized and an earnest, persistent effort be put forth to educate our people in Christian Stewardship in all our Churches.

3. We deplore the great loss to our General Conference Boards and the work of the Kingdom the past quadrennium through the low percentage of payment on the benevolent assessments. While we note with pleasure that the record of our own Conference in this regard is considerably above the average, yet we would not be satisfied with less than 100% payment of these sacred claims. The most imperative financial matter before us as a Church is that we bring up this base line of our work. We would urge that the Conference set a worthy standard for the entire Connection the first year of the new quadrennium by paying the benevolences in full. To this end we recommend that the every member canvass to provide for these interests be made in every charge as early in the Conference year as possible. We would call attention to the fact that May 1st has been fixed by the General Commission on Benevolences as the date for a Church-wide check-up, at which time every Church, Charge, District, and Conference shall report the results of the canvass. On behalf of our respective Boards we pledge to the Board of Lay Activities and our Presiding Elders our hearty co-operation in the program to educate our people on the benevolences and secure 100% on the assessments for their interests.

Respectfully submitted,

DR. W. C. HOUSTON, Chairman,
G. T. BOND, Secretary.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Your Committee takes pleasure in commending the splendid Church building activity that has been general throughout the Conference this year.

We heartily recommend the providing of building facilities for more thorough religious educational work among our people. We urge that when any remodeling or new building is to be done that the building committees consult with the Architectural Department of our General Board of Church Extension.

We recommend the improvement of all our buildings and grounds to the extent that they at least will be in keeping with the communities in which they are located. Let the grounds be ample and well kept. Let our buildings be so furnished that there may be no longer the painful contrast between the adequately furnished public school buildings and the poorly furnished Church.

We call attention to the relatively little fire insurance carried on our Church property, especially in the rural and small charges in the cities. The plight of the struggling congregation burnt out of a Church home with nothing to start with is a familiar story. We wish to commend to our people the good protection offered by our own Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

T. F. MARR, Chairman,
JOHN W. HOYLE, JR., Secretary.

BIBLE BOARD

Your Bible Board is gratified to find that the American Bible Society had a record last year exceeding any year of all the preceding years of its activities in the distribution of Bibles. Another encouraging thought comes from the fact that more Bibles were distributed in foreign lands than in any previous year. Almost one million volumes were distributed in Japan and more than four million in China. The call for Scriptures in the United States has been overwhelming. Last year in the United States 375,302 Bibles and 652,761 Testaments were distributed. Surely in such facts there is ground for joy. The Word of God thus scattered shall not return void, but will bear much fruit for good. We fully believe that a careful and prayerful study of the Holy Scriptures will have a wholesome and saving influence on the life of our people as it has always had.

We therefore urge our preachers and people to study the Bible and to help distribute it in the homes of all the people.

J. M. DOWNUM, Chairman,
T. J. HOUCK, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

Reports of the pastors indicate that the Spiritual State of the Church is below the high standard we have set for ourselves.

The carrying on of our splendid Church activities, the raising of larger amounts of money each year, the growing loyalty of our membership are all signs of spiritual life, but we may have all these and still not have spirituality.

The Church in operation in the time of our Saviour seemed to be loyal, faithful and punctillious even to the tithing of the fruits of the soil, yet it was spiritually dead.

The Church of Mr. Wesley's time was beautiful in its ritualistic service but it needed the great Wesleyan revival to bring spirituality into the Kingdom.

The need of a revival that shall sweep through the whole Church is indicated by the few members reported as received on profession of faith during the past year, and by the failure, in so many places, to secure collections in full.

The conditions of the home life are having a baneful effect upon our young people and children. Their training and control is being delegated to outsiders. We, therefore, feel that the Church should redouble its efforts to train the young life of our Church. We would emphasize the need of the family altar and of closer relations between parents and children, that they may be taught by the parents, and would urge the pastors to preach upon the importance of the family altar.

As to worldly amusements such as dancing, card playing, attending theatres or obscene movies, promiscuous swimming pools and the improper use of the automobile, which are corrupting the morals of our young people, as well as some of the older people, we urge our preachers to work against such things, soliciting the co-operation of their membership to discourage all such as far as possible. But on the other hand, to encourage the use of the automobile in getting the entire family, and others, to all services of the Church. Let the autos be made an asset for our Church as well as business, by having auto committees to see that the entire membership in our smaller Churches are able to get to the services, making first things first.

We believe that each Church should have a week night prayer meeting, because the Sunday School, Epworth League and preaching service do not take the place of an hour for definite and earnest prayer.

We should get back to the two main doctrines of our Church, the witness of the Spirit and Bible holiness, for there cannot be a great revival without emphasizing these doctrines. And above all, let us make an earnest and united prayer for a real revival of religion to come to the hearts of all Christians, laymen and preachers alike, and through them to our Churches.

EBENEZER MYERS, Chairman,
MRS. V. L. STONE, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

The spirit of Sabbath desecration seems to be permeating our national life. We believe that if our nation is to be saved, and if we are to save other nations, we must infuse into the present generation a holy reverence for the Sabbath for in order to have obedience to law, we must first have respect for law.

Our government cannot survive without God's Sabbath, honored and kept. Strict Sabbath observance has been a vital factor in the growth of the nation, and that virtue we must preserve or our nation will fall to ruin, for there is no safety without Christianity, and there is no Christianity without a Sabbath.

It is an alarming truth that Sabbath desecration permeates our national commerce.

The business of our great railroad and express companies, and most daily newspapers run right on, every day and Sunday too, as if they knew not God's commandment.

Against this menace we protest. We call upon our ministers, Legislators, Governors, Mayors, President and all God-fearing people to aid in changing this deplorable condition.

We recommend the appointment of H. C. Johnson, Asheville; C. H. Ireland, Greensboro; and J. A. Jones, Charlotte, to represent us in co-operating with the Tennessee Methodist Conference Sabbath Crusade Committee, and others like-minded, in asking our Congress and President, to enact a righteous Sunday observance law for the District of Columbia, and to provide for a Sabbath day's rest in our national commerce, and we ask this Conference to direct this Committee to co-operate in securing an agreement among the leaders of all industries and the leaders in the realm of amusements to cease all their activities on Sunday. We especially ask that this Committee do its utmost to keep the lid on tight in North Carolina.

L. T. CORDELL, Chairman,
R. C. KIRK, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CHURCH BUILDING AT CHAPEL HILL

The task of building an adequate Methodist Church at Chapel Hill is practically completed. The Church with its appointments for worship, for educational and social purposes stands to witness for itself. One of the controlling aims has been to provide an auditorium that would inspire the spirt of reverence and worship as well as accommodate comfortably those who come to pray and to be ministered unto. This purpose has been faithfully maintained by both the architect and the builders.

The religious, social and educational demands that have been made upon the Church this fall have proved the wisdom of the undertaking, and clearly indicate that within a few years the educational unit will have to be provided.

We report with satisfaction that as a culmination of the Church building program by the denominations represented at Chapel Hill a School of Religion has been established by the local Churches and the Young Men's Christian Association of the University. Through the recommendation of Bishop Mouzon and others, Rev. Mims Thornburgh Workman has been chosen as acting dean of the school and professor of Biblical History and Literature.

The number and the personnel of the students enrolled in the courses now offered are indicative of a much larger enrollment when credit shall be allowed by the University for work done in this school.

We are aware that with the opportunities now offered and the enlarged plans for more intensive and inclusive work on the part of the Chapel Hill Methodist Church for the Methodist students attending the University an obligation is upon the Methodist Conferences of North Carolina to create a permanent organization to hold and to control the Church property at Chapel Hill and to foster, encourage and develop the work that is in process for the religious and spiritual culture of these students. To this end we recommend that some such organization be created.

That this matter may be given due consideration we recommend that it be referred to the Board of Education for consideration and recommendations.

We understand that when such organization shall be effected the services of this Commission shall have been completed, but until such time your Commission requests that the Churches and the Methodists of the state continue their financial support to complete the building project, the furnishings and to liquidate the indebtedness.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION

The Joint Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, in North Carolina, submits the following report:

1. In order to promote fellowship and bring mutual benefit to the two Churches we would reiterate the recommendations set forth in the four items of our report made one year ago, namely, that there may be, as opportunity affords, an interchange of pulpits by ministers of the two branches of Methodism and an interchange of preachers in revival work.

Also that continuous effort be made for readjustment where the work of the two Churches overlaps in rural districts and to avoid crowding or overlapping where new preaching places are being established in towns and cities, and that the Presiding Elder involved and the President of the Methodist Protestant Conference constitute a Board of Mediation to act with the parties interested in making the readjustment.

2. We would further report that at the annual meeting of the Joint Commission recently held, Dr. W. P. Few and Revs. A. G. Dixon, M. T. Plyler, and R. C. Stubbins were elected a committee to study the problem of co-operation and readjustment of rural Church work in territory where the two Churches overlap, this committee to report to the next annual meeting of the Joint Commission, making recommendation as to a basis of operation.

3. On motion it was agreed that the term of office of two of the six members representing each the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, should expire each year, the respective Annual Conferences to elect the successors of the members whose terms thus expire. The term of J. F. Kirk expires this year and we recommend his re-election.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
T. M. JOHNSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF PASTOR'S SCHOOL

The ninth session of the Pastor's School for North Carolina was held at Duke University, June 9-23, 1926.

The following graduate courses were given along with the usual undergraduate work: Principles and Development of Religious Education and Rural Sunday School Management, by Dr. L. F. Sensabaugh; Making the Church Missionary and Social Minded, by Fred P. Barnett; Comparative Religions and the Bible, by Dean E. D. Soper; Church Building and Equipment, by H. M. King; and, Music and Hymnody, by Mr. J. T. Hooker.

The report of Dean Hersey E. Spence discloses the following facts:

	N. C. Conf.	W. N. C. Conf.	Total
No. taking work	61	55	116
Credits earned	108	98	216
Undergraduates
No. taking work	13	15	28
Credits earned	42	51	93

Five women took ten credits this year.

The Secretary of the Board reports an attendance of 274, many of whom went on class though they did not receive credit for work done.

The usual inspirational addresses were heard each evening. The presence and inspirational addresses of our Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon, proved to be a delight to all.

Managers whose terms expire are: J. C. Wooten, M. T. Plyler, L. L Gobbel, for the N. C. Conference; and H. H. Jordan, E. K. McLarty, and W. H. Willis for the W. N. C. Conference.

M. T. PLYLER, President,
W. H. WILLIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DUKE FUND COMMISSION

In submitting another report of this Commission, we would call attention to several items of interest.

1. The office at Duke University in charge of Professor J. M. Ormond is making fine headway in securing maps of every county in the state and other information of vital importance in administering the funds for the benefit of country Churches.

2. Provision for aiding Church buildings is shaping up well. Plans are being provided for those who care to use them and the office is ready to aid in the work of locating buildings and in securing proper plans.

3. All who expect aid are required to submit plans and specifications for the use of the office at Durham. Let every one remember that all correspondence having to do with this phase of the work should be addressed to Professor Ormond.

4. The next year will doubtless see more definite plans worked out for administering the money that goes to the aid of preachers who work in the country. For the present this will continue to be done much as it has been done for the past ten years.

The term of R. M. Courtney, representative on the Duke Commission from the Board of Missions, has expired.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

Your Board of Directors beg leave to report that they have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company covering the period from October 1, 1925, to October 1, 1926.

At the time of this report there is insurance in force of $1,552,735.00.

The total net losses for the period covered by this report were $1,751.99.

The affairs of the Company have been handled in a careful and business-like manner.

In view of the larger building program of rural Churches in North Carolina Methodism and in view, further, of the fact of the money to be contributed by the Duke Fund in country places, we call upon the Presiding Elders and Pastors to give special attention to the placing of insurance upon all our Church buildings. This is of especial importance in the country.

We recommend that no aid be given to the building of a Church whose proper officers will not agree to carry insurance on the building. We recommend also that building insurance, adequate for the protection of a building enterprise, be placed on all churches in process of construction.

We recommend the re-election of E. A. Cole as Director, whose term shall expire October, 1931.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. COLE, Chairman,
ARTHUR G. CRAIG, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We find that the Asheville, Mount Airy, Marion, North Wilkesboro, Shelby, Greensboro and Statesville records are neatly and accurately kept.

The Winston-Salem records are also well kept with the exception of an error that places the names of the president and secretary at the end of the committee reports instead of the end of the minutes.

The Waynesville record is typewritten instead of being written with pen and ink and only one committee report occurs.

The Charlotte record, while neat and correct as to the subject matter, has many of its records simply pasted in the book, giving little promise of that permanency that papers of such importance are entitled to.

We recommend that all of our district records be kept in books of large size, capable of containing records for at least ten years or more; that they be written carefully and plainly with pen and ink; and that as soon as they are full they be forwarded to Duke University to be preserved with other historical documents of the Church.

A. S. RAPER, Chairman,
C. P. BILLUPS, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference met in Main Street M. E. Church, South, Gastonia, Tuesday evening, October 19, 1926. In the absence of Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, President, Rev. H. K. Boyer, Vice-President, called the Society to order, and presided throughout the evening.

After religious exercises, Dr. Boyer introduced the speaker of the hour, Mr. Wiley M. Pickens, Superintendent of the Lincolnton schools, who delivered an address on "Methodism in Rowan County." The address was well prepared and well delivered.

Dr. Paul N. Garber, Chair of Church History, Duke University, was introduced and spoke to the Society relative to a historical magazine, which it is proposed to issue from the Duke University press at some time in the near future; also the necessity of gathering all historical papers, books, etc., that may be found at any time.

A committee was appointed by Dr. Boyer to nominate officers for the incoming year. The committee nominated Dr. Boyer for President, Dr. C. C. Weaver, Vice-President, Rev. J. F. Kirk, Secretary and Treasurer, and Rev. C. M. Pickens to succeed himself as a member of the Executive Committee.

A collection amounting to $9.75 was taken and was paid to the North Carolina Christian Advocate on the bill for printing Historical Papers.

The Society adjourned with benediction by Rev. T. A. Sikes.

T. A. SIKES, Acting Secretary.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Brotherhood of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in the first Presbyterian Church, Gastonia, N. C., on October 21 at 2 P. M., with the President, W. L. Sherrill, in the chair. After religious services conducted by C. M. Campbell the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The President made some appropriate remarks concerning the work and usefulness of the Brotherhood. The Treasurer's report showed that $1,600.00 had been paid to the estate of the late Rev. J. B. Carpenter, and that the beneficiaries of Rev. P. L. Terrell had been paid the same amount. Also that Mrs. N. R. Richardson, the widow of the late Rev. N. R. Richardson, had been paid $500.00. Balance on hand $2,936.41. The committee to consider the advisability of the Brotherhood collecting and disbursing a fund for superannuates the first year of superannuation, reported that they thought it unwise to undertake such work. H. C. Sprinkle and W. E. Poovey were appointed to count the vote on the increase of the mortuary fund from three to five dollars. While they were out talks were made by J. B. Tabor and E. E. Williamson. By a rising vote the Brotherhood expressed its thanks to J. K. Dixon of Gastonia, who for several years was a faithful local treasurer of Main Street Church, Gastonia. Brother Dixon was present and spoke tenderly of his work in this cause.

The committee to count the vote reported 140 in favor of increase and 101 against. As the motion ordering this vote seemed to be unconstitutional it was declared by vote to be null and void, and the Secretary was ordered to take the vote again before the next annual meeting, and that the amendment should be carried or lost by a majority vote. The result of this vote will not be declared until the next annual meeting.

W. L. Sherrill was elected President for the following year, W. R. Ware, Vice-President, and C. M. Pickens, Secretary and Treasurer. G. D. Herman and W. L. Dawson were named by the chair as members of the Executive Committee.

The Brotherhood adjourned at 3 P. M. with the benediction by W. L. Sherrill.

W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

Memoirs

REV. JONATHAN BEATTIE CARPENTER

Rev. Jonathan Beattie Carpenter, son of J. H., and Cynthia Carpenter, was born at High Shoals, Rutherford County, N. C., June 14th, 1838, and died in Rutherfordton, N. C., January 30, 1926. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in 1875, and was licensed to preach soon after his conversion. He joined the North Carolina Conference at Wilmington December, 1875, and served the following charges in that Conference: 1876, Upper Broad River Mission; 1877, Columbus Mission; 1878, South Fork Circuit; 1879, Dallas; 1880, Happy Home; 1881-82, Pleasant Garden; 1883-84, Thomasville-High Point; 1885, Dallas; 1886-87, Happy Home; 1888-89, Guilford Circuit; 1890, Weldon Circuit.

He was ordained deacon at Charlotte 1878 by Bishop George F. Pierce, and elder in Durham 1881 by the same Bishop.

When the Western North Carolina Conference was formed in 1890, Brother Carpenter was transferred to this Conference and served the following charges: 1891, King's Mountain; 1892-94, Church Street, Charlotte ;1895, Bryson City; 1896-99, Broad River Circuit; 1900-02, East Rutherford Circuit; 1903, Morganton Circuit; 1904-05, Cliffside; 1906, supernumerary; 1907, Broad River; 1908, superannuated; 1909, Ozark, Gastonia; 1910, Rutherfordton, junior preacher; 1911-16, supernumerary; 1917, Spencer Mills; 1918-19, Spindale; 1920-26, superannuated. He succeeded himself on three different charges. This is an unusual record. Brother Carpenter was a man of decided character and positive convictions. Before his conversion he was a leader in the things in which he participated for evil. His life and influence for the wrong were in the open. When he gave his heart to God his face was set as a flint for the right. His friends knew in what company to look for him and where he could be found in both periods of his life. He was a manly man, loved by his friends and his friends were true to him. He served his county as clerk of the court two terms, and was in the newspaper business six years. He volunteered in Company G, 16th N. C. troops, May, 1861. He represented his county in the legislature of 1862-64. When he passed away the last member of the famous Assembly which stood by Governor Vance so faithfully during the stormy days of the sixties went to his reward.

When Brother Carpenter joined the Conference salaries were small and circuits were large. He had as many as ten Churches on his circuit. His first salary was $150.00, the second $300.00. The highest he ever received was $800.00 per annum. But he served his people cheerfully and efficiently, won many souls to Christ, built up the Church, and did the work of a faithful Methodist preacher with a glad heart and free. He was noted for his cheerfulness and generosity. He looked on the bright side of life and death had no terrors for him.

He was a Mason, a member of the Junior Order, a Pythian, an Odd Fellow, a Red Man, and a member of the Eastern Star. His life was a great example of usefulness and service.

His funeral was conducted from the Methodist Church in Rutherfordton, Sunday afternoon, January 31, by his Pastor, Rev. J. O. Ervin, assisted by Revs. E .O. Cole, Presiding Elder of Marion District, O. L. Simpson, J. B. Tabor, M. W. Heckard, W. R. Ware, and M. A. Adams, the latter Pastor of the Rutherfordton Baptist Church. Revs. E. J. Poe, J. P. Hornbuckle, and J. C. Gentry were also present. Though the weather was cold and threatening there was a capacity congregation at the Church. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. His body rests by that of his wife at Pleasant Grove Church.

More than a year ago the writer visited Brother Carpenter in his home. He talked freely about the end which he knew was near. He said, "I am ready. It is all right." There are no clouds in the sky. I have made my arrangements. I have told my pastor that when the time comes I want you here to take part in the service. Everything is all right, Brother Ware." I prayed with him. Both of us felt God was near.

It was my pleasure, by request, to pay an humble, loving tribute to his memory.

A good man has gone from us. We miss him today. He has been among us so long and so regularly. Let us cherish his memory and emulate his Christian conduct. He laid down the sword he had wielded so long without a tarnish, and put aside his garments without a stain upon them.

REV. N. R. RICHARDSON

Rev. N. R. Richardson, one of our honored and beloved superannuates, was born at Wendell, N. C., Jananuary 27, 1854. He was a member of a large and prosperous family and in early life had instilled into him fine principles of honor, integrity, chastity and unselfishness, together with the courtesy of the Old South. He joined Earpsboro Methodist Church in Wake County in early life and as a member remained loyal to his Church and faithfully performed any task assigned to him.

His ambition was to become a lawyer and he was educated at Trinity College with that purpose in mind. He set up a successful practice of this profession in Raleigh, and while there was married to Miss Elizabeth Stone, his life-long helper and companion. Later he moved to Smithfield where he continued the practice of law. All these years he was faithful and zealous in the performance of any duties of his Church. He taught in the Sunday School, conducted prayer meetings and performed any other service possible, trying to convince his soul that in this way he could successfully serve humanity as by answering the call to preach, which he had felt for a long time. Finally he ceased to argue the question further, and gave himself wholeheartedly into the Methodist ministry. In 1887 he joined the North Carolina Conference at Fayetteville and served the following charges: Dobson Circuit, 1888; Stokes Circuit, 1889; Nashville Circuit, 1890; Ruffin Circuit, 1891-92; Randleman Station, 1893-95; Henrietta Station, 1896; Conference Colporteur, 1897-98; Albemarle Circuit, 1899-1900; Lenoir, 1901-02; Rutherfordton, 1903; Henrietta and Caroleen, 1904-05; Asheboro, 1906-07; Spring Garden Street, Greensboro, 1908 09; Mt. Pleasant Circuit, 1910-12; Chadwick-Seversville, Charlotte, 1913; Mount Holly and Belmont, 1914-15; Weddington Circuit, 1916; Cooleemee, 1917-20; First Street, Albemarle, 1921-22; Superannuate, 1923-26.

In 1922 his health gave way and after undergoing a major operation and making a desparate fight to regain his former health, he was forced to superannuate. He bought a home in Mount Pleasant where he had formerly lived for three years as pastor, and there settled down to spend his last years.

His was not the lonely life of a "forgotten man," however, for notwithstanding the fact that he was a constant sufferer, his life was ever bouyant and youthful and vigorous. The hours which otherwise would have been lonely he occupied in communion with the great minds of the past and present as he lost himself in his books. He continued until the end, a constant and systematic student of the Bible which he loved so well. He wrote weekly sermonettes which were ready by thousands of readers of the Charlotte Observer. He taught a Sunday School class of young college boys to whom he gave his best, backed up by systematic preparation, his years of experience, and his passionate love for young men. He often remarked that in teaching these boys he was doing the best preaching he had ever done.

Whenever his youth would permit he gladly filled vacancies in nearby pulpits. Occasionally he assisted in revival meetings with joy and youthful enthusiasm.

It was while thus engaged, assisting Rev. F. J. Stough in a meeting at Pinewood on the Gold Hill Circuit, that he came to his death. While on his way to the Church where he was to preach Friday afternoon, August 6, 1926, he was struck by a car and fatally injured. While being rushed to a Salisbury hospital he died in the arms of his son, Frank, and went to be with Him whom he had so long and faithfully followed.

The funeral service was conducted from the church in Mount Pleasant Sunday afternoon. Rev. R. M. Courtney of Concord, Rev. W. L. Sherrill of Charlotte and Rev. R. O. Eller of Spencer, Rev. C. W. Warlick of Mount Pleasant and Rev. W. L. Scott, his pastor, took part in the service. Fifteen of his comrades attended and hundreds of friends came to do honor to one who knew so well how to be a friend. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery in Albemarle under a mound of flowers of rare beauty.

He leaves his wife, two sons, and two daughters, stunned with grief because of his untimely passing. Many a heart is lonelier because the kind, gentle, Godly man who was accustomed to give counsel, encouragement and inspiration, has gone away. Hundreds of people all over North Carolina have been uplifted, not only by the gospel he proclaimed, but also by his understanding sympathy, his tender consideration, and his noble life. In his home community he came to be regarded as a sort of guardian of all that was sacred and right. People turned to him for advice, for sympathy, for the inspiration which unconsciously attended his character, for the beauty of the Lord God was upon him.

W. L. SCOTT.

REV. PINKNEY LAWSON TERRELL

July 31, 1853, in a farm house overlooking Pigeon river, two miles from Clyde, N. C., Pinkney Lawson Terrell was born. His parents, James Orville Terrell and Ermina Kirkpatrick Terrell, were not rich in material possessions, but they were devout Presbyterians of the strictest religious order. His boyhood covered the period of the Civil War and the days of reconstruction following. Together with an older brother he came in contact with the soldiers of the union army in an effort to save his father's horse from capture. Being a healthy boy he engaged in the various pastimes of the young people of his day, such as hunting, making love, writing poetry and going to camp meeting. In childhood he was converted in a Methodist meeting but neglected to join the Church. Later when the impression that he should preach came upon him, he considered joining the Church. What Church to join was a question that he did not find easy to answer. There were very few Presbyterians in his county, and he was not pleased with Calvinism as they taught it. Through the influence of a good friend he came near joining the Baptist Church, but could not accept immersion. After some years of indecision he joined the Methodist Church, and soon found his way into the ministry.

In 1874 he was married to Ellen Louvenia Porter of Haywood County. She was a great help to him throughout a long experience in the pastorate till her decease in October, 1919. Six children were the fruit of this union, all of them having become esteemed citizens of our commonwealth and devoted members of the Church to which their father gave such loyal service. February 19, 1921, he again married, his second wife being Mrs. Mary Peake of Union, S. C., and she, after tenderly ministering to his infirmities at the last, remains to mourn his going.

Brother Terrell was admitted on trial into the Conference at Asheville, N. C., in 1882. He served the following charges: 1882-03, Charleston and Echota Mission; 1884-06, Hayesville Circuit; 1887, Cane Creek Circuit; 1888-1891, Leicester Circuit; 1892, Rock Springs Circuit; 1893-94, Wilkesboro; 1895-96, Connelly Springs; 1897, Whittier; 1898, Canton; 1899-1901, Olin; 1902-05, Caldwell Circuit; 1906, Table Rock; 1907, Morganton Circuit; 1908-10, Ansonville; 1911-2, Derita; 1913-14; Pleasant Garden; 1915-16, Concord Circuit; 1917-18, Davidson Circuit; 1919, Liberty Street; 1920-21, Marion Circuit; 1922-24, Haywood Circuit. He served the Robbinsville Circuit one year before he was admitted on trial. At the session of the Conference held in Statesville in 1925 he was given the superannuate relation.

During those 42 years of his itinerant labors his salary averaged $495.00. He reared, educated and brought into the Church a family of six. He added more than 1,000 members to the Church, two of whom entered the ministry and are serving with efficiency in our Conference. He baptized 508 adults and 338 children, built two parsonages and built and dedicated 7 churches.

Brother Terrell did not have the advantages of college training. He attended school at Tuscola, now Lake Junaluska, but his plans for further educating himself were frustrated. He did much to overcome this lack of scholastic training through application to study throughout his life. He was a great reader and an independent thinker, being able to express an original opinion on almost any matter that might arise. When he was a school boy making love he learned to express his feelings in verse, and he continued to write poetry to the very end of his life. In 1902, while pastor at Olin, he published "Una Grames," a poem of some 50 pages, and some years later published another book of verse which he named "The Southern Girl, and Other Poems." These poems deal with most experiences that we have—religion, nature, patriotism, old age, love, childhood memories, etc. In his last years he prepared an autobiography, "Pete, the Homespun Boy."

Brother Terrell was a faithful, hard working pastor, always bringing to the task in hand his utmost energy. He was optimistic and full of the best of good humor. The evenings by the fireside in his parsonage home were seasons of real delight to the whole family circle as they conversed pleasantly and exchanged the latest jokes. He was never so happy as when engaged in revival meetings, and he had unusual success as a revivalist. During his last illness he remarked several times to the writer that he hoped to get strong enough to assist some of the preachers in their revival meetings.

After his superannuation he rapidly declined in health and soon it became apparent that he had finished his pastoral labors. He wanted to live but he became reconciled to going. The gospel with which he had comforted others was his stay in his hours of suffering. Thursday, July 15th, he peacefully closed his eyes in death, firmly trusting in Him who has power over death. Funeral services were held at the Church in Granite Falls, conducted by A. C. Swafford and participated in by half a dozen of his brethren of the ministry. He wrought with faith, courage, and success, and there was never a blot on his eschutcheon.

MRS. WILLIAM WEBB BAYS

"Lord, grant me, if Thou wilt, to slip away
As slips the night into the dawning gray,
So soft, the watchers, watching, cannot say
'Here ends the night and here begins the day',
But only know the night's His night, the day His day."

It was thus that the subject of this sketch, Harriet Henritze Bays, wife of Rev. William Webb Bays, D. D., for sixteen years an honored member of this Conference, slipped from the arms of her daughter, here, into the life eternal.

She was born in Lebanon, Russell County, Virginia, in the same county, and but eleven miles distant from the birthplace of her distinguished husband. It was there that her girlhood was spent, and there in her early young womanhood that she and Dr. Bays were married, on September 11, 1866, one year before he was admitted on trial as a traveling preacher in the Holston Conference.

Throughout the fifty years of their happy married life, she was the constant companion, helper and inspiration of her husband in his work as pastor and preacher in the four Conferences of which he was a member—the Holston, North Georgia, Little Rock, and Western North Carolina; and during the ten years that have passed since his translation to "that city whose builder and maker is God," her interest in the Church has been unabated. She sought no place in the public life of the Church, and it was from her home that she exerted her great influence as wife, mother, and Christian neighbor, and many were the neighbors who were the recipients of her benevolence, for she found her greatest joy in giving happiness to others.

She possessed a nature which was deeply consecrated and constantly cheerful, and these factors, which were an inspiration to her family and friends, were a large asset in the influence for good which she exerted in every community in which she lived.

Like her husband, she was spared from lingering illness at the close of earthly life, and both "with the eye not dimmed or the natural force abated" answered the call of Him who said: "Come, ye blessed of my Father." It was at the close of a beautiful Sabbath day, August 22, 1926, that her spirit went back to God who gave it.

"She was spared the pain of parting tears,
  She was spared all mortal strife;
'Twas scarcely leaving; she only passed
  In a moment to endless life.

"But think of the sweet surprise,
  The sudden, strange delight,
She felt as she met her Saviour's smile
  And walked with Him in light."

The funeral service was conducted at her home in Charlotte, on August 25th, and taking part in this service were Methodist and Presbyterian ministers who were special friends of hers and her family. Following this service, her body was placed by that of her husband in their mausoleum in Elmwood cemetery.

Surviving are her two devoted children, Mamie Bays, of Charlotte, and William Webb Bays, of Washington, D. C.

MRS. J. H. BARNHARDT

Mrs. Hattie Misenheimer Barnhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Misenheimer, was born in Cabarrus County, February 23, 1873, died in Winston-Salem August 30, 1926, and was buried at Mount Pleasant.

She was educated at Mount Amoena Seminary and joined the Methodist Church at Mount Pleasant.

On May 1, 1900, she was married to Rev. J. H. Barnhardt and during the years following has lived in nearly every section of the Conference and her fine influence has been felt in every Church in which she served.

married to Rev. J. H. Barnhardt and during the years following has lived in nearly every section of the Conference and her fine influence has been felt in every Church in which she served.

Her activity in the Missionary Society, Sunday School, and loving ministry to those who needed sympathy and help, made her indeed a valued helpmeet to her husband in his work and attracted friends to her in large numbers.

She had an abiding faith in the Saviour which was beautifully expressed in unselfish service and it may be truthfully said of her that: "She hath done what she could."

Mrs. L. B. HAYES

Agnes Rockwell Hayes was born September 5, 1890, and died May 17, 1926.

Brief years they are but a life is not compassed by the space of years. Life is not measured by its length but by its contents, by its fullness. This good woman was born in a distinguished, cultured, and Christian home and had the best educational advantages, graduating from Wellesley College, and then became a teacher of English in Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. In 1916 she was married to Rev. L. B. Hayes. Born for leadership, with a deep sense of the essentials in religion, she at once entered actively into the duties of a pastor's wife and was a valued helper and wise leader in every relation she sustained to the Church and community. In the very zenith of her usefulness she was called hence. We cannot understand it. Only a great faith can accept it. Only a great hope can make us willing to accept it. Sorrow touches our hearts and leaves ashes, but God promises that out of that desolation shall come renewal; out of the failure of our dreams shall come a finer realization than we have been able to dream.

"Now we see through a glass darkly"—"then," when we see "face to face" we shall be satisfied.

Mrs. ALBERT S. RAPER

Ada Olivia Spaugh was born in 1874, daughter of the late T. T. Spaugh and Mrs. Spaugh, of Forsyth County, N. C. She joined the Freidburg Moravian Church in her youth, graduated from Salem College in 1894, married to Rev. A. S. Raper in 1899, died in Shelby, N. C., May 28, 1926, and was buried at Mt. Olivet Church in Davidson County.

After her marriage she joined the Methodist Church in which she was an active worker to the end of her life.

She was modest, gentle, cultured, consecrated, active in all good works, and ever busy at the task of helping her husband in his ministry. She was a fine leader of the young people of the Church and found joy in lowly service and in ministry to the poor and distressed. She suffered much for several years preceding her departure, endured with patient trust, and when the end came there was peace.

MRS. FRANK H. WOOD

Frances Elizabeth Pearce, wife of Franklin Harris Wood, was born at Dinwiddie Court House, Va., on November 16th, 1837, and died in Salisbury, N. C., May the 23rd, 1925. The funeral services were conducted in the Church at Trinity, N. C., on May the 25th by Revs. W. R. Harris, L. D. Thompson, E. K. McLarty and J. B. Craven.

Frances Elizabeth Pearce was married to Rev. Harris Franklin Wood in Greensboro, N. C., on October 23rd, 1861, and for fifty-two years served with her husband in the ministry of the Methodist Church. Their golden wedding was celebrated in 1911.

There are four surviving children: Mrs. W. F. Ellis, Salisbury, N. C.; W. F. Wood, Marion, N. C.; Geo. T. Wood and Mrs. J. J. Farris, High Point, N. C.

The burial was by the side of her husband in the cemetery at Trinity.

In the interest of safety for our Constitution, security for our homes, and sobriety for our people, this Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, would record a most emphatic protest against the nomination in 1928 by either of the two great political parties of any candidate for president of the United States who is not outright and altogether in accord with the Eighteenth Amendment, and in favor of reinforcing and enforcing the Volstead Law.

(Signed) W. E. POOVEY,

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your Board rejoices in the continual enlargement and prosperity of our educational institutions as is shown by their reports, that they seek to minister to the real spiritual needs and development of the individual student, and for this reason our church schools, should have the loyal support of all our constituency.

The report of Rev. W. L. Sherrill, Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Christian Education, shows that he has collected during this Conference year something in excess of $40,000 on Christian Education pledges.

We can not over-estimate the importance of the payment of all unpaid pledges, since the Christian Education Movement is nearing its close. This is a very serious matter and our Conference should face it squarely and make provision for a last call and final effort to collect these pledges.

We have reports from Duke University, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges, and Jefferson School, and have given careful consideration to the problems of each and made the provision for their support to the limit of our means.

Duke University

The report from Duke University calls attention to the death of the late Joseph G. Brown, for a decade the chairman of the Board of Trustees. Ten of the twelve new buildings on the old campus are completed and now occupied.

The schools of Law and Medicine are being rapidly organized, the latter under the supervision of Dr. W. C. Davison, formerly of John Hopkins.

The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences has registered 118 students, 71 coming from North Carolina and 47 from other states including one from China.

The Graduate School has registered students from Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Chicago, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Texas, Virginia, North Carolina and other universities. This graduate work goes on during the summer as well as during the regular sessions and there are 330 graduate registrations.

The School of Religion will be fully organized by September 1928. North Carolina Methodists now have a high-grade Graduate School of Religion for training their young ministers and Christian workers, both men and women.

Twenty-seven hand-picked professors have been added to the teaching staff.

The Student Life Division, with a Vice-President in charge, is devoted to the physical and medical well-being of the student body. It includes also a college pastor and a social and religious director. All these agencies provide for the physical, social, moral and religious welfare of students.

This institution, with the co-operation of the two Conferences and of the people of the entire state, is destined to rank among the greatest universities of the world.

Greensboro College

Greensboro College is making fine progress in every direction. The largest class in its history, fifty-nine members, was graduated last commencement. The present enrollment is 375, including 274 boarding students.

The available space for all departments is crowded. Improvements have been made in the physical equipment of college property. Various gifts have been received this year amounting to more than thirty thousand dollars. The faculty has been enlarged by the addition of two assistants.

This college has been admitted into the membership of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States and is now one of three colleges exclusively for women in Southern Methodism having membership in this association.

Since the policy of the administration of the college is to continue the increase of endowment to promote the superior quality of culture necessary to the training of Christian womanhood, we re-affirm our recommendation that the request of the Board of Trustees to raise an endowment fund of $500,000, be granted. We are pleased to note that the total assets of this institution amount to over $1,000,000, while the total indebtedness is less than $50,000.

DAVENPORT COLLEGE

Davenport College, although doing business on a small, financial margin, is making progress. The income is slightly more than last year and the expense of operating slightly less, but still it does not receive enough income to break even with running expense. It has a larger enrollment than last year.

The School of Business, with twenty-five students, is a new feature which promises to be more than self-sustaining this year. They need more scientific equipment, more books for the library, and its urgent need for more money is very evident.

WEAVER COLLEGE

Weaver College has a stronger faculty and is gradually raising its standard of work and Weaver College credits are being fully recognized in colleges and universities in other states.

The financial condition is encouraging, the income from eleven sources being sufficient to meet current expenses, and enable the college to operate indefinitely on the present basis.

RUTHERFORD COLLEGE

Rutherford College is recovering from the recent loss by fire of Weaver Hall. A new dormitory is under construction by citizens of Burke County and is to be known as Burke Memorial. It will cost $51,000, and to be completed by January 1st.

The college already has an endowment of $102,500, made possible by the gift by Mr. B. N. Duke of $50,000. Plans are being laid to raise an additional endowment of $200,000.

The following is an Act to amend the Charter of Rutherford College:

An Act to Amend the Charter of Rutherford College

Section 1. That H. H. Jordan, C. A. Spencer, W. R. Ware, D. W. Alexander, G. F. Ivey, Dr. T. V. Goode, J. H. Giles, T. F. Marr, L. B. Hayes, J. F. Morris, G. B. Goodson, H. I. Miller, C. E. Rozzelle, A. J. Kirby and G. T. Bond, Trustees, and their associates and successors in office shall be, and continue as they have been, a body politic and corporate under the name and style of "Rutherford College," and under said name and style are hereby invested with all the property and rights of property which now belong to the said corporation, and to perform all such acts as may be necessary for the proper and successful carrying on of the work of said institution; and said corporation shall henceforth by the name and style of "Rutherford College" hold and use all the authority, privileges, and possessions it had or exercised under any former title and name and subject to all recognized legal liabilities and obligations now outstanding against said corporation.

Section 2. That the Trustees shall be fifteen in number. The term of office shall be three years, and they shall be so arranged that five shall be elected every year. The first five of the above named Trustees are to serve one year, the second five two years, and the third five three years.

Section 3. Eight Trustees shall constitute a quorum at any regular or called meeting of the Board.

Section 4. That every part of said charter shall be so amended as to conform to the intent and purposes of the foregoing amendments.

Section 5. That this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

That the officers of the Board of Trustees be and are hereby instructed to procure the adoption of said amendments. That the Board of Trustees be authorized that if in their judgment it seems necessary to issue bonds in the sum of not more than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) to pay off the indebtedness of the school.

JEFFERSON SCHOOL

Report of Committee Appointed by the Conference of 1926 for Disposition of the Jefferson School

We report as follows: That we have turned over the property of the Jefferson School to the County Board of Education of Ashe County to operate as a high school and that the school is now being conducted by the said Board of Education as a high school, but final disposition of the property has not yet been consummated.

We therefore recommend that the Jefferson School property be turned over to the Trustees of the Jefferson Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for final disposition of the property and that a deed in fee simple be executed to them. We recommend only so much of the appropriation made by the Annual Conference in 1926 be paid to the Treasurer of the Jefferson School as may be necessary to liquidate the present indebtedness as indicated by the report of Treasurer of said school as filed with the Conference Board of Education, Fifteen Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($1,580.00), and the remainder of the amount apportioned to the Jefferson School to be turned back to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education to be allocated to other secondary schools of the Conference. We further recommend that the small accounts and notes for tuition, as shown by the Treasurer of the Jefferson School report, be turned over to the Treasurer of the local Methodist Church at Jefferson to be used for the benefit of said Church.

We further recommend that any money held by the Conference Treasurer of the Educational Fund, or any money that may come into his hands from the Christian Education Fund and directed to the Jefferson School, be and is hereby released by the Trustees of the Jefferson School to be either re-directed by the Conference Board of Education or by the subscribers thereto at the election of said individual subscribers.

JOHN F. KIRK,
W. E. POOVEY.

We bring to you this report in a spirit of thanksgiving, because the work of faith projected by the last General Conference and cheerfully entered into by this Annual Conference, in the Missionary Special, has met with church-wide success.

The General Board reports that, as a result, they are enabled to look forward within a few months to cancelling the remainder of the million dollar indebtedness. The period of retrenchment has been passed, and again thought is expressing itself in terms of expansion with reference alike to the home and foreign work.

In our own Conference the Missionary Special has met with favor, and passed the fifty thousand mark. Our regular missionary work has gone forward to a new point of advance, the spirit of the movement being evidenced by a large increase of members received on profession of faith.

In the presence of the acute problems thrust upon us by the material development of the country and by the world conflict of idealism with materialism, we heartily and prayerfully endorse the purpose of our leaders to make the church the most potent factor in world civilization. We join them in effort toward an understanding of industrial conditions that will enable us to reveal Christ as the friend alike of poor and rich,—the one hope of industrial, educational, social and spiritual salvation.

We, therefore, re-affirm our loyal support of the plans outlined by the General Conference, and again enter heartily upon the campaign of missionary cultivation during the months of January and February.

Likewise, we again accept and agree to raise by means of the every-member canvass, or other informative plan, a free will offering of $70,000 as a Missionary Special. We furthermore endorse the holding of a mid-year meeting of the Boards of Missions and Lay Activities before the time of the cultivation period in January and February, for the purpose of formulating plans for successfully carrying out this work.

We recommend that the Presiding Elder be made the Director in his District, and that he use such assistance and plans as best suit his particular field. We also recommend that the Presiding Elder allocate this fund in his District.

We nominate Rev. R. M. Courtney to serve as Missionary Secretary, with the understanding that his election does not relieve the Presiding Elders of raising the amounts apportioned to their respective Districts.

(Signed) E. K. McLARTY, Chairman,
J. D. RANKIN, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

Your Board has given careful consideration of the missionary interests of the Church and tried earnestly to plan for a period of continued and enlarging development. We believe that information is one of the chief factors in the compelling interest which leads to certain activity, and therefore, we call attention to the Missionary Voice and bespeak for it a wide circulation as a part of the Cultivation Campaign.

We desire to recall attention to the policy of the Board with reference to the payment of missionary appropriations, which is that no payments are made after the payment for the first quarter, until after an every-member canvass has been carefully carried out and reported.

Rev. M. T. Smathers is nominated to represent the Board of Missions on the Board of Directors of the Pastor's Training School of Duke University.

Whereas the Rev. Dr. J. A. Martin, representing Paine College, has been before our Board of Missions, and whereas his cause is dear to the heart of this Conference and, since we are in hearty sympathy with the efforts to better equip his school for the great work he is doing, we do hereby commend Paine College for the sympathetic co-operation of any and all of our people with the hope that when desirous of distributing their resources to worthy causes, they will give this consideration. We commend this cause to their attention as being one of the agencies that is worthy from every standpoint of efficiency for their liberality, with the hope that the Western North Carolina Conference may be able to raise among its congregations a sufficient sum to enable him to erect one of his buildings.

BOARD OF FINANCE—REPORT NO. 1

Your attention is called to certain facts revealed by the General Board of Finance, as applying March 31, 1927. Payments which have been made since then are not enough to make material changes. The figures given show how half-heartedly we have worked at this worthy task, as follows:

1. Our Annual Conference has a total five-year quota of $506,653.00, as approved by vote of the Quarterly Conferences and reported to the General Board as an accepted obligation. To March 31, 1927, only $108,310.03 of this amount had been paid, leaving a balance yet to pay of $398,342.97.

2. There are three charges in our Annual Conference that have each paid their respective five-year quotas in full, and fourteen charges that have each paid three-fifths of their respective five-year quotas.

3. There are 124 charges in our Annual Conference that have each paid more than $100 on their respective five-year quotas. Some of them have a comparatively good record of payments, more of them have only a fair record, and many of them have barely paid enough to creep into this classification.

4. There are ninety-six charges in our Annual Conference that have each paid less than $100 on their respective five-year quotas, and fifty-nine charges that have not paid anything.

No cause more worthy than Superannuate Endowment has ever challenged our noblest efforts. It is an appealing call of distress for aid in behalf of the Church's veteran preachers and the widows and orphans of preachers. For us to shunt aside this cause heedlessly, after being directed by the General Conference to give it faithful attention, is unworthy of the good name of our Annual Conference and inconsiderate of those among us who are enfeebled by age and incapacitated physically for further service. The measure of our interest in such a matter indicates our spiritual temperature.

Our Annual Conference must not lag longer in doing our part for this terribly neglected cause. The amount we have yet to pay for this purpose is a mere pittance compared with the debt we owe these grand old men. Let us pay every penny that we have promised. To this end, we entreat every pastor to join heartily in the plan projected by the General Board of Finance for application during March, April and May, of 1928. As members of our Conference Board of Finance, we commit ourselves unreservedly to this work and beseech all the members of our Conference to join us in a united and determined effort to do our part well.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

All matters presented to the Board have received careful consideration.

It would expedite the work of the Board if all applicants for aid would observe the following requests:

1. Each application should be complete in every detail.
2. It should be in the hands of the Secretary at least five days before the Conference convenes.

3. No application should be filed asking aid for new projects until three-fourths of the total cost has been secured. Unless this is done, it is impossible, under the law, for this Board to grant any aid.

4. Hereafter no application will be considered unless the plans have been approved by the Architectural Department of the General Board of Church Extension at Louisville, Kentucky.

5. The property must be adequately insured and the amount of insurance carried must be stated in the application. Preference should be given our own Methodist Mutual Insurance Co., of Greensboro, N. C.

This has been a year of storms and floods. We commend the efforts of the General Board in rebuilding our Churches in the stricken areas.

The funds committed to this Board are extremely limited in view of the work to be done. This year we have endeavored to assist a number of Churches in canceling debts.

We recommend the following donations:

COMMISSION ON BUDGET—REPORT NO. 1

Your Budget Commission, after careful consideration of plans and suggestions, are unable to find any better basis of distribution of the benevolences to the Districts than that provided by the law, as recorded in Paragraph 336 of the Discipline for the guidance of the Board of Apportionment, as follows:

An apportionment shall be made according to the number of members in the several Districts, and another, according to the amount contributed therein during the previous year for the support of Presiding Elders and preachers in charge, not counting missionary collections or appropriations. The average of the two fractions (expressed in decimals of four figures) for any District shall constitute the fractional part of each of the several assessments upon the Conference to be apportioned to such District.

In lieu of a new method of distribution, we recommend that the present plan be given a further chance. We urge that the charges make early collections and that remittance of all money collected be made to the Conference Treasurer, as often as once a quarter.

(Signed) C. A. WOOD, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON BUDGET—REPORT NO. 2

It is gratifying to note that we are making progress toward our goal of "One hundred percent collections." Last year the percentage paid was 79, while this year it is 84.4 of a larger assessment.

We believe that if all our charges will begin to make their collections early in the year a much larger increase may be reported next year.

Every careful reader of the Conference Minutes has noticed that the reports by the Conference Treasurer do not agree with the figures found in the financial reports of the preachers. Believing that these discrepancies are most unfortunate and should be corrected, we have consulted with the Secretary of the Conference. He suggests that were the Conference Treasurer placed in charge of the statistical reports and given the responsibility of preparing the statistical tables for the Journal he might be able to get the figures to agree.

Therefore, we recommend that, beginning with the Conference year of 1927-28, the statistical work shall be done by the Conference Treasurer, who shall have authority to name his own assistants.

The assessments for General Conference work are as follows:

	Assessed	%
Missions	$40,222.00	37.56
Negro Work	3,030.00	2.82
Church Extension	9,198.00	8.59

Lay Activities	2,516.00	2.35

C. A. WOOD, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The Conference Trustees have been advised that the funds necessary for securing the $100,000.00 endowment for Rutherford College and Weaver College have been secured. Our Treasurer holds $2,160.00 interest from the $36,000.00 Higgins Fund established for the benefit of these colleges at the last session of our Annual Conference, ready to be paid, one-half each, to the Treasurers of said colleges as soon as we receive copies of Mr. B. N. Duke's acceptance.

The proceeds from our Heath Fund for the past year have been paid to C. A. Wood, Treasurer Children's Home.

The earnings from other investments we hold, together with the amount received from our Methodist Board of Publication, have been paid to F. C. Boyles, Treasurer Board of Finance, for the benefit of our Superannuates.

The entire amount of more than $100,000.00, which we now hold as principal, is invested in first mortgage bonds on real estate in the City of Greensboro, N. C., to which security is added the guarantee of Southern Real Estate Company. These bonds have been examined and approved by our Board and the records of our Treasurer have been audited and found correct.

In order to facilitate settlements between the Treasurer of our Board of Conference Trustees and the Treasurer of our Board of Finance, we recommend, after the payment of the interest from our $40,000 Heath Fund to our Children's Home and the interest from our $36,000 Higgins Fund, to Rutherford and Weaver Colleges, as provided by former sessions of our Annual Conference, that the proceeds from all other funds held by the Conference Trustees be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Finance for the benefit of our Superannuates, until otherwise provided by our Conference.

The following officers of our Board have been elected for the ensuing year: Rev. D. Atkins, President; Rev. W. R. Ware, Vice-President; I. F. Craven, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Treasurer's cash report is attached hereto.

(Signed) W. R. WARE, President,
I. F. CRAVEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Your Board's organized Sunday school promotional work in the Western North Carolina Conference is just ten years old. During the session of the Annual Conference held in Asheville in 1917, our present Conference Superintendent of Sunday School Work was elected. We now have five whole-time workers under the employment of the Board, these being O. V. Woosley, Conference Superintendent of Sunday School Work; Paul F. Evans, Extension Secretary; Miss Corinne Little, Superintendent of Elementary Work; L. F. Tuttle, Superintendent of Wesley Bible Class Work; and Miss Agnes Peacock, Office Secretary. These efficient officers have been re-elected for the ensuing year.

During these ten years our Sunday school enrollment has increased from 84,145 to 135,000, a gain of over 60 percent. The number of officers and teachers has increased from 6,432 to 9,021, or 43 percent. The total amount raised in the Sunday schools has increased from $51,612.00 to $223,627.00, a gain of 333 percent. The number of officers and teachers taking professional training has advanced from a negligible quantity to the largest number earning credit units in the Sunday school training courses in any Conference in Southern Methodism. While our Sunday school enrollment gain during this period has been three times as great as the church membership gain, only one Conference reports more Sunday school pupils joining the Church, the difference in this instance being very small. Our Conference has more Sunday schools and more Sunday school scholars than any other in the Church.

Your Board's fields of endeavor, as directed through their agents, have centered around Leadership Training Schools, Conference-wide and District-wide Conferences and Institutes, Workers' Councils, Building and Remodeling Churches, the Promotion of Sunday School Day and Missionary Day observances, the placing and checking of "Programs of Work," the promotion of enlarged membership campaigns, the emphasizing of Evangelism in the Sunday school, and such other endeavors as have tended to the promotion of the Kingdom of Christ.

Some idea of the advancement along all lines of our work can be gained from a recapitulation of our leadership training work, this being regarded as a technical basis for all other work. During the year 25 Standard, 20 Cokesbury and 2 junior training schools have been held. In addition to these, 33 local training classes have been conducted by our enterprising pastors. In these schools and classes there has been registered an attendance of over 4,700 Sunday school workers, of which number 4,338 have earned certificates of credit, this being an increase over last year of 1,067 credits.

The record of the credits earned in our leadership training classes during the past eight years shows steady and consistent growth. It is illustrative of growth in other phases of our work. The credit record is as follows: 1919-20, 107; 1920-21, 305; 1921-22, 747; 1922-23, 1,403; 1923-24, 2,407; 1924-25, 2,635; 1925-26, 3,261; 1926-27, 4,338.

In order to more properly correlate and direct the activities of our constantly growing numbers of Wesley Bible Classes, we have elected Mr. L. F. Tuttle as a whole-time Superintendent of this work. For the time being Mr. Tuttle will give most of his time to those classes and departments enrolling our young people.

We wish to urge upon our leaders the importance of observing Sunday School Day in their Sunday schools. This observance will not only emphasize the value of their own school but will, through the offering taken, aid greatly in the promotion of our Conference Sunday school work. Those schools agreeing to forward their offering to our Treasurer, H. A. Dunham, Asheville, N. C., will be furnished Sunday School Day programs free of charge.

We rejoice in the enlarged number of our Sunday schools which are observing a monthly missionary program and giving the offering taken to our Sunday School Special, this special having to do with the promotion of our mission fields in Europe and Sunday School Extension Work in the Western North Carolina Conference. We earnestly commend this missionary cultivation to our people. All funds received from this source should be sent to our Conference Sunday School Treasurer.

We are glad to report that practically all church building within the bounds of our Conference, is now being entered into after consultation with those who are in touch with the best architectural plans and equipment. Helpful data for all church building projects can be obtained from our Conference Sunday School Office at Lexington, N. C., or from the Church Extension Office at Louisville, Ky.

We regard the Sunday school "Program of Work" as a splendid means of measuring the efficient past work of the Sunday school and also as a splendid guide for future endeavor. Our training schools provide information as to what to do; our Program of Work outlines the way to do it. Much progress is being made in the placement and checking of these splendid guides of progress.

The attention of our pastors is most earnestly and prayerfully called to the importance of proper evangelistic services for the children and youth of our Sunday schools. It is hoped that they will lead in the proper cultivation for the definite acceptance of Jesus Christ as personal Lord and Saviour. It is important that the leadership in this essential work should be assumed by the pastors.

We wish to recommend that Dr. Chas. C. Weaver be re-elected as a member of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastor's School held each year at Duke University.

(Signed) D. E. HENDERSON, Chairman,
GEO. L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

The steady growth of the Epworth League throughout the Connection shows that it has taken deep root and is destined to grow like a tree planted by the rivers of water. The one thing that can hinder its growth now, we believe, is the failure of our pastors to adequately appreciate the opportunity it affords by training our youth for eminent service. Hence, your Board would urge our pastors to give every possible encouragement to this work.

The League now has more than 9,000 chapter organizations, with an aggregate membership of about 265,000, and has emptied into the lap of the Church during the past ten years alone, the princely sum of more than $3,000,000. Most of this is money that would not have found its way into the Church treasury had it not been for this organization. However, the wealth of consecrated young life that it has contributed, is something beyond computation.

We have in our own Conference above 12,000 Leaguers, thirty new chapters have been organized, two new unions have been organized, making a total of thirteen and more than 1,100 units of credits toward Christian Culture diplomas have been issued.

We would again call attention to the very fine Epworth League literature that is being prepared at the central office, including first of all the Epworth Era, which has cause to be regarded as one of the leading periodicals of its kind in the United States.

We commend most heartily the "Young People's Revival" and "Church-wide Communion Service." We believe that a general observance of these services would contribute much to the spiritual growth of our Leaguers.

We approve and commend the work done by the Field Secretary, Rev. W. A. Barber, and also that of the Epworth League Assembly, at Lake Junaluska, under the Presidency of Rev. L. B. Hayes.

Your Board had before it the resignation of Brother Barber as Field Secretary, and after considering the matter with great care, recommend Rev. G. G. Adams as his successor.

J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

In these days of haste and hurry every voice that speaks of spirituality is of multiplied value. The deepest needs of the human soul compel attention to its clear call, and its very rarity increases its force. The problem is to make the voice heard above the roar of business and of pleasure. When heard it manifests its old-time power.

This voice issues from pulpit and platform, from school house and lodge, but one of its most effective forms is the printed page. In this form it enters the consciousness in the rare moments of quietude and reflection and permeates the life of the reader in an impressionable hour. Its success in affecting the reader is measured in part by his tendency to discuss with congenial minds the message absorbed through reading, and thus is deepened the impression and the extent of its influence. Christian literature is thus seen to be fundamental to the maintenance and growth of the Church.

Our publishing house last year did a business well in excess of two million dollars, and, notwithstanding a slight decrease over the preceding year in total sales, was never in a healthier condition. We note each year an increasing number of books written by our Southern Methodist leaders. Among such books of the year are Bishop Candler's "Christ and the Creed," G. T. Rowe's "Reality in Religion," J. M. Rowland's "The Southern Methodist Pulpit," Chappell's "Familiar Failures," Andrew Stedd's "Saint Mark's Life of Jesus," H. C. Howard's "Princes of the Christian Pulpit and Pastorate," and W. W. Pinson's "Life of George R. Stuart." These books make valuable contributions to our knowledge in the realms of critical scholarship, biography, study of the creeds, philosophy of Christianity and pulpit and pastoral work. We commend them to all our people.

Standing at the very top in the realm of Christian literature is our Quarterly Review, which is so ably edited by our own Dr. Gilbert T. Rowe. It wonderfully stimulates the thinking of the reader, and brings to the earnest seeker much that is vital to spiritual development. We are proud of all of our Sunday school literature and we especially recommend a larger circulation of the publications for our boys and girls. The Missionary Voice and the new paper for Juniors are not excelled, we think, in the field of missionary literature. The Epworth Era should have a circulation which is not limited to the membership of the Epworth League. We are happy to learn that the Nashville Christian Advocate has had an increase in subscriptions of more than 1,000. We rejoice greatly in the completion of the new home for the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and in the promise of the Board of Publication to enlarge the Advocate to thirty-two pages without increasing the subscription price. High praise is due Rev. T. A. Sikes, the retiring business manager, under whose direction the new building has been erected. The high rating of our Advocate, due to its select subject matter, finely conceived editorials and solid financial grounding ought to be a source of pride to North Carolina Methodism. We recommend that a vigorous effort be made to greatly increase the circulation of the Advocate at the beginning of the coming Conference year. We recommend that the re-election of Dr. S. B. Turrentine to membership on the Board of Publication be confirmed and that Rev. A. W. Plyler be appointed Editor and Assistant Manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The Board of Temperance and Social Service sees a great opportunity before our Church in leading its members to study the ways in which the Christian spirit of good will is becoming operative in the institutions and laws of the State of North Carolina; and to co-operate with all Christian bodies in meeting present needs and problems as yet unsolved by our commonwealth.

We bespeak for the State and County Boards of Public Welfare the hearty co-operation of all our pastors and people in their work of purifying and stabilizing family life, protecting the weak and helpless and securing proper care for neglected children, deserted and widowed mothers.

We especially recommend to your sympathetic interest the Bureau for Work Among Negroes under the State Board of Public Welfare, that is doing very fine work.

We ask your continued support of the Mothers' Aid Law. The increased appropriation made by the state last year for the furtherance of its interests should have the approval of every enlightened citizen.

Periods of social re-organization are always marked by an increase in crime.

This is especially marked in the manifestations of irresponsible and untrained youth. There has been a marked increase in juvenile crime since the World War. As a partial measure for meeting this problem we ask your support for these measures:

First: A Training School similar to the Stonewall Jackson, at Concord, N. C., for boys between the ages of 16 and 21.

Second: A farm colony for women prisoners.

Third: The adoption by the state of the School for Delinquent Colored Girls, at Efland, which has been established by the colored women of the state.

Race Relations: Our state is receiving the attention of the world in its efforts to solve problems of race relations. There has been an increase in the number of lynchings in some other states, but North Carolina has been free from this crime for a period of years. Where there has been a sporadic tendency to commit this crime, thanks to the efficiency of the administrators of the law and to the citizens, mob murder has been prevented.

Law Enforcement: Flagrant violations of well-known laws show a lack of regard for law and order. Men secretly violate the 18th Amendment feeling that they do themselves no harm, nor the country, so long as they are not apprehended and punished by fine or imprisonment. The small fine exacted from the bootlegger serves only to advertise his trade, and make it subsequently more open. We beg our preachers, Sunday school teachers and all Christian workers to so influence, as they have opportunity, the superior court and municipal court judges, and mayors of small towns, that they shall impose maximum punishment for all violations.

We look with exultant pride upon the merits and blessings of the 18th Amendment. We recommend that this great Conference go on record as opposed to the nomination to public office of any candidate in state or nation who is not an outstanding advocate of the 18th Amendment and a supporter of the dry laws.

We urge upon preachers, Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues and other educative forces, to do all possible to teach our young people the evils of the tobacco habit and especially the cigarette habit and to enlist the co-operation of teachers of public schools in carrying out this recommendation.

The large number of accidents on our highways makes it more expedient that the Church should continue to teach the merits of prohibition to her people. Was the minister justified who said, "If my members would let whiskey alone in this town, bootlegging would stop"? We should let it be known that the buyer is equally guilty with the seller. We further fear that many of our people wink at open violation of the law and remain silent when they should condemn.

We recommend continued support of the Anti-Saloon League.

Industrial Relations: We call your attention to the outstanding event of the year in industrial relations in the report of the Child Labor Committee of the National Association of Manufacturers at their recent meeting. We feel that it should be met with the highest appreciation. It sets up standards of protection for child laborers that exceed those of any save six states in the union in state laws. It is our earnest hope that the National Association will adopt this report of its Committee. And that you may endorse these measures with full understanding we append the text of the report.

(a) An employment certificate to be issued under state authority for each job applied for under a different employer.

(b) A physical examination by physicians designated by the state, and a certificate that the individual is physically fit to enter the employment applied for.

(c) The completion of the sixth grade, after allowing two years for adjustment after the passage of the statute in states not already having an educational qualification with proper provision for vacation permits.

(d) The requirement of a minimum of four hours a week of continued education, either in continuation schools or under shop plans approved by properly constituted state authority which should have the power to release individuals incapable of further education or to excuse any child until proper continuation schools have been established.

(e) The limiting of the hours of labor of all children under 16 years employed in mining, manufacturing, transportation, or commercial occupation, of not to exceed 48 hours per week, with a prohibition of night work before 7 A. M., or after 9 P. M.

(f) The strengthening of laws forbidding the employment of children in hazardous occupations by more carefully defining specific hazards.

Near East Relief: We recommend that our Churches, Epworth Leagues and Sunday schools continue co-operation with the Near East Relief in the cause of training the orphans of the Near East for Christian leadership in Bible lands. We especially commend the observance of International Golden Rule Sunday.

War and Peace: All Christian nations are engaged in a profound study of the means for prevention of war. The truly Christian attitude must be found in the removal of all causes that provoke war, in the dissemination of information and in the promotion of Christ-like sympathy and love among all peoples, that the final result shall be the complete outlawry of war.

MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Lay Activities Board reports with gratitude progress having been made in our effort to increase the collections for benevolences, and wish herewith to express gratitude for the fidelity of those Lay Leaders who have been active in their Districts, and to the Presiding Elders and preachers who have co-operated with them this year. Realizing more than ever the necessity of bringing to bear the full influence of our Laymen on the problems which are before us in order that our Church may become more efficient by reason of the financial strength when our people shall respond to the financial vision of our leaders in paying benevolences in full, we are, therefore, requesting every preacher, charge and church lay leader to give heartiest support to carrying out in good faith the Every-Member Canvass in each congregation. In order that this may be done, your Board has provided Every-Member Canvass pledge cards sufficient for every circuit in the Conference for the Every-Member Canvass. We urge that this be done, if possible, by December 1st.

If we are ever to realize the blessing of adequate giving, it will be necessary to cultivate the principles of Christian Stewardship: First, by practicing it on the part of the Presiding Elders, Preachers, Lay Leaders and, as near as possible, every member of our Church.

In order that the social side of our membership should be strengthened, we urge that Wesley Brotherhoods be organized in our congregations as soon as possible.

In order to encourage the increase in our benevolences, we urge that institutes be held in each District, in order to bring home to our people the necessity of supporting each Department of our Church. In this connection, we beg leave to report the result of the joint action of the Cabinet and other Boards wherein it was resolved that a Conference Commission on Benevolences be and it is hereby appointed, consisting of the Commission on Budget and a representative from each Board which participates in the Conference benevolences.

The duties of this Commission shall be to co-operate with the Conference Board of Lay Activities in accordance with Chapter 19, Section 4, of the Discipline, in securing full payment of all the benevolent assessments.

We urge that the respective Boards lend their aid in carrying out our financial program and as soon after Conference as possible that a joint meeting of the Presiding Elders and the Board of Lay Activities be held to plan the work for the year.

We also pledge our earnest co-operation to the General Board of Lay Activities in the Laymen's Conference to be held at Junaluska in August of next year, and urge the attendance on the part of all Lay Leaders.

We recommend that a period for instruction on the work of the Lay Activities Board be provided for at the Pastor's School, at Durham, for this year.

We recommend that Dr. E. K. McLarty call a meeting of the Commission on Benevolences, to be held at the same time and place as the meeting of Presiding Elders and the Board of Lay Activities, for organization and other matters that may come before the Commission for action.

We nominate and recommend the election of Charles H. Ireland as Conference Lay Leader and A. C. Davis, Secretary.

(Signed) CHAS. H. IRELAND, Chairman.
A. C. DAVIS, Secretary.

TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME—REPORT NO. 1

We close a year of progress at The Children's Home with 239 children. On the whole, the health of our children has been good. Again we thank God that death has not invaded our household.

There has been an increase in our income from all sources except the fifth Sunday offerings. The Sunday schools have given us this year two thousand dollars less than last year. When The Children's Home was established in 1908, it was hoped that the Sunday schools would support the enterprise. But after 18 years effort, only about half the Sunday schools of our Conference ever contribute to this cause, while one-third contribute on any one fifth Sunday.

We have wondered where the fault may be. Is it because so many of our people have no sympathy for helpless children? Or is it because the Sunday school collections are diverted to the ten percent assessment?

We know that much of the fifth Sunday money is used for the payment of the assessment, and we cannot help wondering whether some of the preachers have not encouraged their people to this form of misappropriation. That some preachers are not interested in the work for the orphans is shown by the fact that twelve pastoral charges did not contribute one cent to this work last year, and seven others raised a total of only $24.00.

We feel that no work of the Church more nearly expresses the spirit of the Gospel than does the work of rescuing little children who are deprived of their natural protectors. James says that "pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction." And Jesus tells us that those who fail at this point shall hear at judgment these dread words, "Depart from me, ... inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these ye did it not to me."

Therefore, we cannot escape the conviction that any pastor who fails to tell his people of their duty, while giving them an opportunity to help, has been remiss in his obligation to them, and to the orphans and to the Master Himself. And we dare say that any officer of the Church, whether he be steward, Sunday school superintendent or preacher, who undertakes to divert the gifts of the children, or others, to any cause than that to which it is given, exhibits a moral obliquity which deserves the censure of the Conference, just as it will receive the condemnation of God.

We ask that the Conference again direct every preacher in charge of a mission, or circuit, or station, to insist that the orphanage work be presented in every Sunday school every fifth Sunday; and that a voluntary collection shall be taken at that time and forwarded at once to The Children's Home; and that it shall be unlawful to apply this fifth Sunday collection to any assessment laid upon the charge.

We recommend that F. M. Hanes, G. L. Hackney, J. W. Moore, H. K. Boyer, J. T. Mangum and A. E. Smith, be elected Trustees to succeed themselves, and that J. G. Stikeleather be elected to succeed G. T. Roth, deceased.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, President of Board of Trustees.

During the year a handsome wall and fence has been erected in front of The Children's Home grounds. All of the fence and part of the wall has been given to us by Messrs. James K. Norfleet, Richard G. Stockton, J. Edward Johnston and Hugh G. Chatham, all of this city.

Mrs. John W. Hanes, of Winston-Salem, gave us thirty thousand dollars to build a cottage. The cottage has been built and is now occupied by twenty-four little boys. With the money from the John Wesley Higgins bequest we have built a cottage for girls which will be occupied early in the new year.

We have rebuilt, enlarged and refurnished our kitchen and added a cold storage plant this year with borrowed money.

Of the twelve brick buildings at The Children's Home, eight have come to us by will or by personal gift, and four have been built by public subscription. Since the last public appeal for money for buildings we have secured and expended from private sources $125,000. And we have just begun the erection of an administration building to cost $40,000 as a memorial to the late James A. Gray, of Winston-Salem, the money to be supplied by his sons and daughters.

In view of these facts we believe an appeal, backed by an active campaign, should be made to our entire membership for aid in building four dormitories for children in order that we may be prepared to care for more of the hundreds of children calling upon us for help every year. We are caring for less than half the children of Methodist parentage who have a valid claim upon us.

We ask that the Conference endorse our plan of requesting every preacher and Sunday school superintendent to present the claims and the needs of The Children's Home on Sunday, May 13th, 1928 (being Mother's Day), with the request that each congregation make a liberal contribution to our Building Fund.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, President of Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF HOSPITAL BOARD

We regret that so far as now advised, the Conference has done so little for the Golden Cross, only ten or a dozen pastoral charges reporting less than $500.00. May we again call attention to the fact that our Church is committed to the Golden Cross enrollment, that the law is plain, the plan simple, wise and adequate; and may we urge again that all pastors popularize the enterprise by bringing this means for the relief of the sick poor before our people. May we respectfully urge in the recent language of our College of Bishops, "that the support of the hospital movement should not be spasmodic, but systematic and continuous."

The Church at large is now operating eight hospitals, with two more nearing completion, at a total value of over $8,000,000.

The Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium, at Tucson, Arizona, is our only Connectional hospital, and the commission appointed by the last General Conference to manage it is erecting a new building at the cost of some $40,000 to house tubercular patients.

We greatly need a similar Connectional hospital east of the Mississippi River, and we are committed by the General Conference to establish it. We hope we are not mistaken in the impression that our own great Conference is entirely favorable to such work of mercy within its bounds. The General Conference and our own Annual Conference have given favorable expression to its location in North Carolina.

Believing, as we do, that by every token we have the best natural advantages for the hospitalization of tubercular patients, we, therefore, recommend that Dr. H. K. Boyer, Dr. T. A. Hathcock and Chaplain L. W. Colson, be appointed a Committee of three from this Conference Hospital Board to visit every District Conference at its next session, and such pastoral charges as they can reach acceptably to those concerned, to the end that something definite may be done during this Conference year toward establishing such Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium.

We request the continuance of the Committee appointed a year ago—W. H. Webster, T. A. Hathcock and H. K. Boyer—said Committee being authorized to review all prospects for Methodist hospitalization within the bounds of our Conference, to secure information, and to formulate any definite plan, which, in its discretion, is worth while to the Conference.

We further recommend that our Hospital Board be authorized to take membership in the Hospital Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and that we send a representative to the next meeting at St. Louis, and L. W. Colson be chosen to represent this Conference at that meeting.

We request the Commission on Budget to appropriate $200 for expense account of this Board during the year.

We also recommend the appointment of L. W. Colson to the Chaplaincy of the U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 60, Oteen, N. C., and that he also be appointed Executive Secretary Hospital Board and Golden Cross Director for the Conference.

(Signed) H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF BIBLE BOARD

Since we believe that giving the Gospel to all people is the ultimate objective of our efforts; and since the American Bible Society furnishes the scriptures, free, to those who are unable to pay for them and at cost to others; and since our Church has in its budget an item for the work of printing and distributing the Bible and parts of the Bible, your Board begs to recommend that we make our people acquainted with this phase of our work and that we stress the importance of a hearty and liberal support to this very worthy cause.

(Signed) JOHN W. MOORE, Chairman,
H. L. POWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SPIRITUAL STATE OF CHURCH

Your Committee finds it difficult to say just what, to us, seems best; and while the Spiritual State of the Church within the bounds of the Conference is perhaps as good as it has been in the past, yet we feel that it is far from the standard laid down by the great Head of the Church, Jesus Christ our Lord.

We desire to call attention to the opening remarks of our good Bishop at this Conference session, when he laid stress upon the miracles of Christ, and ask that our pastors, as they go about trying to do good, keep it ever in mind that spiritual power comes only from on high, and that without direct communication with that Higher Power, the preachers work is vain and ineffective.

The reports to this Conference show that too few are coming into the Church on profession of faith, and we know of no other way to increase those numbers than that our pastors stress evangelism and do their utmost to revive the home life that once fitted our boys and girls to naturally come into the Church.

Sometimes we blame the preacher for the lack of spirituality in the Church, when the people themselves give more of their support to worldly things than to the Church. The Church is the greatest organization in the world, and ought to be so considered by our people. We really ought to take seriously the work of training our people in spirituality—and not be satisfied until we have made the Church the most inviting and attractive place in the community; and until we can get our people to assume the responsibility that rests upon them, the spiritual life will not grow as it should.

(Signed) C. W. HUNT, Chairman,
G. W. CLAY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

In the ancient time our good Heavenly Father looked upon his struggling children and said, You shall rest, and you must worship. One day out of seven must be set aside and kept holy. God's children received this gift and it became a great blessing to civilized humanity throughout the centuries.

In a later century, the people made a fetish of this gracious gift of God, and became slaves to it; then the Son of God spoke, and said: "the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath."

Now, in this modern day of free thinking and loose living, too many of us, ministers and laity, have too carelessly and meanly handled this gracious gift of God. Thus, His holy day, has been disregarded, misused and wickedly abused until this great foundation stone of Christian civilization seems to be in danger of being submerged in the debris of worldliness and sinful pleasure, and too few of us seem to really care at all.

Your Committee would exhort our brethren in the ministry and Christian leaders of the Church:

First: To set themselves to a careful and conscientious treatment of God's gift, the Holy Sabbath Day,

Second: That we preach to and exhort our people to the more careful observance of God's Holy Sabbath.

(Signed) J. O. ERVIN, Chairman,
MRS. V. L. STONE, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CHAPEL HILL CHURCH

The work committed to our hands to build an adequate Methodist Church at Chapel Hill for the Methodist students attending the University of North Carolina has been completed. The pews, carpet and pulpit furniture have been placed this year. The building is well appointed and located as a social and religious center at Chapel Hill, and its usage warrants the labor and the cost of its construction. It stands as a challenge to the ideals and the aspirations of hundreds of youths who pass its portals daily.

The financial statement attached herewith shows a total expenditure of $230,964.97, with an indebtedness of $68,647.81. To meet this indebtedness and provide a small maintenance fund, your Commission makes the following recommendations:

1. That this Commission be continued as constituted.
2. That the two co-operating Methodist Conferences in North Carolina, each create a Special Conference Mission Fund for the purpose of paying this indebtedness.
3. That the amount of this fund for each Conference for the year 1927-1928 be $12,000.
4. That a Committee be named to plan the ways and means of securing this Special Conference Mission Fund, provided that it is not to be an assessment.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS OF SECURING FUNDS FOR CHAPEL HILL CHURCH

Your Committee for devising ways and means for collecting $12,000.00 for the Church at Chapel Hill, recommends that this sum be allotted to the various Districts on the same percentage basis of the benevolences and that it be worked as a Conference Special,

That the pastor of the Chapel Hill Church, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Lay Activities, together with Carl B. Hiatt, of Asheville; William H. Bobbitt, of Charlotte; and James A. Gray, of Winston-Salem, be appointed as a special Committee to secure the funds,

That the Conference be divided into three zones, known as the Asheville, Charlotte and Winston-Salem Zones, with the three above mentioned names as heads of the respective zones for accomplishing the task.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION

The Joint Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, in North Carolina, submits the following report:

1. In order to promote fellowship and bring mutual benefit to the two Churches, we would reiterate the recommendations set forth in the four items in our report made two years ago, and repeated in our report one year ago, namely, that there may be, as opportunity affords, an interchange of pulpits by ministers of the two branches of Methodism and an interchange of preachers in revival work.

Also that continuous effort be made for readjustment where the two Churches overlap in rural districts, and to avoid crowding or overlapping where new preaching places are being established in towns and cities, and that the Presiding Elder involved and the President of the Methodist Protestant Conference, together with the Committee on Rural Church Problems, constitute a Board of Mediation to act with the parties interested in making the adjustment.

2. It was agreed to continue the Committee created one year ago, composed of Dr. W. P. Few and Revs. A. G. Dixon, M. T. Plyler and R. C. Stubbins, to study the problem of co-operation and readjustment of rural Church work in territory where the two Churches overlap, this Committee to report to the next annual meeting of the Joint Commission, making recommendation as to the basis of operation. This Committee to be known as the Committee on Rural Church Problems.

3. Following the agreement of a year ago, that the term of office of two members of the Joint Commission representing each of the two denominations, should expire each year, Rev. M. T. Plyler and Rev. J. H. Barnhardt were nominated by the group of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for election by their respective Conferences, the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference. The matter of electing two members by the Methodist Protestant Conference was referred to the Nominating Committee of that Conference.

T. M. JOHNSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DUKE FUND COMMISSION

Each year, with enlarged experience and a better view of the entire situation, the distribution of the Duke Fund becomes easier, and, we trust, more satisfactory; though much remains to be done before entire satisfaction can be gained.

In addition to the $5,000 distributed by the Board of Missions to each Conference every year, and the larger amounts distributed directly by the Duke Endowment to aid the preachers who work in the country, a number of young preachers of Duke University are assigned to work in country pastorates. Last summer seven young men assisted pastors through the summer vacation. This venture proved to be a fine success. The plan is to place a larger number next summer.

We would suggest that any pastor who expects to have a helper next summer should begin to make preparations for this soon after Conference:

1. Lay out a special program for the summer.
2. Advise the office at Duke so that the number needed may be secured.
3. Indicate the special kind of work to be stressed that men with special talents for that kind of work may be assigned.

This will guarantee that something special is doing in the charge, and it will also let the young men know what to plan for.

The effort to aid in building churches by securing plans and advising in the undertaking is making some headway, but there is still need for fuller co-operation between local committees and the office at Durham. A joint effort of patient planning and careful co-operation in building would save from the embarrassment of heavy debts and the failure to get money to carry out certain plans, too often ill suited to the situation.

Professor Ormond does the best he can with the many demands upon him. Few realize how difficult it is to care for all the details and the patience required in this work. To use money without waste in building churches is difficult, but it is more difficult to use money to the best advantage to aid the preachers who work in the country. The personal equation plays a larger part. The men charged with administering this trust should have the fullest co-operation of every member of the Conference, the utmost patience possible.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

THE RURAL CHURCH—SOME GENERAL PRINCIPLES

In making recommendations of appropriations or loans from the Duke Endowment for the building of Churches, the following definite aims are kept in view:

1. To meet the needs, present and prospective, of the congregations to be served.

2. To encourage the building of Churches that will be examples for others to follow. Usually aid will not be given for buildings that are below the C type: that is, houses that provide for at least three rooms in addition to the Church auditorium; and plans are to be approved beforehand.

3. To encourage the building of permanent structures. Stone or brick should be used if possible.

4. To be sure of a good site and to have plenty of land. If in the open country there should be five to ten acres.

5. To make sure of a strategic location; that is, in communities that are apt to grow, or at points where another Church, or other Churches, might now, or later, be consolidated.

6. To make amounts appropriated larger, or smaller, according as a given Church meets conditions outlined above, depending in part also upon the present congregation's financial ability, and only after careful study and personal inspection.

Only small amounts will ordinarily be recommended, unless all, or most of the above conditions are met. Churches falling below these standards will usually belong to one of two classes:

1. Weak and struggling Churches that must consolidate with other Church, or Churches, or cease to exist. Money invested in these Churches will have a temporary, not a permanent use.

2. Weak Churches that are new and have a future, or weak Churches that have a new opportunity because of changed economic conditions in the communities where they are located. These Churches will be favorably considered for appropriations, especially as they come into position to undertake permanent Church building. When necessary, this building may be done in permanent units that will ultimately fit into a completed whole.

In making recommendations of appropriations for the maintenance of country Churches, much the same general considerations as in the case of Church building, but specifically these two aims, are kept in view:

1. To give aid to such country Churches and circuits as seem most to need and most to deserve aid.

2. To seek to stimulate and improve the quality of work done by supplementing salaries in representative country Churches and circuits, and thus making such appointments attractive to any preacher. This will involve the development of men who have been fitted for this sort of work, the encouragement of them to stay in it, and the helping of them to realize that they may have as good chances in the country as anywhere else to succeed and to be useful. Other things being equal, preference will be given to Churches whose houses have been built in co-operation with this rural Church fund.

REPORT OF DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

We find the condition of the Company as follows on October 1, 1927:

Insurance in force, $1,605,465.00.

Surplus as regards policyholders, $52,000.00.

During the year losses of $18,642.80 were paid in full, including $15,000.00 paid to Rutherford College.

We recommend that all Boards giving aid to Churches require that the property shall be adequately insured and preferably in our own Company.

We recommend that Presiding Elders be requested to nominate or appoint at the First Quarterly Conference, an Insurance Agent without pay for every charge to co-operate with the Trustees to the end that all our Church property may be well insured.

We recommend the election of W. A. Newell and G. F. Ivey as Directors whose terms shall expire in 1932.

(Signed) E. A. COLE, Chairman,
W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The District Conference Records of the eleven Districts have been examined by the Committee.

Generally speaking, all the records are in good condition and well kept.

The record of the Asheville District is especially neat and well kept.

The records of the Charlotte and Marion Districts are typewritten instead of being written with pen and ink.

We recommend that the records be written with pen and ink.

C. M. SHORT, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in Central Methodist Church, Asheville, at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, November the 1st, 1927.

The opening devotional service consisted of several special songs and anthems rendered by the choir of Central Church, followed by Hymn 180, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," and prayer led by Rev. J. S. Hiatt, of West Asheville.

In the absence of Dr. H. K. Boyer, President, the business session was presided over by Rev. William L. Sherrill. In the absence of the Secretary, Rev. J. F. Kirk, Rev. W. G. McFarland was elected Secretary pro tempore. The Committee on Nominations, appointed by the chair, included Rev. J. S. Hiatt, Rev. J. P. Hipps, and Mr. J. A. Bell.

Introduced by the chairman, Dr. T. F. Glenn, veteran Methodist preacher, delivered an interesting, instructive, and inspiring address on the subject, "The History of Methodism in the Mountains of North Carolina." The manuscript will be filed with the archives of the Historical Society.

The Committee on Nominations made its report, recommending for President, Dr. C. C. Weaver; Vice-President, Rev. W. E. Poovey; member Executive Committee, Rev. A. W. Plyler; Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. W. G. McFarland; and they were elected to serve for the ensuing year.

A collection to meet the expenses of the Society was taken, and $11.73 was contributed.

After announcements made by Dr. A. C. Chappell, Conference host, the Benediction was pronounced by Dr. T. F. Glenn.

(Signed) W. G. McFARLAND, Secretary.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Brotherhood of the Western North Carolina Conference met in nineteenth annual session in basement of Central Methodist Church, Asheville, N. C., November 5th, 1927, at 2 o'clock P. M., with W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. The meeting was very brief on account of session of the Annual Conference. J. J. Edwards led in prayer. Minutes of last annual meeting were read and approved. Treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $4,090.20. It also showed that the last four claims had not been paid by six hundred dollars each, because the Treasurer could not tell how much to pay until this Conference met. But each will be paid sixteen hundred dollars, making a total of six claims of this same amount having been paid this past year.

The Secretary having been ordered a year ago to take a vote by mail on whether or not the Brotherhood would change the mortuary fee from three to five dollars at each death, presented the vote, and the chair appointed C. E. Rozzelle and J. F. Moser to count the vote. They reported that there were 147 for the change and 89 against it. The chair then declared that the measure had carried and the fee was changed to five dollars hereafter. On motion, it was ordered that for the incoming year each claimant should be paid $1,600.00 as soon as possible and at the next annual meeting whatever balance we had should be divided equally between the claimants at that time.

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice-President, W. R. Ware; Secretary and Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. The chair appointed G. D. Herman and W. L. Dawson as members of the Executive Committee.

At 2:25 P. M. the Brotherhood adjourned with the Benediction by M. H. Vestal.

(Signed) W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary-Treasurer.

Memoirs

REV. JAMES ARCHIE BOWLES

The sublimest object in nature is true character. The richest assets of a nation are its worthy citizens. In the building of our national structure there are found the faithful workmen of the Gospel ministry whose service has ever added thereto abiding strength and glory. Among the true benefactors of a people are those who contribute spiritual values. Estimated by such standards the life and service of James Archie Bowles represent an imperishable heritage for the betterment of humankind.

He was born in Person County, April 26, 1858. He was educated at Trinity College under the administration of President Braxton Craven.

Having been admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference in 1883, he served the following charges: East Guilford, 1884-1886; Summerfield, 1887-1890; Greensboro Circuit, 1891-1892; Mooresville Station, 1893-1896; Henrietta, 1897-1900; Madison, 1901-1902; Proximity-White Oak, 1903-1905; West Greensboro, 1906-1909; Mount Holly, 1910-1913; Forest City, 1914-1917; Norwood, 1918-1919; Lowesville, 1920-1921; Randleman, 1922-1923.

On April 25, 1888, he was united in marriage to Mary Lucas Boren, of Guilford County, who heroically shared the joys and trials of the itinerancy. Throughout their happy married life beautiful devotion pervaded the precincts of the home. Their children are: James Archie, Hargrove, Mrs. C. A. McDaniel, Mrs. C. L. Jenkins, David Addison, Joseph Cates, Wade Anderson, Annie Mae and Charles Phillips. Two children, Roe Boren and Frank Edward, died in infancy.

Endowed with a bright mind, he possessed a keen insight into human nature. His analysis of character and conduct was clear and discriminating. His messages were fraught with gospel truth and were presented with a practical knowledge of the needs of the people to whom he ministered. He loved the doctrines of Methodism and was fearless in defending truth and in assailing shams and error. While rebuking sin he sought to rescue the erring. While loyal to truth, he repudiated error without being intolerant; and loyal to duty, he rebuked unfaithfulness without being unkind.

His sense of humor and gift in conversation contributed to pleasant fellowship in the social circle. His personal friendship was steady and true. In his home the friendly visitor was welcomed with genuine hospitality.

The following worthy tribute was paid him by Rev. H. L. Powell, pastor, West Greensboro Charge: "Brother Bowles was a Methodist preacher in the fullest significance of the term. He believed in the cardinal doctrines of his Church and fearlessly preached them. As a result, people were convinced of sin and turned from it to the service of God. Nothing less than a consciousness of personal salvation was satisfactory to him. Believing this essential he led people into the experience.

"He was constructive in his work. As an organizer and builder he invariably left a charge better than he found it. He had a firmness of character and conviction that made itself felt and he invariably got results. Coupled with this was adaptability and diplomacy that made him loved by all who knew him. He fitted into any situation effectively. He was tender as a mother. In sorrow and grief he knew the word to soothe and comfort. Children trusted and loved him.

"During his last years he had the third Sunday morning at Muir's Chapel. He wrote the sermon and some member of the woman's missionary society read it. This service was a real benediction."

At the Conference in 1923 he retired from the active ministry on account of ill health. During the remaining years, spent in Pomona, he bore his affliction with cheerful spirit and heroic submission.

Early Monday morning, April 25, 1927, his noble spirit passed into the larger life. The funeral was conducted from Muir's Chapel Wednesday afternoon, April 27, by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Powell, assisted by Rev. A. W. Plyler and Rev. W. S. Milne.

Hail and farewell, true friend and comrade. May we meet amid the heavenly hills of light and glory.

S. B. TURRENTINE.

REV. G. H. CHRISTENBERRY

The subject of this sketch was the son of Eli A. and Margaret J. Christenberry, born near Huntersville, North Carolina, November 5, 1869, and passed peacefully to the skies from his home in Spruce Pine on April 16, 1927. He was ordained deacon by Bishop I. W. Joyce in 1905 and elder by Bishop W. F. McDowell in 1906. He spent several years as a pastor in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Tennessee and Kansas. His appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference were as follows: Biltmore and Mt. Pleasant, 1907-10; Carraway Memorial, 1911-12; Randleman and Naomi, 1913-14; Sylva, 1915; Black Mountain, 1916-18; Superannuate relation, 1919-21; Hot Springs, 1922; Old Fort, 1923-24; Spruce Pine, 1925-27.

Prominent among his good qualities were his kindliness and gentleness. He hated sin and made no compromise with the world but loved the sinner and sought every way to help him to find salvation. His individuality was strongly defined. He did not go with the multitude. He possessed the courage of his convictions and his mind was alert and vigorous. He had a vein of wit and humor and seemed to have an almost inexhaustible fund of anecdotes which he used to good advantage. He had faith in the great doctrines of the Church. He was a man of God; his delight was to do God's will. His religion was a definite experience in the heart. He proved the great doctrines in his own soul. He was keenly sensitive to the responsibility of his work. His spirituality was radiant.

He made a loyal itinerant minister and was a man of one work. He loved the calling and loved the brethren. His preaching was instructive and interesting. He believed his gospel and was earnest in delivering his message. There was no note of incertitude in the message he delivered to the people for his Lord. He was a life-long student of the Bible. The shifting currents of human opinion had no power to shake his firm faith.

He was an excellent pastor. Passing through the lights and shadows incident and inevitable to Methodist preachers and their familites with the shepherd's heart and the preacher's message, he also knew how to comfort those who weep. He had a heart of tenderness and sympathy for those in trouble. The widow and the needy ever found in him a friend able and willing to help. With great care he looked after every interest and detail of his work and carried every member on his heart. He was a diligent pastor, always ready and willing to serve whenever and wherever needed. He loved his people and visited them and sympathized with them in all their troubles and afflictions. At any hour, day or night, he was ready to minister to the sick or comfort the bereaved. He went about doing good.

He took deep interest in civic affairs. Nothing that concerned the welfare of humanity was foreign to him. He made religion attractive. Young people and old people were drawn to him. He was beloved by Church members and those who were not members of the Church. His presence seemed to scatter the clouds and bring sunshine. He entered intelligently and sympathetically into the affairs of his people and the community. His sincerity and generosity and brotherliness made him a gracious and welcome guest. The entire community felt the good influence of his life, knew his worth and trusted him without reserve.

He was an affectionate, tender and faithful husband and father. His was a happy home. It was always a delight to rest under his hospitable roof. A hearty welcome awaited every one who came his way. He was twice married. First to Miss Mattie E. Jordan. His second marriage was to Miss Fannie Bell Fogleman.

Brother Christenberry ceased at once to labor and to live. On Friday he spent the entire day in preparation for special Easter services. In the evening he was stricken with apoplexy and died on Saturday afternoon, having never regained consciousness. Instead of the Easter service for which he had planned, the Church was thronged with a sorrowing congregation which came to pay tribute to their departed pastor and friend. While there was deep sadness and a sense of irreparable loss, the radiant spirit of the departed minister seemed to touch all bereaved hearts with the reality of triumphant Easter faith. In the afternoon his remains were taken to the old home Church, Asbury Chapel, near Huntersville, and laid to rest with Masonic honors. The funeral was conducted by his Presiding Elder, Rev. E. O. Cole, assisted by Rev. W. L. Sherrill.

His brethren of the Conference will miss his warm handclasp and brotherly greeting. They will cherish his memory and expect to meet him again in our Father's House. May God keep to that day his bereaved loved ones.

EDWIN O. COLE.

REV. CHARLES MARTIN CARPENTER

Rev. Charles Martin Carpenter, son of John and Catherine Carpenter, was born at Maiden, Catawba County, North Carolina, January 28, 1857, and departed this life March 28, 1927. Brother Carpenter is survived by his wife and ten children: Mrs. J. C. Rich, Mrs. J. Neal Scroggs, Mrs. Bernard Crawford, Mrs. Walter Bryan, Mrs. John Evans, all of Candler, N. C., and Mrs. J. C. McCurry, of Asheville, N. C.; J. J. Carpenter, Delwood, N. C.; D. R. Carpenter, Detroit, Mich.; C. L. Carpenter, Troy, N. Y.; and Willis Carpenter, Candler, N. C. In the early years of his life Brother Carpenter moved to Haywood County, N. C., where he married and lived as an active and useful citizen, as farmer, school teacher, register of deeds and local preacher. As he grew in years his consecration deepened and he obeyed the call to a wider field of usefulness and offered himself for pastoral work, first as a supply and afterward as a member of the Conference. His first charge was Rosman Circuit, which he served two years as supply, 1911 and 1912. He was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1913 and was returned to Rosman Circuit for 1913 and 1914, making four years on his first charge, which showed well for his adaptation and ability. His next charge was Hayesville Circuit, which he served successively for three years after which he was assigned to Leicester Circuit, a large and influential circuit where he was retained three years. From Leicester he was assigned to Marshall Station. He entered upon the work in Marshall with much enthusiasm and success, but in the midst his health failed and continued to decline until it became necessary for him to lay down his work and retire from active service. He lost no interest in the work and sought by every means to regain his health, but while the inner man grew, the outward man steadily declined until the end came.

Such was the nature of his disease that medical skill, an operation, and the best nursing proved of no avail. His suffering was great, but he bore it patiently and endured as seeing Him who is invisible. He did not murmur or complain. He died at home, surrounded by loved ones and friends. His death was triumphant. His funeral was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and was conducted in Montmorenci Church by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Latham, assisted by Rev. T. A. Groce, Rev. J. F. Kirk and the writer.

Brother Carpenter was a successful preacher and pastor as evidenced by the fact that he has served good charges in a long term of services, which proves that he gave satisfaction and every charge was in the line of advancement, and which proves his high standing with the authorities. He was a friendly man, loved children, sympathized with suffering, took interest in everyone's welfare. He had clear and strong convictions of the truth and preached a gospel which he personally knew to be the power of God unto salvation. He was hopeful and optimistic and always saw the bright side. His optimism and good humor were contagious and inspiring, which made him always a welcome guest and valued friend. His children rise up and call him blessed. His wife, Miss Palmer, was one of Haywood County's noblest women. She was a strong support and helper. Working together they made a lovely home in which ten lives were molded and trained, all of whom have taken rank as useful citizens of high moral and religious character. Thus the good influences of a good life will go on multiplying and bearing fruit for years to come, while he rests from his labor and receives his reward.

D. ATKINS.

REV. JOHN H. ROBERTSON

Rev. John Henry Robertson was born in Guilford County, near Summerfield, N. C., September 14, 1867, and died June 8, 1927, at his home in Forsyth County, near Winston-Salem.

At the early age of thirteen he was converted. By every test common to Christian experience this was proved to be genuine. He never doubted that he was a child of God. His faith always met the test, and he had the "witness within himself." To this he was always a joyful witness. While with the heart he believed unto righteousness, "with the mouth confession was made unto salvation."

On December 21, 1910, he was married to Miss Virginia Craft. To this union were two children.

He gave to the Church fifteen years of active service, retiring in 1919. He overcame the serious handicap of a weak body by strong resolution and a passionate love for his work. Laboring against this and other disadvantages he finally fought his way to a place in the itinerant ministry for which he was always justly proud, and though as a minister he labored acceptably and often with marked success, he was always keenly conscious that his early educational training was a handicap.

Brother Robertson was a minister, not in the sense of the professional, but in the deeper and more sacred sense of a consecration that gave birth to clear conviction. He said little about it, but to be associated with him was to feel that he walked with the dignity and bearing that flows from a life called according to high purpose. This was noted too, by the fact that for years after his conversion, he wrestled against circumstances that kept him from the work he longed to do. When finally finding himself free, he entered the ranks of the itinerancy and there held his place till forced to quit.

In 1904 he joined the Western North Carolina Conference and served the following charges: Danbury, 1904-05; Forsyth, 1906; Elk Park, 1907-08; Stoneville, 1909-10; Lincoln Circuit, 1911-14; Plateau, 1915-16; Lowell, 1917; and Jonesville, 1918-19.

He served till summoned. His interest never abated. The pastor never found a truer friend. While he could not work himself he made it easy for the one who did. On his last Sabbath he was present at Sunday school and the eleven o'clock worship. That afternoon he attended the Quarterly Conference and took lively interest in all that was done. He was in his usual place at the evening worship, thereby giving one more and his last day's work for Jesus. Wednesday following he planned to be at mid-week prayer meeting, but didn't get there, and while we were at the Church he slipped away home.

He never spoke of his years of service as a minister except in terms of delight and gladness. If he ever had any complaint to make we never heard it. We are reminded of Mr. Valiant-for-Truth in Bunyan's immortal allegory. Said he: "I am going to my Father, and tho with great difficulty I am got hither, yet now I do not repent me of all the trouble I have been at to arrive where I am. My sword I give him who shall succeed me in my pilgrimage, and my courage and skill to him that can get it. My marks and my scars I carry with me to be a witness for me that I have fought his battles who will be my rewarder." When the day that he must go hence was come many accompanied him to the river side, and heard him say: "Death, where is thy sting?" and as he went down deeper he said; "Grave where is thy victory?" So he passed over and all the trumpets sounded for him on the other side.

A. BURGESS.

FRANKLIN LAFAYETTE TOWNSEND

Franklin LaFayette Townsend was the son of an honored local Methodist preacher.

Born on a farm in Robeson County, N. C., on the 4th of July, 1853, and was named for two illustrious international statesmen.

Under the influence of his godly parents, he was, at an early age, led to accept Christ and unite with the Methodist Church.

Having heard the clear call to the ministry, he interpreted it to include a call to careful preparation. He made use of every meager opportunity that the time afforded, so that at the District Conference which met at "Old Trinity" in April, 1878, young Townsend was licensed to preach. His license was signed by Marcus L. Wood, Presiding Elder.

He was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Wilson, N. C., in 1879; ordained Deacon in Durham in 1881, and Elder at Statesville in 1883.

For forty-one years F. L. Townsend served in the active itinerant ranks; and whether on circuit, station, or district, he received his appointment as from the Lord, and went to the flock which he was sent to shepherd with a profound sense of ambassadorship for the Lord Jesus Christ.

The following charges felt the moulding influence of his holy ministry. In the North Carolina Conference, Montgomery Circuit, 1879; Pekin Circuit, 1880-81; Cumberland Circuit, 1882-84; Rockingham Circuit, 1885-88; Madison, 1889. In the Western North Carolina Conference, Madison, 1890; Wadesboro, 1891-92; Hickory, 1893-96; Elkin, 1897-98; Waynesville District, 1899-1901; Mount Airy, 1902-03; Franklin, 1904-07; Lincolnton, 1908-09; Leaksville, 1910-11; Greensboro, 1912-14; Walnut Street and Carraway Memorial, 1915; Wentworth, 1916-18; Bessemer City and Concord, 1919-20.

At the Western North Carolina Conference of 1920, in Salisbury, with health greatly impaired he reluctantly, but cheerfully, accepted the superannuate relation.

Brother Townsend was twice married. His first union was with Miss Crissie Lassiter, of Randolph County, December 1, 1881. Of this union three sons, Herbert, of Georgia; Frank, of Massachusetts; and Roy, of Greensboro, N. C., are living. The second happy union was with Miss Metta Folger, of Surry County. Surviving this union are, Mrs. Ruth Martin, of Brevard; and Folger, Paul and Mary, of Lenoir, N. C., where the mother, Mrs. Metta Folger Townsend, from her invalid's couch has contributed literary gems to the Church press. The youngest son, Paul, was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference at its present session.

Franklin LaFayette Townsend takes his place on the roll of our honored dead as one of the purest, truest, and best loved of men who ever wrought in the itinerant ranks. No unworthy ambition ever stirred his breast. No uncharitable thought ever found entertainment in his pure mind. No unwholesome story ever passed his lips. No unchristian act or attitude ever was associated with his consecrated life during the forty years, and more, of his faithful, itinerant ministry.

For six years Brother Townsend held the superannuate relation, and his trustful resignation in suffering His Father's will in retirement was as triumphant as his obedience in doing His will when in active work.

The approach of the end was gradual, and his passing was as peaceful as "one who wraps the draperies of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams." He was visiting his daughter in Brevard when the transfer was made to the eternal Conference of the Church triumphant, so that his mortal remains rest among the mountains whose lofty peaks he admired and whose loyal people he loved.

It was on Sunday, November the 7th, 1926, when I received a wire informing me that my dear, old friend had fallen asleep. Brother C. S. Kirkpatrick, whose Presiding Elder he had been, paid him the following tribute at the funeral:

"His preaching was warm and spiritual and proved constructive and helpful to his people. I was impressed as much by his prayers as by his message from the pulpit. I remember how he interceded for the unsaved.

He was an exceedingly faithful pastor. By a keen spiritual discernment he saw the tragedies that sin had wrought among his people. His heart went out to all in true Christ-like sympathy. Kind shepherd that he was, he could weep with those who wept. He was a man of broad, human sympathies. He was interested in all kinds of people, young and old, cultured and unlettered. He was a favorite with the children and he got from them some of his most telling illustrations. How we delighted to have him spend the night in our home. No more welcome guest ever came, and none ever showed more interest in every member of the household."

Continuing, Brother Kirkpatrick related the following incident to illustrate the saving sense of humor of the deceased:

"I saw him do almost the impossible at a school closing in Madison County. Locke Craig, then at the zenith of his power as an orator, had just delivered his famous address on 'Carthago est Delenda,' and his peroration had lifted his audience and left them with a feeling that they were in mid-air. The Presiding Elder (Brother Townsend), saw what to do and come off with flying colors. Throwing aside his prepared address on 'Education,' he plunged spontaneously into the choicest, short, humorous address I ever heard. More people went away talking about the address of the Presiding Elder than about that of the political orator."

Rev. T. F. Glenn, a veteran and comrade of the cross with the deceased, writes:

"He was a good preacher and a gifted, fluent writer. He usually delivered his sermons with an easy grace, and with a conversational freedom, untrammeled with polished and exact compositions; and like every true preacher, he had a passion for souls; and during his itinerant career won many victories for the great Captain of our Salvation. His presence in our home was a benediction. We received him as an ambassador who represented the King in Zion. His gentleness, his kindliness, his unaffected courtesy, his fervent prayers, deeply impressed us. Sometimes we entertain angels unawares."

Perhaps the esteem in which Brother Townsend was so universally held among his brethren in the Conference is best accounted for by two incidents illustrative of his unselfish attitude where others were involved.

The first incident occurred while he was Presiding Elder on the Waynesville District. The previous year the Presiding Elder had received a salary considerably below the $600 level. At Conference the Mission Board made an appropriation to the District to supplement the Elder's salary. Brother Townsend, with the consent of the Board, immediately redirected half of this appropriation to help out the salary of one of his preachers who had been appointed to a very poor circuit.

The second case occurred after he had been appointed to the East Greensboro Charge. After the appointments had been read it was discovered that one of the strong Churches had been transferred to another charge, leaving the salary level far below what had been represented in the Cabinet. Brother Townsend was offered another charge immediately, paying a much better salary. But he, kind-hearted man that he was, would not consent to a move by which the other brother pastor would be disadvantaged.

Finally, this paper would be incomplete without paying tribute to the devotion of this great and good man to his own home. His tender solicitude for his first wife when her health began to fail while he was my own pastor, and his loving care of the three little boys left by her premature passing, was indeed touching.

His second mate was a semi-invalid much of the time. How beautiful was his loving care for her comfort none knew but the most intimate friends. It was in the home circle that his fine Christian character shed its holy influence most benignly. His children, both natural and spiritual, "rise up and call him blessed."

JOHN EVANDER WOOSLEY

John Evander Woosley, son of Thomas and Martha Woosley, was born June 13, 1857, within three and a half miles of Mt. Olivet church, Davidson County, North Carolina, and died in the early morning of January 21, 1927, in the Bethel and Grace parsonage, Greensboro, North Carolina. The measure of his days was 69 years, seven months and eight days. Almost 44 years of his life were given to the work of an itinerant Methodist preacher.

The funeral services were held in Mt. Olivet church, Davidson County, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, January 22, 1927. This was the church of his childhood where he was converted and joined the church and remained a member till he was admitted into the North Carolina Conference, but at the division of the Conference he became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference. The services were conducted by Rev. W. F. Womble of Newton, assisted by Revs. R. C. Goforth, the pastor of the church, W. A. Newell, Mt. Airy, J. H. Barnhardt, Winston-Salem, and A. W. Plyler, Greensboro, all of whom except Brother Goforth were former presiding elders of Brother Woosley. Forty or more members of his conference were present and served as honorary pallbearers. A great concourse of people from far and near gathered for the services, and the floral offerings were unusually beautiful and at the same time mute but impressive reminders of how large was his circle of friends.

Interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery where many of his kindred are buried.

At the North Carolina Conference which met in Statesville in 1883 (this was before the division of the Conference) J. E. Woosley was one of the class received on trial at that Conference.

His appointments were as follows: Jackson Hill Circuit, 1884; Earpsboro Mission, 1885; Montgomery Mission, 1886-87; Pekin Circuit, 1888-89; Siler City Circuit, 1890; Asheboro Circuit, 1891; Ramseur Circuit, 1892; Randolph Circuit, 1893-95; Randleman, 1896-98; Belwood Circuit, 1899-01; Greensboro Circuit, 1902-03; Franklin District, 1904-05; Walkertown, 1906-07; Ramseur-Franklinville, 1908-10; Walnut Street, Greensboro, 1911; Morven Circuit, 1912-15; East Greensboro Circuit, 1916-19; Stony Point Circuit, 1920; Randolph Circuit, 1921-23; Bethel-Grace, 1924-27.

It is noteworthy that twenty-five years of his long ministry were spent in two counties, Randolph and Guilford, where the people who had come to know him so well appreciated most highly his sterling worth.

Brother Woosley was an old fashioned Methodist preacher whose life was rooted socially and religiously in a past which held him fast to the ancient landmarks of early Methodism. At the age of sixteen he was converted at the altar of Mt. Olivet church, where he had brought his own father with him as a penitent seeking salvation. It is not surprising, therefore, that he should ever remain a devotee of the Methodist altar and the old time revival meeting and a lover of the old hymns of the church which he could sing with remarkable effectiveness.

"I doubt if we have ever produced other men as great as our pioneer preachers. They were cast in so large a mold, they dealt so directly with the fundamental emotions of men and with some of the great facts of the spiritual life, that they almost ranged themselves with the giants. I had rather have known one of these men than all the political and military heroes that we have since bred. The politician has been the greatest popular hero, but the preacher has had much the greater influence. For a century he was by far our greatest man—the man of the largest original power and of the strongest character. He inherited the heroic qualities of the pioneers, and he led a life at once serene and active. He was a primitive sort of character, genuine and fearless. If our traditions overrate the political leaders that we have produced, they as greatly underrate the early preachers.

And it was to this class of men, unhonored and unsung in their own generation but afterward estimated at their true worth by such men as Walter Hines Page and Theodore Roosevelt, that J. E. Woosley belonged. If he had lived in the days of Francis Asbury he would have been one of the most useful co-laborers of "The Prophet of the Long Road."

But while a man with the anointing of the pioneers and true to the traditions of early Methodism he was at the same time in accord with the present day activities of the church. Its educational programs, its missionary enterprises, its young people's work and every program of progress received his unqualified endorsement. He refused to grow old or to spurn the present in favor of the past.

Miss Pauline Fishel of Freidburg, Davidson County, and a childhood friend, became in early life his bride, and through all the years has shared the toil and the joy of this itinerant Methodist preacher's life. And now the loyal and devoted wife, the beauty of whose character is so greatly admired by her friends, sits in the shadows of this great sorrow suffering the loss of a loving husband whose strength has sheltered her through the eventful years.

The children are: Mrs. C. M. Weber, Danville, Va.; Mrs. A. M. Wagoner, Walkertown; Mrs. W. B. Hall, High Point, and three sons: O. V. Woosley, Lexington, general Sunday school superintendent of the Western North Carolina Conference; John B. Woosley, of the faculty of the State University, Chapel Hill; Rev. Marcus B. Woosley, pastor at Boone; all of whom are living.

We sadly miss the presence of him whose friendship was warm and generous as a summer sea and whose life has been a benediction to so many.

He is gone, but the influence of his life and labors will abide. And his children will "carry on." Those daughters in their own homes and those sons each in his respective sphere. Oscar as the successful leader of our Sunday school forces in the great Western North Carolina Conference, John as a member of the faculty of our State University, and Marcus as a member of the Conference which his father honored and where he is already rendering fine service. Like so many Methodist preachers, Brother Woosley's greatest gift to the world was his children.

It was John Wesley who said, "Our people die well." That is still true.

At the family watch night service a few weeks before his death this father of the household led the prayer and in that midnight hour seemed to have a premonition that the end might be near, but he told his Heavenly Father that he was ready when the call came.

When first taken ill he informed his wife that he hardly expected to get well. And with the habits of a lifetime upon him he spent quite a bit of the time during his illness singing for his own delight the old hymns that he had loved so long and the very hymns that his predecessors in the Methodist itineracy had sung around the world. There was no moaning of the bar or sad farewell when he embarked, but, instead, the songs of victory.

A. W. PLYLER.

HEROINES OF THE PARSONAGE

Mrs. Laura Ramsour Blair, daughter of George S. and Margaret Warlick Ramsour, was born in Lincoln County, November 16, 1853. In early life she joined the Reformed Church and when she married the late Rev. H. M. Blair, in 1903, she transferred her membership to the Methodist Church. She was devoted to the work of the Kingdom and a true helpmeet to her husband through many years of his active ministry.

It can be truly said of her that "She did what she could" until she fell on sleep, December 10, 1926, and went to her eternal reward.

Mrs. Mattie E. Carraway died in Greensboro, September 19, 1927, aged 76 years. She was the widow of the late Rev. P. J. Carraway who went to his reward twenty years ago. Mrs. Carraway was a faithful member of West Market Street Church, Greensboro, attending Sunday school and was a devout Christian, generous in spirit, gentle in disposition, and the friend of all who knew her.

Mrs. T. F. Glenn, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Paul Stephens, was born in Washington County, Penn., Dec. 10, 1838. In early life she gave her heart to God and joined the Methodist Church. She was married to Rev. T. F. Glenn at Jasper, Tenn., November 2, 1862, and was his helpmeet for 65 years. Then in the early morning, May 6, 1927, without a struggle, she slipped away to join the dear ones gone before.

Her end was peaceful and the sunset was clear, for there was not a cloud to dim the glory of her crossing.

Her aged husband in loneliness, but with abiding faith, awaits the summons to join her in the world of spirits.

Mrs. Mary S. King, daughter of Frederick and Maria Fentress, was born near Pleasant Garden, March 17, 1843, and married to the late Rev. C. W. King, December 5, 1864. As the wife of an itinerant preacher she lived in 19 circuits and missions, from Davidson to the sea, and was ever a devoted and faithful co-laborer in the work to which her husband was called. In early life she professed faith in Christ and joined the Church.

She passed to her reward January 12, 1927, and the body was laid to rest in Pleasant Garden grave yard by the side of the body of her husband.

Mrs. Talitha M. Pickens was born in Sullivan County, Tenn., September 18, 1838, and died at Weaverville, N. C., December 15, 1925.

In December, 1871, she married the late Rev. R. W. Pickens, with whom she lived happily until he was called to his reward in 1918.

She was industrious and frugal and withal consecrated and faithful to every task which the Lord laid upon her. In the Weaverville Church she labored untiringly for nearly 50 years, and many old Weaver College students remember her with gratitude and affection.

Mrs. Sallie Frances (Smithwick) Pusey, of North Carolina, was married to the late Rev. E. G. Pusey February 9, 1877, and in 1883, when he was licensed to preach, she encouraged him in his new calling and then through the many years her husband served as an itinerant preacher, until he superannuated in 1910, this faithful companion kept the home fires burning and was a blessing to the people in every field her husband labored.

She was loved by all who knew her and when she departed this life at Morven last summer, sorrow came to many hearts.
